Table of Contents

VLADIMIR TISMANEANU and BOGDAN C. IACOB

Introduction .................................................................................................................. 1

Part One

POLITICS OF MEMORY AND CONSTRUCTING DEMOCRACY

TIMOTHY SNYDER

European Mass Killing and European Commemoration .............. 23

DANIEL CHIROT

Why World War II Memories Remain So Troubled in Europe and East Asia ............................................................. 45

EUSEBIO MUJAL-LEÓN AND ERIC LANGENBACHER

Post-Authoritarian Memories in Europe and Latin America .... 69

JEFFREY HERF

Divided Memory Revisited: The Nazi Past in West Germany and in Postwar Palestine ................................................. 103

ALEXANDRU GUSSI

On the Relationship Between Politics of Memory and the State’s Attitude toward the Communist Past .................... 125
Table of Contents

Part Two
HISTORIES AND THEIR PUBLICS

VLADIMIR TISMANEANU
Democracy, Memory, and Moral Justice ....................... 145

DAVID BRANDENBERGER
Promotion of a Usable Past: Official Efforts to Rewrite Russo-
Soviet History, 2000–2014 .................................. 191

JAN-WERNER MÜLLER
Germany’s Two Processes of “Coming to Terms with the Past”
—Failures, After All? ........................................... 213

Part Three
SEARCHING FOR CLOSURE
IN DEMOCRATIZING SOCIETIES

ANDRZEJ PACZKOWSKI
Twenty-Five Years “After” — The Ambivalence of Settling
Accounts with Communism: The Polish Case ............... 239

RALUCA GROESCU AND RALUCA URSACHI
The Romanian Revolution in Court: What Narratives About 1989? .................................................................. 257

VLADIMIR PETROVIĆ
Slobodan Milošević in the Hague: Failed Success of a Historical Trial ................................................. 295

CHARLES VILLA-VICENGIO
The South African Transition: Then and Now ............. 311

CRISTIAN VASILE
Scholarship and Public Memory: The Presidential Commission for the Analysis of the Communist Dictatorship in Romania
(PCACDR) ............................................................... 329
Table of Contents

IGOR CAȘU
Moldova under the Soviet Communist Regime: History and Memory ................................................................. 347

Part Four
COMPETING NARRATIVES OF TROUBLED PASTS

JOHN CONNELLY
Coming to Terms with Catholic-Jewish Relations in the Polish Catholic Church ................................................................. 375

LEONIDAS DONSKIS
After Communism: Identity and Morality in the Baltic Countries ........................................................................ 387

BOGDAN C. Iacob
The Romanian Communist Past and the Entrapment of Polemics ........................................................................ 417

NIKOLAI VUKOV
Past Intransient/Transiting Past: Remembering the Victims and the Representation of Communist Past in Bulgaria ........ 475

List of Contributors ................................................................................................................................. 497

Index .................................................................................................................................................... 501