Index

Abdy, Edgar S.: on House of Refuge, 170; see also Segregation practices
Abolitionism: contribution to youth crime, 117–18; in social reform movements, 155; see Hone, Philip; Tappan, Arthur; Wells, E. M. P.
Akerly, Samuel: on adult crime, 55
Allen, Stephen: on Irish families, 4; career in politics and business, 50–51; on crime and delinquency, 51–53; on location for Refuge, 53; on apprenticeship, 117; on Refuge water supply, 130; on theater tax, 136; president of Soc. for Ref. of Juv. Delinquents, 166; personal qualities, 166–67
Allen, William: on institution for juvenile delinquents in London, 31
American Refuge and reformatory officials: first national convention of, 178–79
Apprenticeship system: 3, 117
Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor: 157

Baltimore, Md.: urged to establish Refuge, 87–88; builds Refuge, 100
Beaumont, Gustave de: see De Tocqueville, Alexis
Beccaria, Cesare: influence on Joseph Curtis, 68
Bedford, Peter: on London Refuge, 59–60
Bomford, Col., Chief of Ordnance: 53–54
Boston Asylum and Farm School for Indigent Boys: created, 95
Boston City Council: on Boston House of Ref., 89; criticism of Wells, 92–93
Boston Farm School Society: founded, 93–94; edifice on Thompson’s Island, 94–95
Boston House of Reformation: contrasted with New York House of Refuge, 89; educational system, 91; commitment procedure, 95–96, 201n20; part of Boston House of Industry, 96; decline, 96–98; intake classifications, 201n20
Boston Prison Discipline Society: see Dwight, Louis
Bowme, Walter: legislative supporter of Refuge, 54
Boylston School: 95–97 passim
Burtis, Alderman, Superintendent of City Penitentiary: on inadequacies of city facilities, 48; on security problems, 49

Calhoun, John C.: on Refuge request, 53
Carey, Matthew: on working women, 129–30
“Causes” of juvenile delinquency: lack of education, 35–36, 109–12; all causes, 191; see Immigration; Parental depravity and neglect; Religion
Chipman, Samuel: 146
Cholera: see Diseases
Cincinnati, Ohio: establishes Refuge, 100–101
Classification: system of rewards and punishments, 56–57, 73; Boston House of Reformation, 90–92; New
House of Refuge

Classification (cont.)
York House of Refuge, 92, 177; criticized by reformers, 101
Cleanliness: antidote to crime, 118
Cloward, Richard: xiii
Clinton, DeWitt: on juvenile gangs, 41; meets Refuge supporters, 61; visits Refuge, 63, 78; recommends state-wide extension of Refuge system, 65; praises Refuge, 65, 82; death, 166
Colden, Cadwallader: on Pauperism Soc., 35; on city courts, 37–38; financial support for Refuge, 63; on children’s labor, 75; on superintendent’s role, 84–85; on tax money, 134; visits to Refuge, 165
Collins, Isaac: on juvenile plight, 42; lobbies in Albany, 63–64; Philadelphia Refuge activities, 99; 179
Contract labor system: threatened by legislative action, 136; contribution to income, 137
Corporal punishment: see Punishment, corporal
“Cottage System”: 181, 184
Crawford, William: criticism of Refuge, 168–70
Criminological theory: and Refuge reformers, 107
Croton Reservoir: 130
Cultural stereotyping: see Irish
Curtis, Joseph: on youth gangs, 3; first Superintendent, 67; background, 67–68; opens Refuge, 67–68; influenced by Europeans, 68; troubled by escapes, 68–74 passim; educational efforts, 74–75; criticized, 78, 81; reports on institution, 80; resignation, 82–83; contrasted with Wells, 89–90

Daily schedule of Refuge: 178
Dayton, Assemblyman: aids Refuge, 132–33
Death: see Irish
Delavan, Edward C.: on alcohol, 105
Dependency: see Immigration

De Tocqueville, Alexis: with De Beaumont, visits and describes U.S. prisons and refuges, describes work of Wells, 91; theory of environmental causes of crime, 109; on educational achievements of Refuge inmates, 130–31; on New York House of Refuge, 135; on “indeterminate sentence,” 168
De Voe, Elijah P.: feud with Wood, 157–60; exposé of Refuge, 157–61
Detention homes: 185
Dickens, Charles: on New York City, 1; on Five Points District, 1–2; on Boylston School, 96–97
Discipline: Refuge system of, 125; Hart’s, 144–45; see also Treatment; Punishment
Diseases: cholera, 5; scrofula, 130; smallpox, 130
Dix, Dorothea: on prison reform, 155; on Louis Dwight, 162
Dwight, Louis: visits Refuge, 78; publicizes Refuge, 86–87; supports Auburn “silent” system, 87; uses Boston Prison Discipline as front for views, 87; on Pennsylvania prisons, 87; on Refuges, 87–88; on Wells, 92; on Boston City Council, 92; loses influence, 161

Economics: see Social and economic change; Financial support
Eddy, Thomas: early reform experiences, 23–25; legislative influence, 25; on causation of crime, 25–26; international communications, 31, 37; on juvenile reformatories, 31–32; on social reform, 32–33; on “indeterminate sentence,” 58; on New York State prison policy, 61–62; on Free School Society, 61–62; death, 165
Education: relation to crime in New York City, 35–36; level of inmates, 110–11; as antidote to crime, 110–12, 121; emphasis at Refuge, 165; see also Boston House of Reforma-
Index

Five Points District: See Dickens, Charles; Falmer, Phoebe
Foreign-born population: high death rate, 5; concentration in coastal areas, 8; see Immigration
Free School Society: founded by Griscom and others, 26; 110

Germans: commitment rates to Refuge, 6; comparison to Irish, 13
Gerard, James W.: chairman of Standing Committee on Juvenile Delinquency, 38–39; on juvenile crime, 41; investigation, 42; report and "House of Refuge," 44; at dedication of Randall's Island edifice, 167
Gowey, Catherine: moves from New York to Philadelphia Refuge, 99
Grant, Moses: 94
Graves, John J.: 178
Greeley, Horace: 172
Griscom, John: background, 23; contrast with Eddy, 23; heads pauperism investigation in New York City, 26–27; early career, 26–28; personal tragedy, 29; on crime and delinquency, 30, 106–109; role in Pauperism Society, 30, 35; European trip, 30–31, 32–33; London Philanthropic Soc., 33–34; secretary of pauperism group and international correspondent, 38; planning committee for Refuge, 44; report of need for Refuge, 46–48; First Annual Report of Soc., 64; to Lynds about Refuge discipline, 83–84; advice to Bostonians, 86; visits Refuge, 164–65; leaves New York City, 165; contribution to Refuge system, 187

Haines, Charles G.: research findings on crime and pauperism in New York City, 35–36; political supporter of DeWitt Clinton, 41
Hale, James R.: denounces Refuge, 173–74
Halfway house: 185
Hart, Nathaniel C.: background, 84; second Superintendent of Refuge, 84–85; contrasted to Wells, 92; on juvenile crime, 103; on temperance, 103–104; on tobacco, 105; success, 142; role as Superintendent, 143
Hartley, Robert M.: 118
Health problems: 130; see Diseases
Higham, John: on the historian as “moral critic,” xv
Hone, Philip: on immigration and pauperism, 2; on Tappan, 164
Howe, Samuel G.: 172
Immigration: rate, 5; influx into coastal cities, 5–6; and dependency status, 15; “passing on” of non-resident paupers, 36
Incorporation bill: 57
Indenture committee: formed, 80
Indenture system: inaugurated, 75–76; means of correcting youth, 122; improvement, 126; composite of Refuge system, 170–71; occasional failures, 171–72
Indeterminate sentence: 58, 127, 168
In loco parentis: role urged upon citizens of New York City, 47–48, 55; power of, possessed by Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents, 58–59; character of Refuge, 185
Inmate self-government: 74; see also Wells, E. M. P.
Irving, John T.: on Refuge system, 124–26
Irving, John T.: on Refuge system, 124–26
Juvenile corrections: expansion, 183
Juvenile delinquency: terminology, xv–xvi; first definition, 58; “causes” as seen by Refuge managers, 191
Juvenile jury system: see Inmate self-government
Kelly, Robert: association with Horatio Seymour, 167; appeal for financial support, 139; president of the Soc. for Ref. of Juv. Delinquents, 167
Labor system: Boston House of Reform contrasted with New York, 91
Ladies’ Committee: formed, 78–80; efforts to reform girls, 128–29
Lancasterian method: 131
Lieber, Francis: on power of Refuge managers, 168
Livingston, Edward C.: on Refuge indenture system, 127; on Refuge, 133; on Hart, 145
Living arrangements: of Refuge inmates, 190
Locke, John: concepts of child development, xviii; impact on Refuge reformers, 108
London Philanthropic Society: visited by Griscom, 33–34
Lucas, Charles: 174
Lyman, Theodore: bequest to establish Massachusetts reform school, 100
Lynds, Elam: on Superintendent’s role, 83–84; on corporal punishment, 84
Manhattan: growth and overcrowding, 2; changing image, 3
McGee, Thomas D’Arcy: on Irish family distress, 11
Marcy, William: 170
Marine Hospital Fund: for Refuge support, 66, 120; threatened by decreasing immigration, 124; described, 204n22
Massachusetts State Legislature: on Boston House of Reformation, 89
Maxwell, Hugh: on Refuge, 64; at dedication on Randall’s Island, 167
Migration patterns: of children, 2
Monitorial plan of education: employed in Refuge, 165
Moral decline: New York City, 18; low standards of public behavior, 119
Morss, John: contacted by Allen about legislative support for Refuge, 55

Nationalities: see Ethnic and national origins
Negro: commitment rates to Refuge, 6–7; incidence of child employment, 7
New Hampshire: erection of Refuge, 101
New Orleans, La.: edifice burned and rebuilt, 100
New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor: 118
New York City: fear of juvenile delinquents, 3; immigrant pauper influx, 36; educational level of lower class children, 110; religious activity, 112
New York Free School Society: see Free School Society
New York Juvenile Asylum: 102, 176
New York Prison Association: 155
New York State Legislature: financial support for Refuge, 63; official recognition, 65; receives financial appeal, 124; opposition to support, 133; inadequate funding, 134; on age limit of Refuge, 135
New York State Senate: 162
New York State Vocational Institute, West Coxsackie: replaces Refuge, 183

Occupational backgrounds, Refuge inmates: 116
One-parent families: see Families
Opposition to Refuge: from parents, 77; from Crawford, 168–70; religious character, 182–83
Palmer, Phoebe: New York Female Assistance Society for the Relief and Religious Instruction of the Sick Poor, 156; Five Points Mission, 156
Pauperism: immigration, partial contribution to, 36; Soc. for Prevention of, 26–49, passim; relationship to crime, 115
Parental depravity and neglect: source of juvenile delinquency, 109, 113–14
Pawnbrokers: contribution to youth crime, 115
Penal system, 38–39
Pestalozzi, Johann: xviii; observed by Griscom, 34; influence on Curtis, 68
Petit larceny: see Seward, William H.
Philadelphia Society for the Alleviating of the Miseries of Public Prisons: 98
Philadelphia House of Refuge: connection with New York Refuge, 98, 202n27; compared to New York institution, 99–100; opening, 100; essay on juvenile delinquency, 101; building rejuvenation, 101; eventual career, 202n32
Phrenology: 107
Physical plant: change in location, 135, 146–47; inadequacies, 138–39;
House of Refuge

Physical plant (cont.)
closes down, 183–84; see Security measures
Pintard, John: publicizes Refuge, 65; 82
Pittsburgh, Pa.: builds Refuge, 100
Poverty: see Pauperism
Precedents: for the Refuge, 57
Prescott, W. H., manager of Boston Asylum for Indigent Boys: suggests and supports farm school plan, 93–94
Probation: see Indeterminate sentence
Prosperity: see Social and Economic Change
Protection: for individual and society, 121
Public concern: over juvenile delinquency, 44–46
Publicity: positive, 59–60, 162, 172–73; negative, 183
Punishment: methods of Curtis, 68–69; Refuge, 83, 125; contrast between Boston and New York institutions, 90; views of Hart on, 144–45; codified, 177
Punishment, corporal: described by De Voe, 160–61; used by Hart, 144–45; views of managers, 174
Quakers: reform tradition, 28–29; as contrasted to others, 29
Quincy, Josiah: 86
Randall’s Island: purchase for Refuge, 139; new edifice opened, 140; close of Refuge, 183
Reform school: emergence of, 102
Religion: decline of as factor in youth crime, 36; encouraged by Ladies’ Committee, 79; among youths of New York City, 112; and Refuge discipline, 122; emphasized by Hart, 143; see Opposition to Refuge
Revenue, sources of: see Financial support
Rewards: system of Wells, 90–91

Rogers, Henry: description of Boston institutions for juveniles, 95–96
Roscoe, William: 32–33; debate with Stephen Allen, 198n8

Savings and Loan Associations: as antidote to juvenile crime, 115
Scarborough, Donald D.: preserves Refuge records, 184
Security measures: intended for Refuge, 58, 61; inadequacy of, 68–69; source of anxiety, 127–28
Sedgwick, Theodore: on crime and pauperism, 42–43
Segregation practices: in Refuge, observed by Abdy, 170
Selection policy: see Irish
Seward, William H.: approval of Refuge idea, 136; and Refuge administration, 149–55; petit larceny legality debate with Refuge managers, 152; visits Refuge, 153
Seymour, Horatio: and Kelly’s request for Refuge funds, 139–40; praises Refuge, 167–68
Sharpe, Peter: lobbies in Albany, 63–64
Social and economic change: pace in U.S., 16; as cause of juvenile delinquency, 114–16, 119; effect on family roles, 196n17
Social disorganization: relation to social organization, xvi–xvii
Social reformers: moralistic character of dominant ideology, 20; tradition, 29; international communication, 31; views on alcohol and youth crime, 104–105
Society: responsibility for youth crime, 119–20
Society for the Prevention of Pauperism: survey of U.S. penal system, 38–39; public response, efforts, 45; final meeting, 49; see Pauperism Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents: formed, 49; first official gathering, 53; memorial to Legislature, 55–57; managers: “perpetual succession,” 57–58; backgrounds, 115–16; concern for charity coordination, 118; decision to build new edifice, 139
Stanford, John: on juvenile asylum for New York City, 21–22; on need for facility for youths, 21–23; on boys in City Penitentiary, 37; on site for Refuge, 53; oration at Refuge dedication ceremonies, 65; praised by DeWitt Clinton, 82; on changes in Refuge, 83
Superintendent of Refuge: role, 83; see Hart, N. C.; Lynds, Elam
Syracuse Home Association: 7
Tappan, Arthur: joins abolitionists, 155, 163–64
Tappan, John: on Boston Farm School idea, 94; on moderation, 164
Taylor, Alderman, of New York City: on Refuge construction plans, 60–61
Teeters, Negley K.: sociological use of historical data, xiii–xiv; on early development of Philadelphia House of Refuge, 201–202n27
Terry, David: as Superintendent, 147; harassed by escapes and fire-settings, 147–48; loses records, 148–49; problems with Seward, 149–55
Theater: as source of vice and immorality, 18–20; tax as Refuge revenue, 55, 62–63, 134
Thompson, “Tobacco”: 105–106
Throop, Enos: 134
Ticknor, George: on Boston Farm School plan, 94
Toqueville, Alexis de: see De Tocqueville, Alexis

Treatment: for reform in youngsters, 121–22; program of Refuge, 123, 192; see also Punishment; Rewards
Trollope, Frances: on New York City, 1; on American reformers, 20
Tuckerman, Joseph: on Boston Farm School plan, 94

Urban growth: 156
U.S. government: sale of military installation, 54; 137–38
Van Buren, Martin: visits Refuge, 131; on Refuge and system, 132
Voluntary contributions: see Financial support

Ware, Henry: 88
Wells, E. M. P.: first Superintendent of Boston House of Reformation, 89; system of self-government, 89–91; criticized by City Council, 92–93; resignation, 92–93; subsequent career, 93
Weir, George: on contract labor system, 136; on financial support, 136–37
Western House of Refuge, Rochester, N.Y.: 100, 182, 199n20
Wines, Enoch: prison investigation, 181–82
Wood, Samuel S.: as Superintendent, 149; feud with De Voe, 157–60
Work: value of, 57; antidote to vice, 119, 122; in Refuge regime, 178; see Irish; Labor system; Occupational backgrounds
Working mothers: see Irish