Contents

Introduction: Open Society Unresolved: Charting the Contested Terrain 1
Christof Royer

PART I
Philosophical and Theoretical Perspectives on Open Society 21

1 Human Nature and the Open Society 23
Thom Scott-Phillips

2 In Praise of Coldness: The Open Neighborhood and Its Enemies 38
Rachid Boutayeb

3 Against Identity: Individuality as the Foundation of Open Society 48
Gregory Lobo

4 Empirical Embodiment of Critical Rationalism: Deliberative Theory and Open Society 59
Gazela Pudar Draško and Predrag Krstić

5 Open Society as an Achievement: Popper, Gaus, and the Liberal Tradition 72
Piers Norris Turner

6 Nozick’s Meta-Utopia as an Open Society 83
Avery Fox White
7 Hannah Arendt and Literary Pedagogy
   Andrea Timár

8 Can Bergson’s Definition of Open Society Be Useful Today?
   Jean-Louis Fabiani

PART II
National and Regional Perspectives on Open Society

9 The Gender of Illiberalism: New Transnational Alliances against Open Societies in Central and Eastern Europe
   Katalin Fábián

10 Open Society Contested: Liberal Universalism versus Autocratic Functionalism in Hong Kong
   Kenneth Ka-Lok Chan

11 “Sorosoids”: Uses of Labeling in Bulgaria
   Lubomir Terziev

12 An African Background to the Concept of Open Society: Ikenga and Ofo Cultic Figures as Structural Representations of the Enterprising Spirit of the Igbo of Nigeria
   Nwankwo T. Nwaezeigwe

13 Imagining the Future of Intelligence in Open Societies: Venturing beyond Secrecy and Scientific Prophecy as Totalitarian Modes of Modernity
   Anna Eva Grutza

   Tarun Weeramanthri

List of Contributors
Index