The Idea of the Labyrinth from Classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages

Doob, Penelope Reed

Published by Cornell University Press

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/68526

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2414119
Contents

List of Plates ix

Acknowledgments: Four Labyrinths xi

Abbreviations xvii

Introduction: Charting the Maze 1

The Cretan Labyrinth Myth 11

PART ONE
THE LABYRINTH IN THE CLASSICAL AND EARLY CHRISTIAN PERIODS

1. The Literary Witness: Labyrinths in Pliny, Virgil, and Ovid 17

2. The Labyrinth as Significant Form: Two Paradigms 39
   A clash of paradigms 40
   The multicursal model 46
   The unicursal model 48
   The essence of the maze 51

3. A Taxonomy of Metaphorical Labyrinths 64
   The labyrinth as a sign of complex artistry 66
   The labyrinth as a sign of inextricability or impenetrability 72
   The labyrinth as a sign of difficult process 82

PART TWO
THE LABYRINTH IN THE MIDDLE AGES

4. Etymologies and Verbal Implications 95

vii
5. Mazes in Medieval Art and Architecture 101
   The three-dimensional labyrinth (buildings and gardens) 103
   Diagrammatic labyrinths 112
   Turf and stone mazes 113
   Labyrinths in churches 117
   Labyrinths in manuscripts 133

6. Moral Labyrinths in Medieval Literature 145
   The mythographers 148
   Moral labyrinths in other literature 155
   Readings of selected texts 165
      The Gesta Romanorum 165
      Il Corbaccio 167
      The Assembly of Ladies 171
      La Queste del Saint Graal 175

7. Textual Labyrinths: Toward a Labyrinthine Aesthetic 192
   Labyrinthine Invenitio 198
   Labyrinthine Dispositio 201
   Labyrinthine Elocutio 211
   Difficult process 213

PART THREE
LABYRINTHS OF WORDS:
CENTRAL TEXTS AND INTERTEXTUALITIES

8. Virgil's Aeneid 227

9. Boethius's Consolation of Philosophy 254

10. Dante's Divine Comedy 271
    The labyrinthine landscape 281
    The labyrinthine journey 287
    The myth transformed and reenacted 294

11. Chaucer's House of Fame 307

Appendix: Labyrinths in Manuscripts 341
     Index 343