"The Constitution of the People"

Calvert, Robert E.

Published by University Press of Kansas

Calvert, Robert E.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/83993

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2881251
INDEX

Abbot, Philip, 72
Acton, Lord, 87, 88, 89, 107n.2
Adams, Abigail
  influence on John Adams's view of slavery, 21-22 Jefferson's correspondence with, 25 opposition to slave holders, 38 shift in position on slavery, 35
Adams, Charles Francis, 22, 39
Adams, John
  and Calvinism, 32, 34, 36
  and commercial republicanism, 92
  conservatism of, 21, 22
  on constitution and character, 7
  correspondence of with Jefferson, 20, 32, 34
  and moral principles, 7, 32, 39
  philosophic views of, 19, 33-34
  and political institutions, 12, 32, 34
  reformed liberalism of, 32-34, 36
  as "revealing" thinker, 20
  as revolutionary figure, 19
  on "self-determining" power and liberty, 4, 33
  and slavery, 21, 23, 34-37
Adams, John Quincy
  and antislavery movement, 22, 39
  as more democratic than father, 37
Adams, Samuel, 13
American Catholic Bishops, Third Plenary Council of Baltimore (1884), 107
American Dream
  as apolitical, 151, 150
  and civic virtue, 140
  George Bush's conception of, 129, 139, 153n.6
  and individualism, 130
  material conception of, 130, 138, 140
  and political realism, 134, 139, 140
  privatism of, 156n.25
American political system, 139, 142
American revolutionaries, 133 American voter, realist view of and American identity, 135
  as anticconservative, 154n.13
  and common good, 131
  and contemporary political culture, 129, 132, 134
  and a corrupt people, 134, 136, 150
  cynicism of, 150
  as folk wisdom, 132
  historical antecedents of, 132-34
  and individualism, 131-32
  ontological status of, 131-32, 151
  as political philosophy, 132
  rejection of by Puritans and founding generation, 135
  sources of, 135, 156, 137-40
Amis de Noirs, 27
Animists, 87
Anticommunism, 13
Anti-Federalists
  concern for virtue, 5, 67, 151
  fear of centralized power, 68, 151 fear of radical individualism, 68 opposition of to luxury, 16n.38
Anti-Myth, 8, 150
Aquinas, St. Thomas, 88, 102, 112n.30
Arendt, Hannah, 6-7, 42, 71, 91
Aristocracy, 55, 88, 134, 142
Aristotle
  and citizenship, 1
  on constitution and civil society, 3, 10, 152
  and Declaration of Independence, 108n.4
  on property, 108n.6
  and Whig mind, 88
Aristotelian politics, 88
Armed virtue, 72, 76
Augustine, Saint, 5, 70, 71
Authority, 8, 21, 99, 101, 139
Baptists, 87
Beard, Charles A., 8, 100, 146, 149, 150
Bellah, Robert N., 2, 4, 7, 8, 10, 12, 46n.63, 65, 70, 155n.6
Bentham, Jeremy, 135
Benthamism, 150

159
Bentley, Arthur F., 145, 146, 150
Berlin, Isaiah, 25
Berns, Walter, 88, 108n.5
Bill of Rights
and civil society, 67, 125
conservatism of, 72, 114, 116, 119
and governmental action, 114
and individualism, 66, 120
and political action, 118, 121
privatizing tendencies of, 66, 122
and religious liberty, 115
as second text of Constitution, 113
and social change, 117, 118
and social diversity, 115, 125
and tension between unity and diversity, 65
Bloom, Alan, 15n.25
Boesky, Ivan, 59, 135
Bourne, Randolph, 76, 77
Brown, Peter, 70
Buddists, 60, 87
Bureaucracy, 140
Burke, Edmund, 152
Bush, George
and American conservatism, 136
and civic self, 139
Inaugural Address, 153n.6
neo-Progressivism of, 150–52
and New Deal tradition, 157
and political realism, 127, 128, 134, 154n.9
as representative American, 134
republican ideals of, 153n.6
Calvert, Robert E., 2, 3, 4, 8, 46n.63
Calvinism, 39. See also Protestantism; Liberalism, reformed
Capitalism, 86, 95, 108, 107n.1, 142–43
Catholic immigration, 56, 77
Catholics, American, 107
Catholic social thought and American culture, 79
on citizenship, 60–61
on economic superdevelopment, 77
on individualism, 4, 66, 80
on justice, 80, 96
ontology of human person in, 80
and subsidiarity, 11, 80
Checks and balances, 109n.8, 115, 119
Chesteron, G. K., 14
Christianity
and American culture, 72, 86, 137
political themes of, 70, 71, 87
and practical wisdom, 86–87
Christian right, 59
Christians, 87
Cicero, 108n.4
Citizen, the
G. K. Chesteron on, 14
in Greek polis, 1, 69
Alexander Hamilton’s conception of, 141
and national identity, 90
and positive freedom, 33
of Rousseau, 121
as self-interested voter, 137
Elizabeth Cady Stanton on, 73
realist view of, 151
and voluntary associations, 68
Citizens and civic ambivalence, 42
and class division, 99
character of and constitution of people, xi, 10, 152
conflicting interests of, 2 and envy, 95, 100
and natural liberty, 96
and private property, 96
Citizenship
American as reduced to material self-interest, 190
in democracy as incompatible with apolitical individualism, 46n.63 divorce of from common good by Progressives, 144
and individuality, 11
in Plato’s Republic, 1 virtues of and social friendship, 61
Civic ambivalence, 41–42
Civic republicanism, 72, 133. See also Civic virtue Civic self, 138. See also Self
Civic virtue, 135
Anti-Federalists and, 67
as Armed Virtue, 72
chastened version of, 77
as grim collective duty, 82
Progressive realism and, 146, 148
Elizabeth Cady Stanton on, 74
and voluntary associations, 68
Civil religion, 124
Civil society
in antiquity, 70
and Bill of Rights, 114, 116, 118
and Constitution, 7–8, 11, 117
definition of, 67
and detached individual freedom, 8
disarray of, 10
distinguished from state, 3, 10, 67, 125
and founding generation, 6, 7, 67
and Protestantism, 77
public policy in support of, 12, 124
requirement of for democratic politics, 157n.39
and resistance to religious persecution, 115
and secondary associations, 78
and Supreme Court, 114
Tocqueville on and civic education, 12
transformation of, 118
Civil War, 39, 50, 105, 140, 142
Cobden, Richard, 89, 109n.7
Collective action, 118
Commager, Henry Steele, 148, 149
Commerce and agriculture, 94
aristocratic contempt for, 91
and civic culture, 6, 11, 95, 101, 104
diversity and unity of, 99, 105
Enlightenment views of, 92, 101
and federalism, 6, 96, 97, 100
The Federalist and, 93
Framers and, 105
and political forms, 91, 92, 95, 105
and public peace, 6, 101
and wealth, 93, 100
Commercial Republic, 68
Commercial Republicanism
Anglo-Saxon roots of, 86
and Constitution, 94, 103
The Federalist and, 94
Hamilton on, 94
invention and discovery in, 103
Lincoln on, 104
Madison on, 98–102, 104
and morality of wealth, 94
promised benefits of, 86, 94
sources of, 86, 92–98
Common Good
appeal to as rationalization, 9
as authoritarian, 99
and citizenship, 61, 144
and civil society, 77–78
and founding generation, 3–4, 55, 67, 95, 98, 133, 149
and freedom, 4
and pluralism, 48, 50, 60
as problematic in pluralist society, 47
and Progressive era, 75, 144
and public discourse, 58
and radical individualism, 74
and religious toleration, 48 and social change, 79. See also liberalism, reformed; Public good; Public interest Common Law, 85, 89
Commons, John R., 75
Communal absolutism, 52, 59. See also Liberalism, reformed; Pluralism
Communism, 80
Communitarian-individualist debate, 65, 80–81
Communitarianism, 104
Community
Christianity’s new vision of, 70–72
and civic virtue, 68
civil society’s many forms of, 67
and commerce, 105
compatibility of with common good, 51
and federalism, 108n.2, 125
Framers and detachment from, 5
loose use of term in America, 49–50 of memory and hope, 57, 61 requirement of for individuality, 2 Compassion, 154n.9
Congress, U.S., 110n.10, 124
Conscience, Protestant
as democratic or anarchic, 116
as form of knowledge, 115
right of, 33, 73, 115
socializing effects of, 122
Supreme Court as guardian of, 115
voice of, 82
Conscientious objector, 117
Conservatism
of John Adams, 35
of any constitution, 117
of Jefferson’s egalitarianism, 22
as necessary to pluralism, 81–82
neo-Progressive, 150
in Reagan era, 136–37
Constitution, U.S., 88, 89, 90, 94, 104
and Anti-Federalists, 5
bias in favor of individual action, 122
and Bill of Rights, 113, 117
and commercial republicanism, 94
commitment to liberal politics and e pluribus unum, 18
and civil society, 7–8, 10, 11, 67, 117, 125
as design of state, 125, 141, 109n.8
as economic document, 147
and federalism, 6, 107n.2
individuals directly under, 6, 141
and individual rights, 66, 116, 124, 108n.5
made only for moral and religious people, 7
patent clause of, 103, 112n.33
as sacred text of civil religion, 124
and slavery, 49
preamble to and “more perfect union,” 47
and unity and diversity, 47, 65, 122, 105
See also Bill of Rights
Constitutions
St. Thomas Aquinas on, 88
Aristotle on, 3, 10, 108n.6
and character of society and people, xi, 10, 152
as politically defined way of life, 144
Constitutional convention, 28, 89, 92, 106, 110n.10
Cooke, J. W., 25
Cotton gin, 29, 36
Crevecoeur, J. Hector St. John, 102
Crick, Bernard, 144, 155n.24
Critical legal theory, 120
Croly, Herbert, 137, 139
Cromwell, Oliver, 116
Cult of realism, 144
Cults, religious, 128
Cuomo, Mario, 154n.9
Cynicism of Gilded Age, 129
of Charles A. Beard, 149
of Progressive realism, 149-50

Declaration of Independence, 18, 22, 27, 88, 103, 108n.4

Democracy, 41, 68, 88
and American liberalism, 2, 41-42
as American tradition, 141-42
"bourgeois," 103
and citizenship, 11, 144, 155n.24
and civil society, 11, 74, 79-81
classical conception of, 69, 97
commerce and, 95, 105
and Constitution, 107n.2, 124
and Hamiltonian state system, 142-43
Jefferson and, 21, 155n.25
Lincoln belief in, 142
as political way of life, 144-45
and Progressivism, 150
prospects of American, 130-31
scientific realism and, 144
state action in service of, 12, 124
Tocqueville's fears for, 3, 5, 12, 124
and subsidiarity, 81

Democracy in America (Alexis de Tocqueville), 52, 92, 134

Democrat, traditional American, 8, 138-39, 146

Democratic capitalism, 95, 144

Democratic party, 139, 142

Democratic politics, 123-24

Descartes, René, 24, 134

Detachment, 5-6, 57

Dewey, John, 11, 57-58, 76, 144, 155n.24

Dignity
and impersonality of political life, 10
and institutions, 87
and liberal moral code, 40
and moral purpose, 95
as norm governing social life, 61
and slave emancipation, 38
and social equality, 138

Dispositions, 20

Diversity
and Bill of Rights, 118
bipolar liberalism as source of, 19
and common good, 60-61, 99
and commercial republicanism, 86, 98-100, 102, 105
and constitutional order, xi, 87, 97, 98, 100
of nations, 90
and Progressive era, 75, 76, 145
and role of religious groups, 60
See also Unity; Unity and Diversity

Dooley, Mr. See Dunne, Finley Peter

Douglas, Stephen A., 14n.11, 48

Dukakis, Michael, 154n.11

Dunne, Finley Peter (Mr. Dooley), 140-41

Economic Interpretation of the Constitution of the United States, An (Charles A. Beard), 147

"Economic Justice for All" (Pastoral Letter of American Catholic Bishops), 60, 80

Economics profession, 156n.27

Education, 26, 55, 103
civic, 5, 33
moral and religious, 7
republican, 133
of slaves, 38

Elshtain, Jean Bethke, 2, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14n.10

Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 55-56, 72

Empiricism, 91

Engles, Friedrich, 146

Enlightenment, 24-25, 26, 64-65, 77, 135

Envy, 85, 90-96

Epicurus, 7

E pluribus unum, 41, 98, 107
original meaning of, 2, 47, 51-52

Equality
John Adams and, 37, 38
as antidote for individualism and relativism, 13
G. K. Chesterton on, 14
Christianity and, 70
as essential to liberal politics, 18
Jefferson and, 21, 26, 27, 30, 31
Madison on, 95
social, 138, 142
See also Inequality

Family, 129. See also Civil society

Federalism, 108n.2, 125. See also E pluribus unum

Federalist, The (Hamilton, Madison, Jay), 5, 92, 94
Second, 85
Ninth, 95, 100, 109n.8
Tenth, 5, 93, 98, 100, 108n.6, 149
Eleventh, 93, 100
Twelfth, 95, 100
Fourteenth, 105
Fifty-first, 99

Federalists, 65, 67

Ferguson, Adam, 92

Ferraro, Geraldine, 128, 129, 151, 154n.9

Foreign policy, 13

Framers
and American dream, 150
cultural unity of, 88
and civic virtue, 5-7, 99
and commerce, 100, 105
and common law, 85, 89
as communitarians, 105
on constitution and character, 151
detachment and civil society, 6
as Enlightenment figures, 64, 65, 93
on good will and political intelligence, 113 and novus ordo seclorum, 64, 89
originality of, 86, 89, 90, 91, 105
and powerful government, 7, 113, 141 principles of, 89
and private property, 95, 100
Progressive realist view of, 141-42, 147
and Providence, 107
rejection of medieval corporatism, 64
Franklin, Benjamin, 15n.21, 90

Freedom
as American ideal, 72-73, 129, 138
and Catholic social thought, 80
and Christianity, 4, 71-72, 87 dangers to of affluence, 12
democracy, 78, 81
as detachment, privacy, separation, 8, 72-74, 119
Framers on, 89, 94-96
and governmental action, 119-20
humanist liberal conception of, 25-31
"hollow shell of," 58
and inequality, 102
and Judaism, 87
negative, 25, 29, 33
and pluralism, 81
as political principle, 8, 23
positive, 33, 37
and private property, 96, 102
reformed liberal conception of, 32-38
religious, 28, 54, 85
and right of conscience, 33, 73, 115
and social obligations, 78, 121
Friedrich, Carl J., 145

Gamwell, Franklin, 19
Gilded Age, 129
Goldman, Eric, 16n.27
Government, 6, 98, 117, 145
Governmental action, 119
Great Depression, 137, 140
Greenstone, J. David, 2, 3, 4, 12, 62n.5, 155n.25
Group solidarities, 124

Habits of the Heart (Robert N. Bellah et al.), 50, 59

Hamilton, Alexander
on commerce, 15n.16, 100
and federalism, 6, 141
on "middling" classes, 93-94
and national state system, 141-42
and political power, 7
on prosperity and liberty, 94
social and economic vision of, 26
Hindus, 87
Hirshman, Albert O., 94, 118
Hobbes, Thomas, 15n.16, 25, 48, 155n.13
Hollenbach, David, 79, 80

Homestead Act, 86, 103
Hoover, Herbert, 136-37
House of Commons, 88
House of Representatives, U.S., 108n.5
Housing and Urban Development scandal, 135

Human nature
Christianity and Judaism on, 87
and factions, 98
as theoretical construct, 132, 133, 135, 150
Hume, David, 92, 93, 101, 105, 108n.6, 152
Hutchinson, Anne, 72

Immigrants, 49, 56, 75, 77, 137

Individual
and Catholic social thought, 78-81
and citizens, 11, 131, 144
in Christianity, 4, 66, 70-74, 76, 115, 138
and civic virtue, 7, 72
and civil society, 10, 69, 122-23
and commerce, 96, 101
and community, 5
in design of Constitution, 6 Enlightenment conception of, 155
in humanist liberalism, 18-19, 24-26, 27, 28, 31, 33, 40
and political societies, 1, 3
post-Protestant and claims to freedom, 119
and Progressive realism, 146
in reformed liberalism, 32-33, 34, 36, 37-38, 40 rights-bearing, 115, 120, 124, 125
and social individuality, 72
unattached, 3, 57, 59, 60, 72-74, 119
Individual action, 118-19

Individualism
American, as derived from Locke, 3
in Catholic social thought, 80-81
and commerce, 104
and democratic citizenship, 46n.63
disintegrative effects of, 56, 68, 77
distinguished from dissociation, 124 distinguished from individuality, 69, 80 equality as antidote for, 15 racial prejudice and exclusivity of, 52
as shallow pluralism, 48
as spurious diversity, 18
of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, 72-74
Tocqueville on, 3, 68, 150, 132, 152n.5
types of, 4, 8, 153n.6, 54, 55, 57, 58, 65, 77, 96

Individuality
American tradition of, 69
as antithetical to individualism, 4
Christian ideal of, 72
and Framers, 89
in humanist liberalism, 42
and private property, 102
Inequality
Framers' acceptance of, 9, 98–99, 102
Jefferson and racial, 51
and Progressive era, 151
See also Equality
Indians, American, 50, 52–54
Insider trading scandal, 59
Intellectuals, detached, 60, 143
Interest group liberalism, 138
Jackson, Andrew, 138
Jacksonianism, 142
Jay, John, 85
Jefferson, Thomas, 12, 105, 62n.10, 112n.32
agrarian ideal of, 141
and ambivalence about public and private life, 7, 25
on American Whigs, 88, 108n.4
conservatism of, 22
correspondence with Adams of, 20, 32, 34
democratic principles of, 21, 27, 144, 155n.25 disposition to compromise of, 28, 42
as Enlightenment figure, 24–31, 55–54, 64
humanist liberalism of, 24–26, 29–30 philosophic materialism of, 26, 50
relativistic utilitarianism of, 25, 50 and religion, 7, 54–55, 62n.12
as "revealing" thinker, 20
as revolutionary figure, 19
and slavery, 22–23, 26–51, 37, 52
as source of apolitical individualism, 46n.63
and traditional American Indian culture, 53–54
Jesus, 7, 55, 61
Jews, 60, 87, 107, 115
John of Salisbury, 64
John Paul II, 77–78, 111n.30
Johnson, Samuel, 94
Johnson, William, 110n.10
Judaism, 86–87
Judicial review, 114
Justice
as commitment of New Deal, 157, 139
and institutionalized compassion, 154n.9
as interest of stronger, 69
as participation, 80
and Preamble to Constitution, 121–22
private property and, 96, 102
and Progressive realism, 9, 150
Kelman, Steven, 156n.27
Kitto, H. D. F., 1, 2, 11
Komonchak, Joseph A., 80
Kuttner, Robert, 156n.27
Lapham, Lewis, 11
Lasswell, Harold, 149
Lerner, Ralph, 92, 101
Letter Concerning Toleration (John Locke), 48
Liberalism
American conservatism as variant of, 136, 155n.13
bipolar as source of civic ambivalence, 19
individualistic of Jefferson, 55 interest group of, 138 humanist, 18–29, 24–32, 40–42, 151. See also Jefferson, Thomas reformed, 19–20, 32–42, 151. See also Adams, John slavery and bipolarity of, 23
standard theory of American, 18, 19, 42
"super" of Roberto Unger, 120
welfare-state, 136
Life-style enclave, 50
Lincoln, Abraham
and commercial republicanism, 86, 103–4, 112n.53
debate with Douglas, 48–49
on liberty and union, 104, 105
on necessity of political unity, 4
and principle of free labor, 107n.1
and Progressive idealism, 142
in reformed liberal tradition, 41
Lippmann, Walter, 58, 59, 75
Locke, John, 3, 14n.11, 24, 48, 62n.1, 111n.29
Lowell, A. Lawrence, 127, 148
Lowi, Theodore, 138
Machiavelli, Niccolo, 72, 139, 152
MacIntyre, Alasdair, 58
Madison, James, 3, 6, 7, 64
and commercial republicanism, 91–93, 95–102, 104–7
and Constitutional Convention, 106, 110n.10
on factions, 5, 95, 99, 149
on human reason, 5–6, 15n.13
and inequality, 95, 98, 110n.18
originality of, 105–7
and problem of envy, 86, 90–96
and public good, 96, 97–99
and republican virtue, 7, 133, 148–49, 151
on size of republic, 97, 98, 108n.6
Majority tyranny
American dream and, 150, 151–52
commercial republicanism as cure for, 86, 99–100, 105
democratic politics as barrier to, 157n.39
Tocqueville on, 68, 150, 151–52, 157n.39
Mannheim, Karl, 16n.27
Mansbridge, Jane J., 155n.7
Marbury v. Madison, 114
Index

Maritain, Jacques, 90, 110n.9
Marx, Karl, 90, 103, 142–43, 146
Mass media, 9
Meese, Edwin, 135
Meilander, Gilbert, 70
Mercantilism, 86, 105
Methodists, 87
Meyers, Marvin, 108n.6
Michnik, Adam, 81–82
Mill, John Stuart, 111n.29
“Model of Christian Charity” (John Winthrop), 132, 154n.11
Monarchy, 88
Montesquieu
  on commercial republicanism, 86, 92–94, 101
  on confederate government, 108n.6
  on constitution and character, 132
  republicanism of, 133
Montfort, Simon de, 88
Morrill Act, 86, 103
Murray, John Courtney, 58–59
Myrdal, Gunnar, 136
Nationalism, 51
National purpose, 139
Natural liberty, 89. See also Freedom
Nature and Cause of the Wealth of Nations (Adam Smith), 93, 103
New Deal, 137–41, 151
New Republic, 75
Niebuhr, Reinhold, 4, 60
Nixon, Richard M., 58
Normandy of 1920s, 129
North, Oliver, 59
Notes on Virginia (Thomas Jefferson), 22, 31
Novak, Michael, 2, 5, 6, 9, 11, 158n.6
Old Regime, 26
Paine, Thomas, xi, 152
Parrington, Vernon, 100
Patriotism
  and Charles A. Beard, 146–47, 149
  distinguished from nationalism, 51
  Adlai Stevenson on, 2
  of traditional American Democrat, 137, 139, 147
Pentagon scandal, 135
People, constitution of, xi, 151–52
Pluralism
  and common good, 48
  communalist or exclusive, 10, 49–50
  contemporary concern for, 47, 77, 80, 105
  deep, 60
  and freedom, 81–82
  shallow or individualistic, 48
  as term for diversity, 47
See also Liberalism, humanist; Liberalism, reformed
Plutocrats, 142
Pocketbook, 128–29, 152
Pocketbook voter. See American voter, realist view of Policraticus (John of Salisbury), 64
Poli, 1, 69, 70
Political aphonia, 8
Political economy
  and politics, 91
  Alexander Hamilton and, 141, 155n.21
  Adam Smith and, 93, 103, 112n.52
Political legitimacy, 137, 140
Political parties, 12, 123, 142
Political realism
in American political culture, 130–35
in American political science, 144–46, 149, 156n.27
American precedents for, 129–30
and Charles A. Beard, 146–49
as crude political philosophy, 132
and cynicism, 129, 149
and economic self-interest, 130, 144, 146–49
epistemology of, 146
as folk wisdom, 132
ideological neutrality of, 129, 136
ontology of, 131, 132, 150
in New Deal, 137, 139–40
in 1984 campaign, 128–29
as non-partisan, 129, 136
and norms of citizenship, 144–46, 148–50, 152 Progressivism and, 139–40, 143–52
reductionism of, 144, 150
See also Progressive realism
Political science, 146, 156n.27
Political society, 1, 2
Politics
  of Adams family, 37
American liberal, 18
democratic, 23, 27, 28, 124
humanist liberal of Jefferson, 29
Jacksonian revolution in, 37
liberalism and cleavages in, 18, 20, 41
as morally revolting to Progressives, 145
new science of, 89–91, 98, 105, 107
old science of, 91, 107
paradoxes and pluralities of, 2–5, 8–12, 18–19, 41–45
reformed liberal of Adams, 41
shift of from power to wealth, 94
as sphere of speech and deliberation, 9 Power
  constitutional, 124
diversity in, 118
lack of in excluded groups, 151
liberty as self-determining, 83 Power, continued
of national government and bureaucratic state, 115-14, 120, 140-43
as preoccupation of political realism, 151 private concentrations of and public government, 9
republican strictures against, 68, 144
science and technology as, 140
Practical wisdom, 86
Preamble to Constitution, 47, 121-22
Privacy, 119, 120, 121
Privatization of civil society, 10, 121
Presidency, 138, 141
Presidential campaign of 1984, 127-28
Progress, 87, 90, 100
of arts and sciences, 103
in American colonies, 109n.7
idea of and Progressivism, 75, 140-43, 146, 148, 150, 151
Jefferson as believer in, 21, 30, 54-55
Progressive crusaders. See Progressive realism; Progressive reformers
Progressive era, 66, 140-43
Progressive realism
New Deal and, 140
and norms of democratic citizenship, 143, 144, 145, 150, 155n.24
"people" as faction in, 151
Progressive reformers alienation of from government and politics, 144-45
failure of to control private and public power, 9
and generic idea of progress, 141
nationalizing aims of, 75
and primitive view of American past, 142
Protestant religiosity of, 141, 145
Promise of American Life (Herbert Croly), 138. See also American Dream
Property, 87, 95, 98, 99, 100, 102
Aquinas on, 112n.30
Aristotle on, 108n.6
and Catholic social thought, 96
in early liberalism, 115-17
and factions, 95, 99
and individuality, justice, and common good, 102 inequality and, 98, 110n.18
intellectual, 96
and limitation of state power, 96
Locke on, 111n.29
Mill on, 111n.29
and rights, 90, 95, 96, 98, 102
Prosperity, 95, 94, 96, 100, 137
Protestantism, 116, 121, 141
Protestant myth, 153n.8
Protestant self, 120-21
Providence, 85, 90, 91, 107, 130
Provincialism, 57
Public-choice theory, 156
Public good, 96-99, 102, 105. See also Common good Public interest, 4, 48, 151. See also Common good Public Man, Private Woman (Jean Bethke Elshtain), 82
Public philosophy, 13, 130, 139, 146
Public service, Adams and Jefferson on, 25,
33, 37
Puritanism
and early republicanism, 153n.6
material aspirations of, 137
and reformed liberalism, 32-41
Pursuit of happiness, 25, 27, 100, 155n.25
Rational-choice theory, 136
Rationality, 24-26, 29
Reagan, Ronald, 59, 128
Realism. See Political realism
Relativism, 13, 15n.25, 25, 43
Religion
John Adams and, 32, 36
community-forming capacity of, 4, 7, 51, 55, 60
and cultural diversity, 19, 60
Thomas Jefferson and, 54-55
and individual freedom, 48, 55, 116
science as substitute for in Progressive era, 140
See also Catholic social thought; Christianity; Protestantism Republic (Plato), 1
Republicanism, 92, 91-92, 105, 151, 153n.6
Republican party, 142
Republican virtue, 133. See also Civic virtue Revolution, American, 5, 107
Rhodes, James, 128, 134
Right of conscience, 33, 115 Rights
as basis of politics, 11
humanist liberalism and, 25-28, 30-31
minority and religious, 97, 99
to nonconformity and dissidence, 115 property, 95, 96, 102, 110n.20, 115-17
protection of, 97, 99, 105, 114-17
and reformed liberalism, 33
and republicanism, 105
subversive logic of, 117
theory, 113
Universal Declaration of Human, 90
Roelofs, H. Mark, 153n.6
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 137, 138, 139
Rossiter, Clinton, 138
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 72, 121, 123, 152,
154n.9
Royce, Josiah, 12, 56-57, 59
Rush, Benjamin, 92
Sandel, Michael, 15n.12, 116
Sartre, Jean-Paul, 125
Savings and loan scandal, 135
Science, 51, 103, 140
Second Great Awakening, 36-37
Self
unencumbered of liberal theory, 116, 119
Self-interest
as explanation in politics, 129, 155n.7
and political realism, 144-46
and Progressive view of Framers, 147-49
in rational-choice theory
Tocqueville and, 68, 150
Selfishness
as issue in 1984 campaign, 128
Tocqueville on, 152n.5
majoritarian as public philosophy, 139
and unmoderated humanist liberalism, 42-43
Self-ownership, Lockean, 115
Self-possession, moral of early Protestantism, 116
Self Reliance (Ralph Waldo Emerson), 56
Senate, U.S., 108n.5
Sidney, Algernon, 108n.4
Single-family households, 123
Slave revolts, 29
Slavery
and American bipolar liberalism, 20-24
and Constitution, 49
and humanist liberalism, 29-32
and Lincoln, 4, 142
and reformed liberalism, 37-40
Smith, Adam, 79, 89, 101, 103, 112n.32
on American colonies, 109n.7
and American founders, 28, 93, 105
and commercial republicanism, 92, 93
Socialism, 90, 100
Socrates, 5-6
Special interests, 128
as concept of Progressive era, 139-40, 151
"Speech to the General Court" (John Winthrop), 152
Spirit of the Laws (Montesquieu), 108n.6
Stanton, Elizabeth Cady, 73-74
State
as danger to civil society, 69
as distinguished from civil society, 3, 10, 67
as machinery for safety and convenience, 1
national unity and, 66
Progressive political science on, 146
Statists, 67, 74, 79
Statue of Liberty, 86, 90
Stevenson, Adlai, 2
Subsidiarity, 11, 80-81
Sumner, William Graham, 142-43
Super-liberalism, 120
Supreme Court, 16n.35, 108n.5, 125
and creation of new rights, 119, 124
as defender of social status quo, 117
and enforcement of Bill of Rights, 124
as guardian of Protestant conscience, 115
power of and civil society, 114
Taylor, John, 33
Technology, 140
Thinking Revolutionary, The (Ralph Lerner), 92
Thomas, W. I., 127
Thoreau, Henry David, 72
Tinder, Glenn, 4, 66, 70, 71
Tocqueville, Alexis de, 78, 79, 92, 94
admiration of for American commerce, 95, 101, 105 admiration of for participant politics, 3
on American dream and majority tyranny, 130, 151
on American individualism, 3, 68, 132, 157n.39
and American mind, 134
on aristocracy of manufacturers, 142
on constitution and character, 151
fear of democratic despotism, 68, 130
and subsidiarity, 81
on three races in America, 52
Tradition, 59, 65, 81
Transcendentalism, 32
Trusts, 151
Unger, Roberto, 120, 121
Union, 97, 100, 104, 105, 107n.2
Unitarianism, 56, 55
United Nations, 90
United States, Great Seal of, 90
Unity
as concern of Framers, 47, 88, 105-6
political obscured by conflicting interests, 2
Progressives and, 74-76
as ultimate idea, 2
See also Diversity; Unity and diversity Unity and diversity, coexistence of, 64
communitarian and individualist debate over, 65
tension between in primary documents, 65, 115, 118
See also Diversity; Unity
Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 90
Urban bosses, 142
Utilitarianism, relativistic, 30
Vietnam War, 58
Virginia, University of, 103
Voluntary associations, 67, 78, 87
Wagner Act, 12, 124
Wall Street Journal, 48
Index

Walzer, Michael, 2, 4, 8, 11, 12, 66, 67, 70, 46n.63
Way of life, 10, 11, 142, 143. See also Aristotle; Constitutions Wealth, 92, 94, 96, 103
   national, 86–87, 91, 93, 103
Whiggism, 133
Whigs, 88, 108n.4
Whose Keeper? Social Science and Moral Obligation (Alan Wolfe), 78
Will, George, 127

Williams, Roger, 72
Wills, Garry, 93
Wilson, Woodrow, 75
Winthrop, John, 13, 132
Wolfe, Alan, 78, 79
Wolin, Sheldon S., 70, 74, 155n.21
Wood, Gordon, 147
World War I, 74, 75, 84n.22
World War II, 97
Xenophobia, 13, 76