Remembering the AIDS Quilt

Morris III, Charles E.

Published by Michigan State University Press

Morris III, Charles E.
Remembering the AIDS Quilt.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/13087.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/13087
Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS ............................................ vii

PROLOGUE | Cleve Jones ............................................. xi

The Mourning After | Charles E. Morris III ................................. xxxvii

PART 1. EMERGENCE

The AIDS Memorial Quilt and the Contemporary Culture of Public Commemoration | Carole Blair and Neil Michel ....................... 3

The Politics of Loss and Its Remains in Common Threads: Stories from the Quilt | Gust A. Yep .................................................. 43
PART 2. MOVEMENT

Q.U.I.L.T.: A Patchwork of Reflections  |  Kevin Michael DeLuca,
Christine Harold, and Kenneth Rufo ........................................ 69

Collage/Montage as Critical Practice, Or How to “Quilt”/Read
Postmodern Text(ile)s  |  Brian L. Ott, Eric Aoki, and Greg Dickinson ....................................................................... 101

A Stitch in Time: Public Emotionality and the Repertoire of Citizenship  |  Jeffrey A. Bennett ................................................................. 133

From San Francisco to Atlanta and Back Again: Ideologies of Mobility in the AIDS Quilt’s Search for a Homeland  |
Daniel C. Brouwer ........................................................................ 161

PART 3. TRANSFORMATION

Rhetorics of Loss and Living: Adding New Panels to the AIDS
Quilt as an Act of Eulogy  |  Bryant Keith Alexander ......................... 189

Repeated Remembrance: Commemorating the AIDS Quilt and Resuscitating the Mourned Subject  |  Erin J. Rand .................. 229

How to Have History in an Epidemic  |  Kyra Pearson .................. 261

Experiencing the Quilt  |  Charles E. Morris III ............ 299

CONTRIBUTORS ........................................................................... 309