The Historical Construction of National Consciousness

Gyáni, Gábor, Trencsényi, Balázs, Klaniczay, Gábor, Szűcs, Jenő

Published by Central European University Press

Gyáni, Gábor, et al.
The Historical Construction of National Consciousness: Selected Writings.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/98213.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/98213

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=3230475

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.
Contents

Introduction: Reading and Rereading Jenő Szűcs ............................................. 1

“Nationality” and “National Consciousness” in the Middle Ages:
Towards the Development of a Common Conceptual Language ............. 25

“Gentilism”: The Question of Barbarian Ethnic Consciousness .......... 85

Theoretical Elements in Master Simon of Kéza’s
Gesta Hungarorum (1282–1285) ................................................................. 109

Nation and People in the Late Middle Ages ............................................. 153

The Ideology of György Dózsa’s Peasant War ........................................ 177

The Three Historical Regions of Europe ............................................... 231

Questions of “Origins” and National Consciousness ............................. 299

A Bibliography of Published Works by Jenő Szűcs ................................. 337

Index ........................................................................................................... 345