Unless otherwise noted, all photographs appear courtesy of PRESKI (Presse Kimbanguiste).

Maps
1. Kingdom of Kongo, fifteenth and sixteenth centuries / 17

Figures
1. Kimbangu in front of the Lubumbashi jail / 72
2. Photograph of Marie Muilu superimposed on the temple of Nkamba / 77
3. One of the “small soldiers” of Armageddon / 92
4. The Rise to Jerusalem / 94
5. Simon Kimbangu’s image hovers over Diangienda Kuntima and Simon Kimbangu Kiangani / 130
6. Simon Kimbangu Kiangani / 131
7. Dialungana, Kisolokele, and Diangienda / 133
8. Painting of the creation of man starring the sons of Kimbangu / 140
9. Marie-Louise Martin greeted by Elizabeth Mvete / 145
10. Kimbangu’s mausoleum in Nkamba. Photo: author. / 159
11. The Kimbanguist band, conducted by Diangienda / 163
12. The Lord’s Supper, conducted by Diangienda / 169
13. Diangienda healing two church members / 170
14. Temple of Nkamba / 186
15. Rev. Figueiredo with the author. Photo courtesy of the author. / 207
16. Kristin Shrader-Frechette kneels in front of Kimbangu’s portrait. Photo: Gabriel Nzau Ngoma Wagaza. / 208
17. Corinne Kumar D’Souza receives a blessing from Diangienda. Photo: Gabriel Nzau Ngoma Wagaza. / 209
18  David Wabeladio Payi teaches church members the Mandombe script.
    Photo: author. / 222
19  Members of the Saint-Denis congregation graduate from their
    Mandombe course. Photo: author. / 223
20  Armand Wabasolele Diangienda and the Kimbanguist Symphonic
    Orchestra. Photo courtesy of the Kimbanguist Symphonic
    Orchestra. / 226
21  Kimbanguist Symphonic Orchestra in concert. Photo courtesy of the Kimbanguist Symphonic Orchestra. / 226
22  President Mobutu visits Diangienda / 232
23  President Joseph Kabila visits Dialungana / 246