ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Construction in Mumbai, 2012 2
2. Dr. Joshi delivers a lecture on rainwater harvesting in an RSIEA classroom 28
3. Dr. Latoo talks with RSIEA students during a field study visit 32
4. A team of RSIEA students prepare a topographical map of the Pali field study site 54
5. RSIEA Design Studio students explore the Pali project site 62
6. An exhibit-goer ponders a map of Mumbai’s open spaces at the Open Mumbai exhibition 70
7. “City Forests” were highlighted among the many different types of open spaces in Mumbai at the Open Mumbai exhibition 72
8. Entering the Breathing Space exhibition at the Mahalaxmi Racecourse 75
9. Breathing Space exhibit-goers explore signboards about open space in each of Mumbai’s twenty-four Municipal wards 76
10. Looking outward from the edge of the Doongerwadi forest, new construction looms 100
11. Students and faculty on the field study tour of Govardhan Eco-village listening to their guide describe the sustainability features of one of the site’s main buildings 129
12. RSIEA students exploring new construction in one of BCIL’s housing developments outside of Bangalore 132
13. A graduating RSIEA student presents her team’s final Design Studio proposal for an eco-resort at Pali 135