Everyday Courage
Way, Niobe

Published by NYU Press

Way, Niobe.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/10919.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/10919
Index

Academic performance: perceptions of, 267; and self-blame, 201. See also School(s), attitude toward
Academic standards, low, 202
Academic world, limited perspective of, 3
Achievement. See Success
Adolescence: girls’ experience during, 21; and increased desire for outspokenness, 109; relationship with mother, 161; theories of, as bias in developmental psychology, 20–21
Adolescents, urban: complexity of, 260–61; defining world of, 8; definition of, 1n; multifaceted nature of, 22–23; percent in poverty, 4; respecting perceptions and opinions of, 3–4, 7–8; stereotypes of, 1, 2, 5–6, 203, 260, 269; trials of, 1–3. See also Boys; Girls
Adulthood: attitudes about. See Maturity, conceptions of African Americans: community connection between, 257; cultural value of interdependence among, 264; and extended self, 43, 264; importance of mothers to, 160–62; socialization of daughters by, 106; youth, 5
Ainsworth, Mary, 16
Albert (case study): on effect of interviewer’s sex and race, 217–18; on friends, 119–23; on mother, 149–52; on overcoming discrimination, 212; on speaking out, 97–99
Alcohol use: attitudes toward, 5, 48, 232, 243; interview protocol on, 275
Alfredo (case study): on experiences of racism, 211; on fears of the future, 167–68; on problems at school, 197–99
Ambition: in adolescents, 2; racism as obstacle to, 205–6; romance as obstacle to, 241–42
American Dream, belief in, 182, 214–15, 266. See also Individualistic values
Analysis of data, 26–27, 33–38, 76–77, 277–78
Anger: expressions of, 83–88, 124; expressions of, as outspokenness, 81–82, 95, 101, 103–4; suppression of, 53–54,
Anger (Continued)
67–68, 79–80, 94–95, 97–99, 100, 124, 177. See also Rage
Anzaldua, Gloria, 264
Arrogance, as source of conflict, 117–18
Associates, vs. friends, 45, 114–16
Attitude, speaking out with, 89, 97
Attitude, positive. See Positive attitude
Batgos, Joanna, 138
Being heard, importance of. See Outspokenness
Bell-Scott, Patricia, 5
Best friends: characteristics of, 131–35, 137, 229–30, 251; interview protocol on, 273
Bias: of author, 15; in developmental psychology, 16–21; inevitability of, 12–16.
See also Racial bias
Birth control: interview protocol on, 274; use of, 47, 57. See also Sex
Birthrate statistics: for school studied, 30; for youth, 6–7
Blacks. See African Americans
Blame, of self, for poor academic performance, 185–204
Blos, Peter, 20
Bordo, Susan, 23
Bowlby, John, 16
Boyfriend(s), 230–31, 240–41, 252; betrayal by, 130–31; conceptually clustered matrix for relationship with, 277–78; interview protocol on, 273–74; lack of trust in, 135, 136; problems with, 192; unwillingness to be open with, 91–93, 94–95. See also Relationships; Sex
Boys: inability to trust girls, 122–23, 138–39; minority, society’s lack of trust in, 141–42; and mothers, 146–54; reasons for lack of close friends among, 139–40
Bronfenbrenner, Urie, 6, 8
Brown, Lyn Mikel, 13, 34, 139
Burnout, among students, 185; among teachers, 202
Burton, Linda, 4
Busch-Rossnagel, N. A., 144
Campbell, Anne, 7
Chantel (case study): on fears of the future, 171; on friendship, 132, 133; on mother, 157–60; on school, 186, 191–94; on speaking out, 83–84, 88, 91
Children: attitudes toward, 46, 48, 66, 241, 251–52. See also Birth control; Sex
Christine (case study): on experiences with racism, 210–11; on school, 185; on speaking out, 84–85, 90–91
Cocaine use, 5, 48
College, percent of poor youth attending, 5
Communication, inability to manage, 93–95
Community, desire to contribute to, 50, 254–55
Competition, as motivation for success, 234–35
Conceptually clustered matrices, in analysis of data, 34, 36–37, 277–78
Confidentiality in friends. See Trust
Conflict: arrogance as source of, 117–18; attitude towards, 68. See also Anger
Connection, speaking out to maintain, 87–88
Costin, S. E., 143
Culture, American: effect on adolescent attitudes, 139–42; gender pressures of, 108–9; as mediating force in observation, 12. See also Society
Curiosity, as desirable trait, 231
Danger: apprehension of, 245–46; awareness of, 50; escaping from, 58; and male friends, 55. See also Fear
Data: analysis of, 26–27, 33–38, 76–77, 277–78; importance of openness in gathering of, 15–16; objectivity of, 12; surprises in, 267
Death: attitude toward, 49–50, 62; depending on others, 70; fear of, 164–84, 266
Debold, Elizabeth, 109
Decenteredness of experience, 22–23
Deficit model of minorities, 13
Dependency, attitudes toward, 70
Development, human, importance of context in study of, 24–25
Developmental metanarratives, 18–19
Developmental psychology: biases in, 16–21; challenging theories of, 19; limited perspective of, 4; new methods needed in, 265; privileged metaphors in, 25; sexism in, 21
Developmental theory, definition of, 16
Discovery research, neglect of, in social science research, 17
Discrimination: experiences of, 205–17; strategies for overcoming, 212–16. See also Racism
Dropping out of school: poor opinion of school as cause of, 197; rate of, among poor youth, 5; rate of, at studied school, 30; risk for, 201
Drug use: attitudes toward, 48, 71–72, 232–33, 243; interview protocol on, 275
DuBois, D. L., 143

Eichenbaum, Luise, 104
Emmons, Christine, 142
Epstein, Joyce, 142
Erikson, Erik, 16, 20
Ethnography, definition of, 10
Eva (case study), 227–59; background of, 40; on effect of interviewer’s sex and race, 219; on experiences with sexism, 212; junior year of, 236–46; on laziness in school, 188; on overcoming discrimination, 214; physical description of, 227, 246; self-description of, 254; senior year of, 246–58; sophomore year of, 228–36; on speaking out, 2, 78, 88, 110
Expectations, learning to challenge in research, 13–16

Extended self: among African Americans, 264; among Latinos, 264

Failure, fear of, 164–84
Family: interview protocol on, 271; sense of commitment to, 44, 145–63
Family members: loss of, 164, 165–66
Father(s): abusive, 93; Eva’s relationship with, 227, 228–29, 237, 249–51; interview protocol on, 272; Malcolm’s relationship with, 43, 53–54, 71; as negative example, 149; as negative force, 155–56, 192; relationship with, 146, 157, 158, 159; as role models, 90–91; willingness to challenge, 84–86, 87, 94, 102. See also Parents
Father figure(s): child as, 54–55; mother as, 43–44. See also Male role model(s)
Fatherhood, among urban youth, 47–48, 64, 65, 70
Fear: of failure, 164–84; of harm, reaction to, 64–65. See also Danger; Death, fear of Felicia (case study): on experiences with racism, 210; on friends, 134–35; on problems with school, 196–97
Fine, Michelle, 24, 40–41, 110
Flax, Jane, 22
Florence (case study), on speaking out, 89
Focus of this study, 8–9
Frankenberg, Ruth, 220
Freud, Sigmund, 16
Friends: abandonment by, 125–27; vs. associates, 45, 114–16; attitudes toward, 45, 55, 66–68, 238–39; best, vs. close, 116; danger of being outspoken with, 96; desire for, 261; difficulty of finding, 112; improving relations with, 88; inability to trust, 97–99, 113–23, 123–29; intimacy among, 118–19, 120–21, 123–25; lack of, 86; loss of, in adolescence, 67, 113–14, 120, 122–23, 134–38; loyalty among, 132. See also Relationships
Friendship(s): among boys, 112–29, 133–44; among girls, 129–44, 239, 240; betrayal in, 118, 121–23, 127–37, 168,
Friendship(s) (Continued)
262–63; conceptually clustered matrix for, 277–78; importance of maintaining, 109, 263; interview protocol on, 273; need for further research in, 144; patterns in, 137–44; racial differences in intimacy of, 143–44; reasons for sexual difference in, 139–40

Frustration, expressions of, 83–88. See also Anger

Gabriela (case study): on laziness in school, 188; on speaking out, 86–87

Gadamer, Hans-Georg, on textual interpretation, 14

Gallagher, C., 144

Gayle (case study): on effect of interviewer's sex and race, 220; on experiences with racism, 210; on speaking out, 91–92; on fears of the future, 173–78, 217–24

Gender matching of interviewees, 33, 217–24

Gender of interviewer, effect on interview responses, 206, 217–24

Gender roles, opinions of, 253–54

Gilligan, Carol, 4, 20, 24–28, 34–38; and data on females in developmental research, 21; on gender roles, 13, 139; on importance of context in studying human development, 24–26

Girlfriend(s): conceptually clustered matrix for relationship with, 277–78; as friends, 55, 56–57, 113, 114, 115–16; interview protocol on, 273–74; love for, 66; unwillingness to commit to, 45–46. See also Relationships; Sex

Girls: experiences of, during adolescence, 21; fear of older men in, 92; lack of trust in boys, 138–39; relationship with mother, 154–60; unwillingness to speak out to boys, 91–93; urban, outspokenness of, 23; values of, 78–79

Guillermo (case study): on anger and violence, 103–4; on experiences with racism, 207–8; on friends, 112–14; on laziness in school, 188

Harassment, and feelings of betrayal, 141–42

Harding, Sandra, 19, 183

Harries, Karsten, 8

Harvard Project on Women's Psychology and Girls' Development, 24

Haynes, Norris, 142

Heidegger, Martin, 8, 17–18

Hermeneutic circle, and objectivity of data, 12, 18

High-risk behavior, 5–6, 48

Hirsch, B. J., 143

Hirschman, Albert, 17

Homosexuality, fear of, 56, 57, 115, 139–40

hooks, bell, 110

Hypothesis testing. See Theory testing

Illness, attitudes toward, 64. See also Death, fear of Independence: adolescents' struggle to find, 20–21; attitudes toward, 70, 158–59, 254, 263–64; value of, among African Americans and Latinos, 264–65

Individualistic values: adolescents' commitment to, 236, 264, 266–67; overcoming cultural imperative of, 196, 200–204. See also American Dream, belief in

Injustice, responses to, 102–3, 205–17

Interviews: characteristics of, 33–38; effect of interviewer race and gender on, 206, 217–23; gender matching in, 33; objectivity in, 27; pleasure taken in, 268; protocol for, 271–76

Intimacy: among best friends, 118–19, 120–21, 123–25; fear of, 57; in friendship, racial differences in, 143–44

Jamal (case study): on effect of interviewer's sex and race, 218; on friends,
Index

119; on laziness in school, 188; on mother, 146–49; on overcoming discrimination, 212–13, 215–16; on speaking out, 103, 108
Jerome (case study): on experiences with racism, 208; on the future, 180
Jones, D. C., 143
Joseph (case study): on fears of the future, 167–68; on friends, 121–22
Joseph, Gloria, 160
Journalists: limited perspective of, 3; popularity of inner city among, 3
Karweit, Nancy, 142
Kierkegaard, Søren, 20
Ladner, Joyce, 24
Latinos: extended self among, 264; importance of mothers to, 160–62
Laziness in school, 60–61, 185–204, 266
Leadbeater, Bonnie, 138
Lewin, Kurt, 6
Lin, Judy, 138
Loss of family members, 164–84. See also Death
Love: attitudes toward, 56, 66; between girls, 83; unwillingness to speak of, 86, 104
Lyotard, Jean-François, 18
MacLeod, Jay, 7, 182, 203
Mainstream values. See American Dream, belief in; Individualistic values
Malcolm (case study), 42–73; background of, 40, 42–43; on experiences with racism, 208; freshman year, 42–51; on friends, 98–99, 114–19; on the future, 178–80; junior year, 63–73; on laziness in school, 61, 186–87; on overcoming discrimination, 213; physical description of, 42, 51, 63; senior year and beyond, 73; sophomore year, 51–63
Male role models, 54; importance of, 161. See also Father figure(s); Role model(s)
Marcus (case study): on experiences with racism, 208; on friends, 123–29
Marie (case study): conceptually clustered matrix for relationship with boyfriends, 277–78; on effect of interviewer’s sex and race, 220–21; on experiences with racism, 209–10; on experiences with sexism, 212; on friends, 129–31, 133; on the future, 165–73, 171–73, 175–77; on laziness in school, 188; on mother, 154–56; on overcoming discrimination, 215; on speaking out, 84, 87
Marijuana use, 5, 48
Marvin (case study): on experiences with racism, 208; on laziness in school, 188; on mother, 150–51; on speaking out, 96, 98
Mary (case study): on experiences with sexism, 212; on overcoming discrimination, 214–15; on problems at school, 197, 200; on speaking out, 79–81, 110
Massing, Michael, 3
Matrices, conceptually clustered, in analysis of data, 34, 36–37, 277–78
Maturity, conceptions of, 58, 69, 81, 100, 123. See also Responsibility
Methodology of this research, 24–39; effect of, on findings, 265
Milagro (case study): on school, 185–86; on speaking out, 86, 87, 92–93
Miller, Barbara, 35–36
Minorities: deficit model of, 13. See also specific minorities
Morrison, Toni, 9
Mother(s): desire to protect, 49, 62, 94, 103–4; Eva’s relationship with, 227, 228–29, 236–37, 247–51; girls’ relationship with, 154–60; importance of, 145–63; as inspiration, 66; interview protocol on, 271–72; intimacy with, 160–61; Malcolm’s relationship with, 43–45, 51–53, 64; as positive role models, 147–63; providing emotional support for, 153; and trust for peers, 162; willingness to challenge, 85, 96, 155, 161, 191, 249. See also Parents
Music, as self-expression, 58, 71–72
Narrative summaries, in analysis of data, 34, 35–36
\textit{Native Son} (Wright), 141
Nicholson, Linda, 89, 97, 232, 238–39
Nonconforming behavior, as desirable trait, 89, 97, 232, 238–39

Objective ideal in social sciences, limitations of, 12–13
\textit{Oprah}, 209
Optimism, 62–63, 164–84
Orbach, Susan, 104
Outspokenness, 78–93, 230–31; as dangerous and bad, 95–101; and fears of remaining unheard, 110; gender difference in, 107–8, 261–62; of girls, with boys, 244; importance of, 255–56, 261; as positive trait of mothers, 147; in relationships, 252; through anger, 101; of urban girls, reasons for, 105–7; as valued trait, 78–93, 99–100, 104–5, 253

Parents: relationship with, 101–2; as source of distrust in adolescents, 142–43. \textit{See also} Mother(s); Father(s)
Passivity, and being taken advantage of, 94–95, 97–101
Pastor, Jennifer, 106, 183
Peers. \textit{See} Friends
Physical condition of school studied, 31
Piaget, Jean, 16
Plans, post-graduation. \textit{See} Future
Poor people: adolescent, typical, 5; and appreciation of struggle, 161; exclusion of, from social science, 4–6; trials of, 3
Positive attitude: maintaining, and hope for success, 164–84
Psychology, developmental. \textit{See} Developmental psychology
Public Enemy (rap group), 48, 58
Puerto Ricans: socialization of daughters among, 106
Purpose of this study, 1–10, 24, 268–69
Rabinow, P, 12
Race: differences in friendship intimacy, 143–44; and differing desires for independence, 264; and focus of this study, 10; of interviewer, effect on interview responses, 206, 217–23; opinions on impact of, 62–63, 168–69, 267; as point of conflict, 82–83; studying those of differing, 27–28, 217–23
Racial tension: in college, 255; at school studied, 32
Racism: affirming stereotypes of, 216; among school guards, 30; and appreciation of struggle, 161; and chance for success, 62–63, 205–6, 222; in corporations, 256–57; determination to overcome, 257–58; as excuse, 214; experiences of, 205–24; and feelings of betrayal, 141–42; interview protocol on, 205–6, 275–76; sex difference in experience of, 209, 221; of social science models, 13; and stereotypes of minority youth, 5–6. \textit{See also} Discrimination
Rage, 71. \textit{See also} Anger
Rap music: as career goal, 58, 71; as a form of expression, 48–49, 58
Raymond, Diane, 139
Relationships: fidelity in, 46; with peers, conceptually clustered matrix for, 277–78; themes in data on, 261–65; and trust, 45. \textit{See also} Friends; Boyfriend(s); Girlfriend(s)
Research, future needs for, 267–69
Researcher(s): background of, 29; effect of subjects’ race and sex on, 217–24; power relationship with subjects, 26–28
Research interview protocol, 271–76
Respect: loss of, for parent, 102; need for, 50–51
Responsibility, 52–53; attitude toward, 65, 68, 70; individual, overcoming cultural imperative of, 196, 200–204. \textit{See also} Maturity
Ricard, R. J., 143
Risk. \textit{See} Danger
Robinson, Tracy, 264
Rogers, Annie, 13, 78
Role model(s), 48, 65–66, 231, 238; desire to be, 215–16; interview protocol on, 274. \textit{See also} Male role models
Romantic relationships. See Boyfriend(s); Girlfriend(s); Relationships
Rorty, Richard, 24

Safety. See Danger
Sample analyzed in this study, characteristics of, 29–30, 32
Samuel (case study): on effect of interviewer’s sex and race, 218; on experiences with racism, 208; on fears of the future, 167–68; on laziness in school, 188–90
Schleiermacher, Friedrich, 12
School(s): attitude toward, 49, 60, 68–69, 185–204, 233; blame for decline in quality of, 30; interview protocol on, 275–76; lack of challenge/interest in, 190, 192–94, 195, 198–202; poor conditions in, 187–88, 196–97, 200, 201–2. See also: Academic performance; Academic standards, low; Setting for this study
Self: blaming, for poor academic performance, 185–96; sense of, among African Americans, 43, 264; sense of, in urban youth, 22; unitary, feminist questioning of, 22
Self-description, 59, 69, 71, 78–111, 254; interview protocol on, 274–75
Selman, Robert, 20
Setting for this study, 30–32, 142, 187–88
Sex: attitude toward, 47–48, 94, 230, 241; as conquest, 46, 47; interview protocol on, 274. See also: Birth control; Children, attitudes toward
Sexism: in developmental theory, 21; in encouragement of leaders, 103; as excuse, 214; interview protocol on, 275–76; perceptions of, 211–12, 221–22, 267; and silencing of women, 104–11; in social science, 4
Shakira (case study): on effect of interviewer’s sex and race, 218–19; on overcoming discrimination, 214; on speaking out, 81–83, 92
Shawn (case study), on friends, 119, 143
Shorris, Earl, 162
Sibling(s): Eva’s relationship with, 227, 229, 237–38; interview protocol on, 272–73; Malcolm’s relationships with, 45, 52, 62, 64; Mary’s relationships with, 80
Social science: bias in methodology of, 6; exclusion of poor and minorities from, 4–6; importance of theoretical framework in, 16–17; neglect of discovery research in, 17; racism of, 13; sexism of, 4; validity of, 12–13
Society: attitudes toward, 72; interview protocol on, 275–76. See also: Culture, American
Solomon, Ellen, 182
Sonia (case study): on defeating stereotypes, 2; on experiences of racism, 211; on fears of the future, 177–78; on friends, 131–33; on laziness in school, 194–96; on mother, 158; on overcoming racism, 216
Speaking out. See: Outspokenness
Steinitz, Victoria, 182
Stereotypes: dangers of, 10; racist, affirmation of, 216; of urban youth, 1, 2, 5–6, 203, 260, 269
Success: attitudes toward, 59–60, 61–63, 68–69, 72, 254–55; competition as motivation for, 234–35; and mothers, 146–47, 149, 162–63; and racism, 62–63, 205–6, 222
Suleiman, Susan, 22
Sullivan, Harry Stack, 16, 20
Sullivan, W., 12
Suspension rate, at school studied, 30–31
Talking Back (hooks), 110
Taylor, Ronald L., 5
Teachers: lack of support for, 202; relationships with, 83–84, 99, 185–204
Theory, data-driven, emphasis on, 16–17
Theory testing bias in developmental psychology, 16–18
Torres, Lourdes, 106
Trust: among friends, 130–32; inability to, 99–100; lack of, 143–44; lack of, among friends, 113–23; lack of, between girls and boys, 122–23, 138–39; lack of, in boyfriends, 135, 136; lack of, in boys’ relationships, 262; lack of, in oppressed communities, 143; learning not to, 123–29; parents’ impact on, 142–43, 162; reasons for lack of, 140–44; in relationships, 45; society’s lack of, for minority boys, 141–42. See also Betrayal
Truth-telling, as valued trait, 78–93
Tyiesha (case study): on friends, 135–37; on laziness in school, 188; on speaking out, 93–95
Tyrone (case study): on effect of interviewer’s sex and race, 219–20; on experiences with racism, 206–7; on friends, 126; on the future, 180–82; on laziness in school, 187–88; on speaking out, 101–3
Universal theories, 13, 18–20, 260–69
Urban youth. See Adolescents, urban
Victor (case study): on friends, 118, 120–21; on mother, 145, 152–54; on speaking out, 99–100
Violence: attitudes toward, 42–43, 55, 71–72; coping with, 164–84; and desire for importance, 117–18; fear of, and avoiding friendships, 119–20; as personal expression, 103–4; in school studied, 30–31. See also Death, fear of; Fear
Wade-Gayles, Gloria, 106, 162
Ward, Janie, 177, 264
Weis, Lois, 40–41, 110
White, Robert, 24
Women, silencing of, 104–11. See also Sexism
Wong, Mun, 267
Work outside of school, 44, 65, 195–96
Wright, Richard, 141
Youth. See Adolescents, urban