The Supplement of Reading

Rajan, Tilottama

Published by Cornell University Press

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/58032
Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Frequently Cited Texts and Abbreviations ix
Introduction 1

PART I
1. The Supplement of Reading 15
2. The Hermeneutic Tradition from Schleiermacher to Kierkegaard 36
3. Kierkegaard and Schleiermacher Revisited: The Revisionary Tradition in Romantic Hermeneutics 69

PART II
A. Reading, Culture, History
4. The (Un)Persuaded Reader: Coleridge’s Conversation with Hermeneutics 101
5. The Eye/I of the Other: Self and Audience in Wordsworth’s Lyrical Ballads 136
6. Wollstonecraft and Godwin: Reading the Secrets of the Political Novel 167

B. Canon and Heresy: Blake’s Intertextuality
7. Untying Blake’s Secular Scripture 197
8. Early Texts: “The Eye Altering Alters All” 221
9. (Infinite) Absolute Negativity: The Brief Epics 253
Contents

C. Deconstruction at the Scene of Its Reading

10. “World within World”: The Theoretical Voices of Shelley’s
    Defence of Poetry 277

11. Deconstruction or Reconstruction: Reading Shelley’s
    Prometheus Unbound 298

12. The Broken Mirror: The Identity of the Text in Shelley’s
    Triumph of Life 323

Afterword 350
Index 355