The Tsar, The Empire, and The Nation

Aoshima, Yoko, Staliūnas, Darius

Published by Central European University Press

Aoshima, Yoko and Darius Staliūnas.
The Tsar, The Empire, and The Nation: Dilemmas of Nationalization in Russia's Western Borderlands, 1905-1915.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/89934.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/89934

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=3187367
Agudat Israel (Jewish party), 366, 369
Ahad Ha’am (Asher Zvi Ginsberg), 362
Alekseev, Sergei N., 90, 95, 97
Alekseev, Vissarion, 272
Alexander I, Emperor of Russia, 70
Alexander II, Emperor of Russia: assassination of, 359; education policy, 176, 206; Great Reforms, 108; speech to volost-self-government offices, 139; tours across Empire, 113, 244
Alexander III, Emperor of Russia, 19, 71, 209
Alexander Nevskii Cathedral in Warsaw, 73, 100
All-Russian Dubrovin Union of Russian People, 295, 301
All-Russian National Union: decline of, 322; establishment of, 301, 309, 317, 319; leaders of, 319; State Duma elections and, 320–21; Vil’na section, 319, 320, 322
Aoshima, Yoko, 9–10, 12
Archipovich, Georgii, 276
Balabin, Nikolai, 348, 350, 351
Baltic Germans, 5, 199, 328, 330, 334, 343
Baltic Provinces: administrative reform, proposal of, 346; aristocratic elite in, 5, 335, 356; Decree of 1904, 185; ethno-cultural conditions, 328, 333–34; German influence in, 180, 191–92, 328, 336, 344–45; German language education, 192–94, 200; historiography, 327–28, 329; idea of Russian colonization of, 346–47, 350, 351; imperial governance, 327, 330, 331–32, 341–42; native language education, 180–82, 194, 196, 342–43; Orthodox conversion movement in, 334–35, 337; population of, 12, 343, 49, 347; private educational institutions, 192, 193, 194; revolutionary activities, 200, 346; right-wing organizations, 12, 346; in Russian historical narrative, 338–40, 349; Russian influence in, 199, 330, 334, 335–36, 348–49, 351–52, 353; Russian language education, 180; in Russian nationalist discourse, 5–6, 252, 337, 338; “Russification” policy, 5, 330, 331, 337; State Duma election campaigns, 348; temperance movement, 181–82; topography, 332–33; tourism, 251; visions of the end of empire, 340–52; World War I and, 355–56; zemstvo, idea of introduction of, 347
Baltic question, 331, 332, 345
Batiushkov, Pompei, 278
Belaia Rus’ (newspaper), 303, 305
Beilis, Mendel, 377
Beilis Affair, 377
Belen’kii, Elyakim, 368
Beletskii, Aleksandr, 302
Beletskii, Stepan, 291n7, 302
Beliaev, Vladimir, 178, 191
Belorussian language: in liturgy, use of, 58–59, 156; publications in, 66; status of, 56–57
“Belorussian national feeling development” program, 64
Belorussians: Catholic religion, 59–60, 150; conversion to Orthodoxy, 9, 38; cultural development, 285–84; idea of independence, 65; identity, 57; nationality policy, 58, 64, 66; Orthodox brotherhoods, 321n83; periodicals, 63, 64; regulation of teaching of religion to, 60, 60n88, 62; resistance to Polish influence, 58; Uniate Church and, 167
Bendin, Alexandr, 119–20
Berendts, Eduard N., 342
Berger, Stefan, 2, 330
Bezpalchew, Aleksandr, 311
Bhabha, Homi K., 235
Blumberg, Gustav, 241
Bobrikov, N. I., 341
Bobrinskii, Alexei, 367, 378n83
Bobrinskii, Vladimir, 159, 367
Brest, Union of, 141, 161
Brest Orthodox diocese, 116
Brest-Litovsk, Treaty of, 164
Brochocki, Andrzej, 269n28
Brotherhood of the Holy Ghost, 314, 319, 320–22
Brüggemann, Karsten, 6, 12
Brusilov, Aleksei, 93
Budilovich, Anton S., 85–86, 340, 341–42
Buturlin, Sergei, 248
Byval’kevich, Polikarp, 316–17, 320
Brüggemann, Karsten, 6, 12
Cabaj, Jarosław, 155, 157
Catherine the Great, Empress of Russia, 1, 263
Catholic Association, 154, 155
Catholic Church: confiscation of property of, 166n97; Decree of Tolerance and, 153; defamatory publications about, 134–35; depolonization policy, 46–47, 136; dioceses of, 116–17; government’s approach toward, 121–22, 121n25, 130, 130n67, 136–37; identification of nationality, 62; language of prayers, 55–56, 58–59; Orthodox communities and, 9, 114, 116, 122–23, 138–39; Provisional Rules and, 62; statistics of believers, 117, 119, 121n23, 151n14; uprising of 1863–64 and, 115. See also conversion to Catholicism
Chasovoi (newspaper), 372
Chelm (Kholm) province: creation of, 99, 101–2
Chelm (Kholm) question, 99, 160–62, 165
Chelm Uniate diocese, 142, 144, 144n8, 165
Chelm-Podlasian region: administrative reforms, 157–60, 157n53, 159n65, 164; anti-Orthodox violence, 157; ecclesiastical reorganization of, 148, 159, 160, 162, 163, 165–66; idea of separation from Poland, 157–59, 161, 163; Orthodox dominance in, 9, 160; Polish influence, 160–61, 164; statistics of believers, 155n53; territory, 150n29; Ukrainization of, 163–64; Uniate peasants in, 162, 168; World War I and, 164, 164n88
Cherkasskii, Vladimir, 158
Chigiriov, Ivan, 311
Chopin, Frédéric, 102
Chrypov, Boris, 279
Chubynsky, Pavlo, 18n3
Chykalenko, Ievhen, 22n19
Circle of Russian Women (Kruzhok Russkikh Zhenshchin), 192–93 clandestine Polish schools: characteristics of, 227, 228–29; donations to, 227; establishment of, 205, 223, 225–26, 228, 230; exposure to Catholicism, 228–29; founders of, 226–27; prohibitive measures against, 223, 226, 229, 230–31; pupils of, 227–28; recorder cases of, 224–25; teachers of, 227
Committee of Ministers: approach to native language education, 183–86, 190–94; implementation of Decree of 1904, 183–85; improvement of state order, 172, 175
Confraternity for the Protection of Ruthenians from Poles and Catholic Priests, 156
Confraternity of the Holy Mother, 156
Congress Poland. See Poland, Kingdom of Constitutional Democratic Party (Kadets), 369, 370, 371, 378–79 cconversion to Catholicism: after Decree of Tolerance, 123–26; Catholic Church’s attitude to, 129, 151–55; in Chełm-Podlasian region, 150–51; government regulations, 127, 135–36, 138; legitimization of, 126–31; Orthodox clergy and,
132–33; registration process, 127–28,
129–30, 131; statistics, 129, 150–51
Kurland province, 116, 194, 255
“Cracovian marriages,” 145, 145n11
Danilevskii, Nikolai, 330; “Rossiia i Evropa,” 345
Dębiński, Karol, 147, 151 “Decree on Directions to Improve State Order, The,” 172, 175, 182, 183–86
Decree of Tolerance (1905): articles of, 149–50; beneficiaries of, 146–49; confession-changing process and, 120–21, 123–26, 152–53; declaration of, 113, 142; ecclesiastic property under, 166; historiography of, 147–48; Holy Synod’s resistance to, 153; interconfessional relations and, 115–16, 119, 121–23, 138–39;
Lithuanian Diocese and, 133–34; Orthodox Church and, 117–18, 131–37, 155–56; outcome of, 9, 115, 137, 148–49, 150; promulgation of, 149; Roman Catholic Church and,
153; Uniates and, 146–49, 166–67
Denisiuk, I. N., 220
Digest of the Laws, 177, 180, 181
Dmowski, Roman, 78, 82–83
Dobrianskaia, Elena, 292
Dobrianskii, Flavian, 292
Dolbilov, Mikhail, 3, 250n42, 345
Dolzhenko, Gennadii, 256
Dovgiallo, Dmitrii, 278
Dubrovin, Aleksandr, 294, 296
Durnovo, Ivan N., 353
Durnovo, Petr, 61, 128–29
Dvuglavyi orel (newspaper), 23, 23n21, 26–27
Dymsza, Lubomir, 160 education system: governance of, 208; promotion of patriotism, 259–60, 266–69;
reform of, 9–11, 260; school children’s societies and, 281–82; school excursions, 274–
78; state holidays and commemorations,
278–80; visual tools in, 271–72, 272n35.
See also geography education; history education; universally accessible education educational tours: costs of, 238; effect of,
238, 256, 258; imperial ideology, 233–34,
239–40; organization of, 237; origin of,
237, 257; restrictions, 248; travelogues,
246. See also school excursions
Efron, Savelii (Litvin), 361
Eiler, Aleksandr, 25
Eklof, Ben, 214
El’nitskii, Konstantin, 263
Ems decree, 21
Estonians: German aggression, 337; national culture, 331, 352; political representation, 355; religion of, 334, 336; Russian perception of, 343–44, 349
Etkind, Alexander, 233
Evlogii (Georgievskii), Bishop of Chełm,
146, 156, 158, 165–66
Finland: territory of, 5; as tourist destination, 247, 251
First State Duma: elections in, 306–7, 309
Fishman, David, 364, 365, 372
Florence, Union of, 161
Florinski, Timofei, 26, 28–29, 30, 31 former Uniates: conversion to Catholicism,
150, 152, 153; “Cracovian marriages,” 145,
153–54; Decree of Tolerance and, 146–49;
education of, 155, 166; identity, 148, 168;
integration to Orthodoxy, 145, 146; Polish support for, 154–55; popular customs, 145; religious identity, 146–47; uprising of 1863–64 and, 154
Fourth State Duma: elections, 368; nation-ist delegates, 97; political parties in, 96;
Progressive Bloc, 378
Franko, Nikolaj, 165
Index

Freze, Aleksandr, 35, 118, 128, 138
Fukushima, Chihō, 8, 9, 13
Fundamental Laws of 1906, 69, 78, 79

Gediminas, Grand Duke of Lithuania, 266
Geiman, V. V., 344
geography education: curriculum, 260, 266, 272–73; homeland studies, 240–41, 242–43, 267–68; landscape concept, 265; popular illustrated lectures, 271; textbooks, 243, 261n4
Georgievskii, Evlogii, Bishop of Chelm, 146, 156, 158, 165–66
Gerasimov, Ilya, 362
Gets, Faivel Meir, 365, 372–73
Ginsberg, Asher Zvi. See A had Ha’am
Ginsburg, Moses, 372
Gintsburg, Horace, Baron, 359, 371–72
Girs, Aleksei, 24n25, 25
Glazov, Vladimir, 187, 189, 190
Glinka, Mikhail, 279
Gnatskovskii, Grigorii, 297, 298–99, 300, 301, 315
Gogol, Nikolai, 233, 252, 273; The Nose, 233
Goldin, Semion, 362
Golovnin, Aleksandr, 206, 207
Goniec (newspaper), 80
“Great Fatherland”: concept of, 242
Griazev, Nikolai, 53, 54, 66
Grodnenskii, Haim Ozer, Rabbi, 365
Guchkov, Aleksandr, 308, 309, 367
Gurko, Iosif, 71, 73, 74, 159n61
Gurko, Vladimir, 85, 86
Gurland, Ilia, 361
Halyn, Martyrii, 31
Helsingfors Conference (1906), 373
Hillis, Faith, 3, 4 history education: curriculum, 260, 262, 270, 272–73; debates on, 266–67; literature and, 272–73; official recommendations for, 261, 283; promotion of patriotism, 262–63, 267; school excursions and, 273, 282–83; textbooks, 260–61, 269–70; Ustrialov’s concept of, 260, 269; visual tools in, 271–72
Holy Brotherhood (Sviashchennaiia Druzhi­na), 359
Holy Synod: Decree of Tolerance and, 153; education policy, 206, 207–8, 209; establishment of diocese of Chelm, 159
Hotkevych, Hnat, 28
Hrinchenko, Borys, 21, 30
Hryhoriewa, Walancina, 164
Hryniewicki, Karol, Bishop, 135
Iashchinskii, Iosif, 279
Ieronim, Orthodox archbishop of Chelm and Warsaw, 155
Ignat’ev, Pavel, 47
Ignatiev, Nikolai, 163
Ignatiev, Pavel, 143
IIiodor, monk, 27
Imeretinskii, Aleksandr, 177 imperial nation: notion of, 68, 96–97, 330
Imperial Roman Catholic Spiritual Academy, 122
Imperial University of Warsaw, 86, 88–89
Istomin, Vladimir, 89
Iurashkevich, Andrei, 320
Iur’ens, Ivan, 340
Iur’ev Philanthropy Association, 180
Iuz’viuk, Vladimir, 322
Ivangorod, Chernigov Province, 220–22
Ivanov, Sergei, 261
Izvol’skii, Petr, 181–82
Jabotinsky, Zeev, 374
Jaczewski, Kazimierz Franciszek, Bishop of Lublin, 151, 153, 156
Jewish question, 12, 36, 354, 367, 368, 369, 371
Jewish right-wing organizations, 363–64, 376–77, 380–81
Kahan, Arcadius, 359, 360
Kataev, Ivan, 261
Kaufman, Petr, 196
Kerschensteiner, Georg, 235–36
Kharuzin, Aleksei, 291n7
Kharuzin, Aleksei, 291n7
Khmelnitski, Bogdan, 24n25
Kholm province. See Chełm (Kholm) province
Kholmskii narodnyi listok (journal), 157
Khomolov, Iurii, 296
Kivelson, Valerie, 20
Klier, John D., 357
Knesset Israel society, 365–66
Kokovtsev, Vladimir, 25
Kolbuk, Witold, 151, 154n43
Kondratowicz, Ludwik, 240
Konovnitsyn, Alexei, 362
Kontor, Vladimir, 312
Kossakovskii, Maximilian, 270
Kotenko, Anton, 6, 7, 12
Kotov, Valentin, 268
Kovaliuk, Semion, 275–76, 276n48, 302, 319, 321, 322, 323
Kovna province: conversions to Catholicism, 121, 125, 137, 138; governor’s circular to district police officers, 133; imperial officials, 49, 50, 53; interconfessional relations in, 115, 116, 117; language policy, 50; parishes statistics, 117n12; population of, 6; primary education, 51; zemstvo in, 44, 51
Krasinski, Adam Stanislaw, Bishop, 135
Krewo, Union of (185), 262
Krshivitzkii, Konstantin, 35, 41, 57–58, 128, 293
Krukovskii, Adrian, 272–73
Krupenskii, Vladimir, 377–78
Kryzanowski, Smaragd, 143
Kryzhanovskii, Sergei, 363
Kudrinskii, Fedot, 263–64, 264n11, 278, 283, 283n70
Kulakovsky, Platon, 95, 317
Kurchinskii, Vasilii, 311
Kurland province, 4n10, 5, 116, 194, 255, 327, 355
Kutaisov, Aleksandr, 25
Latvians: German aggression, 337; national culture, 340n67, 331, 352; political representation, 355; religion, 334, 336; in Russian nationalist discourse, 337–38, 343–44, 349

Kiev, 359, 360
Kiev Club of Russian Nationalists, 19
Kiev educational district, 214
Kiev province, 224, 225–26; primary education in, 211, 220; zemstvo schools in, 211
Kievian Temporary Committee for Print, 25, 26, 28–29
Kievlanin (newspaper), 24
Kiev'skaia kopeika (newspaper), 23
Kir'ianov, Iurii, 296
Kirkor, Adam Honory, 249

Kiev province: clandestine Polish schools in, 50; parishes statistics, 117n12; population of, 6; primary education, 51; zemstvo in, 44, 51
Krasiński, Adam Stanisław, Bishop, 135
Krewo, Union of (185), 262
Krshivitzkii, Konstantin, 35, 41, 57–58, 128, 293
Krukovskii, Adrian, 272–73
Krupenskii, Vladimir, 377–78
Kryżanowski, Smaragd, 143
Kryzhanovskii, Sergei, 363
Kudrinskii, Fedot, 263–64, 264n11, 278, 283, 283n70
Kulakovsky, Platon, 95, 317
Kurchinskii, Vasilii, 311
Kurland province, 4n10, 5, 116, 194, 255, 327, 355
Kutaisov, Aleksandr, 25
Latvians: German aggression, 337; national culture, 340n67, 331, 352; political representation, 355; religion, 334, 336; in Russian nationalist discourse, 337–38, 343–44, 349
Law Digest. See Digest of the Laws.
Leontii (Lebedinskii), Orthodox bishop of Chelm and Warsaw, 159
Lermontov, Mikhail, 273
Levin, Vladimir, 12–13
Levitskii, Grigorii, 276
Lieven, Dominic, 4
Ligin, Valerian, 177–78
Lithuania: historiography, 234–35; imperial policies, 116; national movement, 48, 54–55; Orthodox dioceses, 116, 266; printing press, 57–58, 51; in Russian historical narrative, 10–11, 260–62, 266, 280, 282–83; as travel destination, 250, 254
Lithuanians: acculturation of, 49, 52, 65; educational societies, 51–52, 53; government approach to, 137; government policy toward, 47, 48, 49, 50–51, 54, 65–66; language of education, 48–49, 50; as opponents to Polish influence, 52, 55, 56; private schools, 51; religious affiliation, 54–56; in Russian geography textbooks, 261n4; separatism, 53
“little motherland” (rodina), 239, 240, 242
Little Russians, 17–18, 18n3, 23, 24, 25, 26
Litvinskii, Viktor, 81
Liubimov, Dmitrii, 293, 305, 365
Livland Noble Assembly, 192
Lohr, Eric, 379
Lomnytskyi, Jeremia, 165
Lopaciński, Stanisław, 44
Loskutova, Marina, 242
Łotocki, Aleksandr, 147
Lublin, Union of, 262, 269
Łupiński, Józef, 155
Lurie, Ilia, 364
Lykosov, Mikhail, 379
“Mahzikei Ha-Dat” (Jewish organization), 364
Main Committee on Peasant Affairs, 207
Makarov, Aleksandr, 27
Makarevich Burachevskaiia, Adolfa, 124n39
Makarov, Ivan, 267
Maksimov, Ivan, 165
Maksimovich, Konstantin, 165
Mariavite Church, 154, 154n43
Martson, Fiodor, 282
Matiets, I. S., 226
Matson, Nikolai, 304, 308, 313, 314
Mazepa, Ivan, 23
“Measures for the Affirmation and Maintenance of Russian Influence in the Pribałtiiiskii krai,” 348–49
Medvedev, Sergei, 273, 276, 277n51
Meller-Zakomel’skii, Aleksandr, 199, 346, 349–50, 352–53
Mendelsohn, Ezra, 369
Menkin, Evgenii, 165
Meysztovicz, Aleksander, 44
Mikhail, Orthodox Archbishop of Grodna and Brest, 124
Miliukov, Pavel, 369
Miliutin, Nikolai, 176
Miller, Alexei, 2, 3, 19, 330
Mindaugas, Duke of Lithuania, 261
Ministry of Education (ME): circulars on school excursions, 274; development of educational policy, 204, 205, 207–8, 212, 214; financing of primary education, 208, 210–11, 213; Law of May 29, 1869, 208; recommendations on history curriculum, 262; rules on non-Orthodox religious education, 60–61; school regulations, 208–9, 212
Minkevich, Ivan, 123–24
Minsk province: interconfessional relations, 116; Russian social clubs, 291
Minsk Russian Societal Assembly, 318
Mitskievich, Konstantin (Jakub Kolas), 283, 284
Mogilev archdiocese, 116, 134
Mogilev province: interconfessional relations, 116
Monarchist Party “Kievan Union of the Russian People,” 220
Morskaiia volna (The Wave of the Sea) (newspaper), 315
Motherland’s Patriotic Union, 378
Mulevičiūtė, Jolita, 10–11, 13, 271
Muraf’ Town: cultural development, 216; Kiev educational district’s inspection of, 217; population of, 215; primary education in, 214–16, 219; school construction, 216–18
Murav’ev, Andrei, 249–50
Murav’ev, Mikhail, 1–2, 34, 35, 249, 269, 277, 289–90
Nasha niva (newspaper), 63, 64n103 native language education: before 1904–05, 175–82; in Baltic Provinces, 180–82, 196; Committee of Ministers’ debates on, 183–86; Decree of 1904 and, 182–86; demand for, 187–97; in elementary schools, 177–79, 186; introduction of, 174; petitioning movement, 188–91; in Poland, 176–79, 190, 196; in private schools, 186, 190; regional approach to, 183–85; rules and regulations, 186, 190, 196–97; transformation of, 171
Naumov, Aleksandr, 47
Neidgart, Dmitrii, 93, 94
Neverovich, Nikolai, 43
Nicholas I, Emperor of Russia, 17
Nicholas II, Emperor of Russia, 19, 74, 149, 244, 278, 296
Nikandr, Archbishop of Vil’na and Lithuania, 298
Nikanor, Archbishop of Grodna and Brest, 118, 138, 139
Nikonov, Sergei, 267
Nisselovich, Lazar, 167–69
non-Russians: discrimination of, 7, 12; government policy towards, 173, 175, 201; loyalty to empire, 2, 13; political integration of, 3; rights of, 183; status of, 3, 4
Northwest Region (NWR): abolition of the Uniate Church, 119; April 1905 decree, 43, 50; Belorussian question, 56–64; Catholic affairs, 38, 136, 137; confessional policy, 9, 114–15, 136–57; Decree of Tolerance, 137; depolonization policy, 113, 115, 120, 136, 138; education system, 10–11, 42, 242–43, 266–68; history textbooks on, 260; incorporation into imperial space, 256–57; interconfessional relations, 115, 119–23; Jewish question, 36; Lithuanian population, 47–56; meetings of provincial governors, 46, 46n44; modernization of society, 290; nationality policy, 7–8, 32–34, 35, 39, 40, 43, 53, 65; non-Russian elites, 43; Orthodox Church, 118–19; Polish influence, 36, 37, 39–47; political regime, 49; publishing, 243; right-wing organizations, 11–12, 58; Russification policy, 37; societal and national clubs, 289–94; territory, 6n20; tourism, 251, 253–54, 255, 257; “workers question,” 36; zemstvo, introduction of, 34, 44–46
Northwestern Russian Veche: charter, 303–4; creation, 58, 302; decline, 305–6; ideology, 303; local support, 324; meeting with borderland Octobrists, 310; partners, 304; periodical, 302–3, 305; political program, 304–5, 310; religion and, 304
October 17 Manifesto, 116, 290, 293, 295, 299n33, 301, 303, 304, 306, 310n55, 314, 368, 371
Octobrists. See Union of October 17 (Octobrists)
Official Family (Sluzhebnaia Sem’ia) club, 291 “official nationalism” doctrine, 18, 18n5, 20, 30, 31, 329
okraina: concept of, 96, 97
Okrainy Rossii (weekly magazine), 316, 316n72, 314
Old Believers, 147, 149, 299, 353
Olšauskas, Konstantinas, 51, 52
Orlov, Vasilii, 378
Orlovskii, Evstafii, 264–65, 265n13, 265n15, 266, 278
Orthodox believers: conversion to Catholicism, 114–15, 118, 120–21, 123–25; statistics of, 117, 119
Orthodox Church. See Russian Orthodox Church (ROC)
Orthodoxy, Jewish, 363–67, 369, 372
Ostroumov, Alexei, 281
“Oświata” (Polish educational society), 24

Pakhal’chak, Vasilii K., 215, 216–17
Pale of Settlement, 360, 367, 378, 380
Pan-Slavism, 158
parish schools: education programs of, 210; elementary literacy, 206; financing, 206–7; handicraft courses, 211; negative image of, 222–23; Orthodox Church and, 205, 205n7, 209–10, 222–23; in Right-bank Ukraine, 204–5; statistics of, 207
Pasmanik, Daniel, 375
Pavlovich, Iosif, 320
Pavlovskii, Mikhail, 281
Peasant Provision, 207
Peasant Society, 302–3, 312
People’s Will (Narodnaia Volia), 359
Pererva, Volodymyr, 223
Pestel, Pavel: “Russkaia Pravda,” 346
Petrażycki, Leon, 41
Petronis, Vytautas, 11, 12
photographic prints: introduction of colored, 241–42
Pigulevskii, Aleksandr, 267, 282
Pimonov, Aristarkh, 306
Plath, Ulrike, 241, 257
Platonov, Sergei, 261–62, 266
Pobedonostsev, Konstantin, 73, 152, 155, 172, 209, 364
Pochaevskaia Lavra, 135

Pochaevskie izvestiia (newspaper), 27, 28, 28n39
Pogodin, Mikhail P., 338

Poland, Kingdom of: anti-Semitic campaigns, 82–83; Chełm question, 99, 101–2; civil society, 81–82, 92; creation of, 70; cultural associations, 79; Decree of 1904 and, 184–85, 187; dioceses, 160; Duma election campaigns, 85, 86, 89–91; education policy, 41–42, 71–72, 107n93, 178–79, 188–89; elementary schools, 177; history of, 168–69; imperial nationality policies, 8; imperial rule, 69, 70–76, 78–79, 80–83, 99, 106–8, 109; industrialization, 74; international situation and, 74, 79–80; investigative journalism, 80–81; language of education, 89n51, 176–79, 184, 190–91, 191n76, 193–94, 196, 197; martial law period, 77, 78–79; municipal self-government, 81, 97; Nicholas I’s policy, 17; origin of, 162; philanthropy, 92; policies to strengthen Russian influence, 12, 98–99; Polish nationalist movement, 4, 75–76, 78; Polish schools, 188–89; political culture, 75, 77–78, 80, 83, 109; population, 17–18; private schools network, 81; Revolution of 1905 and, 68, 76–80, 187; Russian army in, 70; “Russian cause” in, 67, 75, 90–91, 100, 109; Russian community, 68, 73, 75, 83, 198; “Russians first” agenda, 100–101; Russification policy, 5, 71–74, 73; social unrest, 108; socialist threat, 77–78; state administration reform, 71, 72–73; territorial claims, 5; Uniate population, 142; uprising of 1810–31, 70; uprising of 1863–64, 17, 68, 70, 108, 115, 144; urbanization, 74; volunteer fire brigades, 99, 101; ts. Western Provinces, 174n9; World War I and, 109

Poles: anti-government activities, 36; anti-Russian views, 46; discrimination against, 36, 40–41; election to zemstvo, 46; as enemies of Empire, image of, 43, 44, 66; government policy toward, 39–40, 41, 47; national identity, 151; regulations on land purchase, 44; ties between aristocracy and intelligentsia, 46

“Polish Motherland School” (Polska Macierz Szkolna), 81

Polish National Democrats (Endecja), 78, 80, 83

Polish question, 39–47, 174, 174n8, 209, 230

Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth: partitions of, 70, 141–42, 161; Russia’s acquisition of, 17; Uniate population, 142

Polivanov, Alexei, 47

Polotsk, Union of, 142, 143

Popov, Vasilii, 48, 65, 263

popular nationalisms, 287–88

Poteschnaia armiia (The Happy Army), 281

Pratt, Mary Louise, 235

Pravosudovich, Emelian, 271

Pribaltiiskaia Smuta (Baltic “Times of Troubles”), 144 primary education: administrative process, 214–22; before and after 1905, 213; education programs, 260; financing, 206–7, 208, 209, 210–11, 212–13, 230–31; history of, 205–6; “homeland studies” programs, 241–42; nation-building and, 203; Orthodox Church and, 206–8, 209–10, 230; provisions on, 208; public interest in, 212; reform of, 206–7; Revolution of 1905 and, 213; in Right-bank Ukraine, 203–4; Special Commission on, 207; supervision of, 208–9, 212; zemstvo and, 208

Prokudin-Gorskii, Sergei, 241–42

“Prosvita” (Ukrainian nationalist society), 24, 163

Provincial and District Committees for Zemstvo Administration, 204

Provincial Committee of Guardianship of People’s Temperance, 209, 211

Provisional Rules on non-Orthodox religious education, 60–61, 61n94, 62

Pshenichnikov, Pavel, 347, 353

Purishkevich, Vladimir, 295, 377

Pushkin, Aleksandr, 273

Račkauskas, Merkelis, 238, 258

Rada (newspaper), 22, 22n19, 31

railways, 258

Ratner, Mark, 363

“recalcitrants,” 114, 118, 119n16, 123, 146, 154, 168

religious education: debates on language of, 62–64; Provisional Rules on non-Orthodox, 60–61, 62

Revel: Alexander Nevsky Cathedral, 346; Russian presence in, 334

Reviakin, Petr, 129

Revisionist Zionism, 369

Revolution of 1905: consequences of, 360; education policy and, 9–10, 213; ideological impact, 287, 354; national policies and, 3, 7; political impact, 361

Riegg, Stephen Badalyan, 65

Riesser, Gabriel, 173

Riga: descriptions, 253; importance of, 352; as travel destination, 252, 253

Riga Educational District, 179, 181, 192, 194, 196

Right-bank Ukraine: literacy rate, 209, 213–14; multi-confessional population, 205; nationalism, 3; Orthodox parish schools, 204–5; primary education, 203–5, 209, 222; zemstvo, 203

Index

- cal animosity between, 314; popular support for, 294, 313, 314, 318, 324; practical work, 323; sections, 294–95; spread of, 293–94, 325; studies of, 289
- Rizhskii vestnik (newspaper), 346
- Rogovich, Alexei, 37
- Roman Catholic Church. See Catholic Church
- Romanov, Evdokim, 274
- Romanov dynasty: tricentennial celebration, 278, 279, 280
- Ropp, Edward von der, 55, 59, 120, 124–25, 127, 130, 131, 135
- Rusov, Oleksandr, 31
- Russian Assembly (Russkoe Sobranie), 84n39, 102, 290–91
- Russian Borderland Society (Russkoe okrainnoe obshchestvo), 95
- Russian Borderland Union: Belorussian question and, 312, 313; creation, 306, 311; decline, 312, 317; elections to Duma and, 313–16; membership, 311–12, 317; opening ceremony, 312; organizational structure, 311; periodicals, 312, 316–17; popular support, 313, 314; relations with right-wing organizations, 312, 313;
- St. Petersburg section, 316; statute, 311
- “Russian cause” (Russkoe delo), 67–68, 69, 73, 90, 91, 97, 98
- Russian Charity Society (Russkoe blagotvoritel’noe obshchestvo), 102
- Russian diaspora in Poland: conspiracy theories, 93; cultural and political life, 84, 94–95; electoral privileges, 85; House of Russian people project, 92; imperial authorities and, 85–86, 91, 97–98; occupational opportunities, 84; Polish threat to, 92; size of, 83; social and economic marginalization, 92–93
- Russian Empire: anti-Jewish legislation, 357; borderlands, 342; electoral law, 313; historiography, 33; imagined “hierarchy of enemies” of, 37, 379–80; modern nationalisms and, 2–3, 4, 66; political regime, 35, 48, 358–59; protection of security of, 108; self-governing institutions, 44; “Third-of-June” system, 313; tourist image of, 246; visions of, 1–2; westward colonization, 349
- Russian Grain (nationalist organization), 323
- Russian language education: nationalist support of, 198, 202; promotion of, 197–98
- Russian nation: project of creation of, 19–20
- Russian National Union of the Archangel Michael, 198, 295, 301, 322
- Russian nationalism: government support, 25, 31; ideology, 329–30; influence, 24; local authorities and, 27–28; non-aggressive nature of, 347; as official ideology, 2, 18–19, 20; opposition to, 26–30a, 28; organizations, 19; periodicals, 26; as public sentiment, 20–21, 30; studies of, 18, 288–89; Ukrainian rivals of, 23–24, 25–26
- Russian Nationalist Party (Union), 358, 376–78
- Russian Social Organization, 281
- Russification policy: alternative to, 38; classification of, 173n6; outcome, 37, 54; resistance to, 37–38; revision, 171; in Western Provinces, 173–74
Index

Ruskii izbiratel’ election campaign, 322
Ruskoe obshchestvo (“Russian Society”), 90–91, 95, 96
Ruthenia (Ruś), 141, 144
Ruthenians: conversion to Catholicism, 151–52; national identity, 141–42, 147, 164–65; Orthodox influence, 156–57; Polonization of, 155, 167–68
Rzhishchev Town, 218–19

Saloman, A.K., 192
Samarin, Iurii, 19, 335–36, 338
Samiilenko, Volodymyr, 29
Samogitian (Tel’ši) diocese, 116
Sangushko, Roman, 28
Saulė (the Sun) (Lithuanian Catholic education society), 51–52
Savenko, Anatoly, 24
Sazonov, Sergej D., 355
Schenk, Frithjof Benjamin, 248
Schirren, Carl, 337
Schneersohn, Sholom (Rabbi Duber), 364, 369 school children’s societies, 281–82 school excursions: to distant locations, 275, 276–77, 282; to local locations, 274–75, 277–78, 282–83; Ministry regulations on, 275, 276; promotion of, 244, 273, 274 schools: financing, 208, 210–11, 230–31; inspection, 208–9; ministerial, 205, 210, 211; with Polish curriculum, 155n45; private, 186n59, 201; state regulations, 208–9, 212; statistics, 211–12; territorial distribution of, 212; transformation of district schools into city-style, 213n26, 214. See also clandestine Polish schools; parish schools; primary education

Schweitzer, Robert, 331
Selo (newspaper), 29
Sergiievskii, Nikolai, 271
Seton-Watson, Hugh, 18, 18n5, 31
Shakhovskoi, Sergei V., 353
Shandra, Valentyna, 24n25
Shargorod, 217
Shchegolev, Sergei, 24n25
Sheptytskyi, Andrii, Metropolitan of the Galician Uniate Church, 165
Shevchenko, Taras, 31
Shevchenko Society, 163
Shmakov, Alexei, 377
Shmid, Gustav, 304, 312, 313
Shulgin, Vasilii, 377, 378
Shuliavka Village, 220
Shuvalov, Pavel, 36, 74, 75
Shwarts, Aleksandr: career, 196; education policy, 179, 181, 187–88, 189, 197; personality, 200; response to petitioning movement, 189–90; Stolypin’s correspondence with, 199–200; support of Russian language, 197–98
Sidorenko, Makarii, 279, 280
Sidorov, Vasilii, 252–54
Skalon, Georgii: Alekseev and, 97; authority of, 68; background, 164; Chelm question and, 101–2; closure of private schools, 81; collaboration with Polish society, 78, 80, 81, 91, 102–3; complaints about, 67–68, 93; death, 98; education policy, 42, 88–89; governance style, 103, 104–6; “House of the Russian People” project and, 87–88; idea of estate-based monarchy, 105; nationalists’ attacks on, 98, 102, 103; nationality policy, 8; pacification of revolutionary Poland, 78–79; project of municipal self-institutions, 82; Russification measures, 12, 101; State Duma election and, 90–91
Skirmuntt, Konstanty, 44
Skvortsov, Ivan, 261
Slaviansko Blagotvoritel’noe Obshchestvo, 340
Slavophilem, 158, 290–91
Slizioberg, Genrikh, 368–71
Slonim Catholic parish, 123
Sluchevskii, Konstantin, 251–52
Index

Society for defending Uniates, 154, 154n41, 155, 156–57
Society of Jews Praying for the Wellbeing of the Tsar and the Government, 363
“Society of the Double-Headed Eagle,” 23
Sokół (Polish youth sports organization), 281
Sollogub, Vasilii U., 341
Solonevich, Lukian, 320
Solov’ev, Vladimir, 347, 373
Southwest region, 6n20
Spasovich, Vladimir, 187, 188, 189
St. Petersburg Russian Borderland Society, 316
Staliūnas, Darius, 6–7, 277
Stankevich, Andrei, 291n7
State Council: Polish members of, 44
Stolypin, Petr: background, 318; circular, 24, 24n23; correspondence with Meller-Zakomelskii, 349–50; correspondence with Volhynian governor, 27, 28; electoral reform, 85; interference into local affairs, 93; modernization projects, 230; nationalist views, 94; Octobrists and, 311; policy making style, 101; publications, 199; rabbis’ appeal to, 366; religious policy, 55, 131; reputation, 93; Shvarts and, 199–200; support for Russian nationalists, 25, 90, 318, 319
Sunderland, Willard, 258
Suny, Ronald G., 20
Sviatopolk-Mirskii, Petr, 2, 36, 38, 39, 51, 172
Szembek, Jerzy, Archbishop of Mogilev, 127
Tańska, Maria, 161–62, 163
Taube, Mikhail, 262
Tauride Palace, 95, 96
teachers: administrative control of, 263; participation in state holidays, 278–80; role in patriotic education, 262–64
Temporary Provisions of Societies and Unions, 116
Thaden, Edward C., 173n6
Third State Duma: debates on native language education, 49–50; delegates from borderland territories, 95–96; elections, 316; Independent Nationalists faction, 376; Jewish members of, 367
Tkhorzhevskii, Vladimir, 187
Tolmachiov, Ivan, 363
Tolstoi, Alexei, 273
Tolstoi, Dmitrii, 208
Tolstoi, Ivan, 41, 42, 57, 61, 63n99, 195–96
Tolz, Vera, 246
tourism: destinations, 244, 245–46, 252; development of, 237–38, 249; foreign destinations, 246–47; political aspect of, 256; promotion of, 257; studies of, 235, 256; travelogues, 246. See also educational tours travel guides, 249–50, 252, 255
Trent, Council of, 122
Trepov, Fedor, 24, 25
Triple Alliance, 36–37, 74, 252
Tritshel’, V. K., 219
Troitskie listki (newspaper), 27
Tsurumi, Taro, 375
Turtsevich, Arsenii, 268–69, 268n24, 269n27–28, 270, 274
Ukraine: national identity, 17–18, 18n3; periodicals in, 22–23; public sphere, 21, 21n13; Revolution of 1905 in, 7
Ukrainian language, 23, 24, 25, 26
Ukrainian nationalism: development of, 18, 30–31; opposition to, 23, 25–26; societies, 24, 24n23; study of, 3
Ukrainian-language publications: censorship of, 20, 21, 28–29; regulation of, 22, 22n15, 31
Ul’ianov, Grigorii, 194
Uniate Church: “Cracovian marriages,” 145, 145n11; Decree on Tolerance and, 146–47, 166–67; dissolution of, 119, 167–68; ecclesiastic property of, 156, 166; language of service, 143; Orthodox Church and, 114n5, 119, 142–43; revival of, 148–49, 164–67; scholarship on, 147–48; Ukrainian national interests and, 167; in Western Provinces, 142, 145, 167. See also former Uniates

Union of Russian People (Reformed), 301
Union of Russian People (Soiuz Russkogo Naroda): antisemitism, 362, 371; Duma elections and, 300, 322; establishment of, 198, 294, 295; imperial authorities and, 298, 300; internal conflicts, 317–18; membership, 19, 297, 299; Old Believers and, 299; Orthodox Church and, 297, 298, 299; periodicals, 315, 318; popular support, 293; sections, 301, 301n41; splits within, 301; state support, 315, 371; territorial sections, 19, 135n85, 296–97, 297n26, 301 universally accessible education, 203, 205, 212, 230, 231

Urry, John, 235

Ushinskii, Konstantin, 240

Ustrialov, Nikolai, 260, 262, 266, 269, 282

Valuev Circular, 21

Verevkin, Petr (Piotr Veriovkin): career, 65; education policy, 52, 259; Gnatinovskii and, 297, 298–99, 315; as honorary citizen of Kovna, 53; nationality policy, 51–52; political views, 53; report on right-wing organizations, 301n41; support of Lithuanians, 50–51, 56

Vilenskii Vestnik (Vil’na Gazette) (newspaper), 305, 314

Vienna, Congress of, 70

Vil’na (city): descriptions of, 253–54; imperial officials in, 253; right-wing voters, 320–21; Russian social clubs, 291–92; State Boys’ Gymnasiums, 281n64; tourism, 250–51, 253–54, 277–78; tsarist monuments in, 1–2, 263, 277

Vil’na diocese, 55, 116

Vil’na Educational District: congresses of teachers, 263–64, 265n15, 266, 272, 274; instructions on history teaching, 265, 283; museum of visual teaching material, 272, 272n35; promotion of historical publications, 278; school tours, 244–46, 247, 248, 274–75, 277–78, 282–83; state holidays and commemorations, 278–80; visual propaganda, 271; youth sports organization and, 281–82

Vil’na Pedagogical Museum, 274

Vil’na province: Alexander II’s visit to, 113; Catholic and Orthodox parishes, 117n12; conversion to Catholicism, 121, 123–25, 138, 150; institution of governor-general, 34–35, 45; interconfessional relations, 115–16, 126; introduction of cemstvo, 44; Orthodox converts, 113–15, 114n7

Vil’na Public Library, 250–51, 277

Vil’na Russian Agricultural Society, 323

Vil’na Russian National Union, 319

Vil’na Russian Societal Assembly, 291–92

Visendorfs, Henrijs, 61n91

Vitebsk province, 116

Vitte, Sergei, 42, 61

Vladimir Alexandrovich, Grand Duke, 251–52

Vol’f, Boris, 62–63, 63n99, 268, 269, 270, 300

Volkonskii, Petr, 308

Volyn’ Province, 27, 223

Vorontsov-Dashkov, Illarion, 65

Vrutsevich, Aleksandr, 275, 275n46, 312, 319, 321, 322
Index

Vulpius, Ricarda, 19

Warsaw: “Committee of National Mourning,” 99; educational and cultural institutions, 74, 86, 88–89, 92; ethnic conflicts, 94; Frédéric Chopin monument, 102; “House of the Russian People” project, 86, 87–88, 92; Nicholas II’s visit to, 74; Polish civil society, 81–82; political campaigns, 97; Russian community, 75, 103, 104, 106, 108–9; Russian societies, 84n39, 87, 102, 290; Ujazdowski park, 87, 102
Warsaw educational district: native language education, 187, 190–91, 194–95, 194n86, 196; observers, 178, 179, 179n27; private schools, 188
Warsaw Positivists (Ugodowcy), 76, 77
Warsaw-Vienna Railway Company, 98, 101

Wave of the Sea (Morskaia volna) (newspaper), 315, 318
Weeks, Theodore R., 3, 20, 59n87, 329, 339
Werth, Paul W., 146, 150
Węsławski, Michał, 269
“West Russian history” (digest), 268
Witte, Sergei, 172, 196
Wol’f, Boris von. See Vol’f, Boris
Word of Minsk (newspaper), 312

Žaltauskaitė, Vilma, 8, 9, 12, 13
Zamyslovskii, Gregorii, 300, 316, 322 zemstvo, 34, 44–46, 51, 203–4, 208, 219, 347, 355 zemstvo schools, 204–5, 206, 210, 211, 216, 222
Zenger, Grigorii, 178
Zhukovskii, Vasilii, 244, 273
Zilberberg, Peretz, 372
Zinov’ev, Mikhail A., 352
Zionist movement, 373–74
Zubritskii, Boleslav, 280