Tables

Table 1: Number and Distribution of Municipal Guardsmen ................. 8
Table 2: Rural Police Districts by Average Size and Population, 1847 .......... 8
Table 3: Tenure of Senior Police Officials under Nicholas I .................. 19
Table 4: Turnover of Police Personnel, 1858/1855 .................................. 20
Table 5: Level, Distribution, and Sources of Local Police Spending, 1858 ................................................................. 29
Table 6: The Commission for the Reform of Provincial and County Institutions ................................................................. 44
Table 7: Proposed and Authorized County Police Budgets, 1858–1863 .. 54
Table 8: Rural Police Salaries in Rubles, circa 1858–1863 ..................... 54
Table 9: Selected Statistics on the St. Petersburg Police, 1863–1867 ....... 68
Table 10: Actual or Proposed Spending and Staffing for the Municipal Police ................................................................. 74
Table 11: Population and Revenue for Largest and Smallest Cities in 1858 ................................................................. 76
Table 12: Police Spending as a Share of City Revenue ......................... 77
Table 13: Proposals for a Rural Police Guard .................................. 100
Table 14: Spending for Town and County Police, 1858–1881 ............... 108
Table 15: Rural Police Precincts by Population circa 1878 .................... 111
Table 16: Annual Salaries of Village Wardens and Junior Wardens, 1870 ................................................................. 115
Table 17: Turnover of Police Personnel ............................................. 116
Table 18: Incoming Policemen and Sergeants in St. Petersburg by Background ................................................................. 117
Table 19: Level of Police Activity in Iaroslavl Province, 1864–1869 ....... 120
Table 20: Distribution of Police Business in 1872 ................................. 122
Tables

Table 21: Numbers of Counties with Given Ranges of Incoming Paperwork in 1876................................. 124
Table 22: Inhabitants per Patrolman by Capital, Selected Years............ 126
Table 23: Arrests and Crimes in St. Petersburg, 1867–1878 ..................... 132
Table 24: Increase in Arrests and Crimes in St. Petersburg 1867–1878..... 134
Table 25: Thefts and Robberies Successfully Investigated by St. Petersburg Detectives ........................................ 135
Table 26: Spending for Local Police and Total Government Spending... 162
Table 27: Spending for Local Police in the Caucasus and Congress Poland in 1868 ........................................ 192

Figures and Maps

Figure 1: Organization of the St. Petersburg Police circa 1855 ............. 4
Figure 2: St. Petersburg City Guard Uniforms circa 1855 ....................... 14
Figure 3: The St. Petersburg Police after the Reorganization of 1866 ...... 67
Figure 4: St. Petersburg Policemen, 1866............................................. 70
Figure 5: The Rangers......................................................................... 114
Map ................................................................................................. 166