The Scholar as Human

Castillo, Debra A., Bartel, Anna Sims

Published by Cornell University Press

Castillo, Debra A. and Anna Sims Bartel.
The Scholar as Human: Research and Teaching for Public Impact.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/81041
Contents

Introduction
ANNASIMS BARTEL AND DEBRA A. CASTILLO 1

PART I. HUMANIZING SCHOLARS 17

1. Humans as Scholars, Scholars as Humans
ANNASIMS BARTEL 19

2. To Be, or To Become? On Reading and Recognition
SHAWN MC DANIEL 42

3. Present: Humanity in the Humanities
A.T. MILLER 52

PART II. ENGAGING ARTIFACTS 67

4. Humans Remain: Engaging Communities and Embracing Tensions in the Study of Ancient Human Skeletons
MATTHEW C. VELASCO 69

5. Forgotten Faces, Missing Bodies: Understanding “Techno-Invisible” Populations and Political Violence in Peru
JOSÉ RAGAS 93

6. A Ride to New Futures with Rosa Parks: Producing Public Scholarship and Community Art
RICHÉ RICHARDSON 108
PART III. CONSIDERING RESISTANCE  127

7. Finding Humanity: Social Change on Our Own Terms

CHRISTINE HENSELER  129

8. Performing Democracy: Bad and Nasty Patriot Acts

SARA WARNER  143

9. Making Law

GERALD TORRES  156

10. What’s It All Meme?

ELLA DIAZ  169

PART IV. USING HUMANITY/IES  191

11. Performing the Past, Rehearsing the Future: Transformative Encounters with American Theater Company’s Youth Ensemble

CAITLIN KANE  193

12. “From the Projects to the Pasture”: Navigating Food Justice, Race, and Food Localism

BOBBY J. SMITH II  212

DEBRA A. CASTILLO AND CAROLINA OSORIO GIL  227

Afterword: The Prophetic Aspiration of the Scholar as Human

SCOTT J. PETERS  248
THE SCHOLAR AS HUMAN