Contents

Published by

Breinig, Helmbrecht.
Hemispheric Imaginations: North American Fictions of Latin America.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/67162.

👉 For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/67162
CONTENTS

Preface xi

PART ONE

1 Introduction 3
2 Alterity and Identity: Reflections on Approaching the Other 27

PART TWO

3 Foundational Narratives: Some Versions of Columbus 55
4 Invasive Methods: The Opening of Latin America in Nineteenth- and Early Twentieth-Century US Literature 83
5 Representations of the Mexican Revolution in US Literature 110

PART THREE

6 Nature and Civilization: Nineteenth-Century Travelers and Twentieth-Century Escapists 137
7 Gendered Perceptions of Latin America in Twentieth-Century US Literature 163

PART FOUR

8 The Post-Vietnam Era: Versions of Realism 193
9 The Postmodern Response: Magical Realism and Metafiction 228
10 Splintered Foundations: Postmodern and Native American Versions of Columbus 248

PART FIVE

11 Canada and Latin America: Malcolm Lowry and the Other as Symbolic Field 283
12 Post-Vietnam and Twenty-First-Century Canadian Visitors 298

Postscript 321
Contents

Notes 323
Bibliography 347
Index 375