Contents

Acknowledgments ix
List of Abbreviations xiii
Note on Transliteration and Translation xv
Maps xvii

Introduction: Backstage Labor and Organizational Adaptation 1

1. Memories and Mythologies of Militancy: An Ethnographic Approach to Studying Militant Organizations 15

2. Building a Social Infrastructure: The Palestine Liberation Organization and the Guerrilla Factions in Lebanon 30

3. Social Networks and Wartime Violence: Comparing Repertoires during the 1982 Israeli Invasion 52

4. Beyond the Lines: Gendered Mobilization and Organizational Resilience in Militant Groups 71

5. Crossing Collaborators: Emotion, Informing, and Civilian Mobilization in Occupied South Lebanon 92

6. The Face of the Camps: Leadership and Loyalty in Combat Units 114

7. “Every Faction for Itself”: Personalized Militias and Fragmented Battle Lines 135

Conclusion: Echoes of Organizations 155

Appendix A: Methodological Approach and Ethical Considerations 169
Appendix B: Archival Materials and Methods 187
Appendix C: Palestinian Refugee Camps in Lebanon 193
Notes 195
References 217
Index 239