Kansas Populism

Clanton, O. Gene

Published by University Press of Kansas

Clanton, O. Gene.
Kansas Populism: Ideas and Men.

⇒ For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/81133
INDEX

Adams, Charles Francis, 5

Advocate, The (Topeka), publishes antireform letter, 1; mentioned, 104, 112, 118; points up a basic difference between Populists and Republicans, 288n

Agricultural organizations, growth and importance of, 49-50

Agriculture, mechanization and commercialization of, 12-13; importance of wheat and corn in Kansas, 19-20

Allen, Noah, 163, 270n

Allen, Stephen H., 119

Allen, W. N., 270n

Anthony, George T., attacks Populist party, 111; mentioned, 152

Anthony, Susan B., 155.

Appeal to Reason, growth of, 218

Arnold, James. See Lease, Mary E.

Artz, A. A., controversy involving, 138, 281n

Baker, William, biographical sketch and his campaign for congress in 1890, 82; renominated, 116; wins congressional race, 127; survives the Republican landslide of 1894, 167; mentioned, 236, 276n

Barber County, corruption therein, 23

Barr, Elizabeth N., 73

Beck, 158, 159

Bennington, Wesley H., 194, 207; attacks fusion, 210; 237n, 270n, 286n

Benson, Lee, 89

Bestor, Arthur, on individualism, 15

Biddle, W. H., 119; 270n, 273n

Blanc, Louis, mentioned in speech, 108

Botkin, Jeremiah, religious views of, 67; supports intervention in Cuba, 211-12; anti-imperialism of, 213-14; mentioned, 168, 237, 287n

Boyle, Louis C., 189

Breidenthal, John W., biographical sketch of, 121; establishes lecture bureau, 125; arrested on charges of violating state banking laws, 126; plan of, for reestablishing the reform initiative, 220-21; his campaign for governor, 225-26; comments of following his defeat of 1900, 227; the progressive banker, 228; mentioned, 118, 122, 139, 145, 152, 162, 167, 188, 195, 276n, 277n, 292n, 297n, 300n, 301n

Broderick, Case, 128

Brown, W. F. ("Ironjaw"), 154

Brown, W. L., 156

Bryan, William Jennings, reference to, 186; mentioned, 185, 210, 215, 226

Bush, W. E., 189

Butler, Thomas H., 270n

Cain, Thomas, 183

Capper, Arthur, 237

Carey, Mayor, 117

Carnegie, Andrew, mentioned, 8, 11

Carroll, Ed, 116, 123, 277n

Chapman Catt, Mrs. Carrie Lane, 155

Chase, Harold, 197

Chase, S. W., Populist state chairman admonishes party members, 91; mentioned, 117

Clemens, Gaspar C., his background and position on the eve of revolt, 39-42; challenges the conventional wisdom, 70; speaks out against the free silver move, 193-94; raises the possibility that insurgents may have blown up the Maine, 211; leaves the Populist party to work for the socialist cause, 217-18; heads the Socialist ticket in Kansas, 223; remark of, concerning the old-party campaign of 1900, 225; mentioned, 236, 293n, 297n, 299n

Cleveland, Grover, mentioned, 140, 146, 163, 175, 180
Close, Fred J., nominated for congress, 116; loses congressional race, 128; biographical sketch of, 275n; mentioned, 120, 123, 277n

Clover, Benjamin H., Alliance activities of, 51; issues circular letter, 54; calls for a meeting of county Alliance presidents, 55; promotes organization of a state party apparatus, 56; quoted relative to the possible defeat of Senator Ingalls, 58; biographical sketch of, 58; congressional campaign of, 80; failure to win renomination, 116; deserts Populist camp, 166; concerning his failure to win renomination, 276n; mentioned, 59, 81, 102, 104, 270n

Cochran, Thomas C., and Miller, William, 5

Coin's Financial School, 178, 182

Comanche County, corrupt scheme in connection with the origin of, 23

Coons, J. B., offers Populist colleagues some advice, 112

Corning, Cyrus, sets up shop in Topeka, 140-41; comment on Populist defeat of 1894, 168; mentioned, 159, 162, 166, 194, 281n, 286n

Costigan, W. J., comment of, 204; mentioned, 157, 292n

Crédit Mobilier, 14

Crossan, W. B., 294n

Curtis, Charles, 128

Dalton gang, killing of, injected into 1892 campaign, 127

Daniels, Percy, his background and position on the eve of revolt, 42-45; challenges Senator Ingalls, 43-44; nominated for lieutenant governor, 119; why he felt the Populist party had failed, 219-20; mentioned, 133, 163, 215, 236

Darwin, Charles, 9

Davis, John, his background and position on the eve of the revolt, 35-36; his congressional campaign of 1890, 80; mentioned, 104, 127, 167, 236, 270n, 276n

Debs, Eugene V., speech of, in Topeka, 218-19

Democratic party, relative to the use of national power to control industry, 17

De Santis, Vincent P., on Republican party strength, 7

Dester, Chester M., 71

Diggs, Annie L., a proponent of the Social Gospel, 67; comment on Mrs. Lease's voice, 74; biographical sketch of, and her role in the 1890 campaign, 78-80; challenges opponent of suffrage, 94-95; comments on the Cincinnati conference, 100; her effort in behalf of woman suffrage at the 1894 state convention, 160-61; suggests caution in the Cuban crisis, 211; reconciles herself with fusion, 217; her position in the 1900 campaign, 226; comment of, regarding Populist congressional delegations, 233; position of, in the progressive era, 234; her campaign style, 266n; mentioned, 53, 93, 104, 156, 158, 160, 270n, 299n, 302n

Disputed presidential election of 1876, special import of, 6

Donnelly, Ignatius, comment of, 187; mentioned, 98, 113, 123, 272n

Doolittle, John S., 118

Doster, Frank, exemplification of a Populist trait, 69; biographical sketch of, and a significant address by, 106-10; champions woman suffrage, 158-59; reference to, in comment by Annie Diggs, 234; his response to progressivism, 239-41; mentioned, 70, 118, 155, 165, 186, 188, 304n

Douglass, George L., mentioned, 122, 280n

Drew, Daniel, 14

Dumbauid, Levi, mentioned, 103, 272n, 273n

Dunsmore, John M., his religious views, 66; his explanation of the difference between Bryanism and Populism, 216-17; mentioned, 155, 156, 160, 237
Earle, Lucien, 110
Elder, Peter Percival, biographical sketch of, and his fight against woman suffrage, 93-94; his effort against woman suffrage before the 1894 state convention, 161-62; mentioned, 118, 156, 158, 160, 237, 270n, 272n
Ely, Richard T., 10
Evans, Captain, 120
Fairchild, George T., 205
Farrelly, Hugh, 294-95n
Field, General James G., 124
Fields, Frank, 295n, 296n
Fisk, Jim, 14
Foster, B. F., 60
Fourteenth Amendment, 6
Free individual, concept of, 4; elaboration thereof in the Gospel of Wealth, 8; lends itself to the protection of corporate enterprise, 6
Free silver, its rise to primary importance in Kansas politics, 175-83; mentioned, 41, 60, 104, 186, 190, 192-93, 197
French, J. B., 290n
Frye, R. B., 270n
Funston, Colonel Frederick, 212, 298n
Gabriel, Ralph H., quoted, 8
Gaines, Henry Newton, 119
Garland, Hamlin, his portrait of Jerry Simpson, 84; addresses the 1894 state Populist convention, 163
George, Henry, mentioned, 10; influence on Jerry Simpson, 84
Gill, S. H., 182
Gilruth, T. W., 270n, 271n
Godkin, Edwin L., comment of, 22
Goodner, Reverend, a political prayer by, 285n
Gospel of Wealth, explanation of, 8; blended with social Darwinism, 11; in relationship to reform, 17; Populist leaders critical of, 67; mentioned, 68
Gould, Jay, 14
Grant, General Ulysses S., 6
Great American Desert, myth refuted, 25
Gresham, Walter Q., 124, 277n
Hallowell, James R., Simpson's opponent in 1890, 85-87; reference to sobriquet of, 267n
Hanna, George, 202, 295n, 296n
Harrington, Grant Wood, position of regarding the Populist party, 228-29; mentioned, 236-37, 295n
Harrington, Wynne Powers, a revealing letter by, 228-29
Harris, William A., nominated for congress, 119-20; wins congressional race, 127; defeated in bid for reelection, 167; wins senatorial contest, 200; the ex-senator's progressive stand, 237; mentioned, 116, 188, 202, 203, 274n, 275n, 276n, 295n; biographical sketch of, 275n
Harrison, Benjamin, 124
Harvey, Alexander M., mentioned, 189, 212
Harvey, W. H., 1/8
Hayes, Rutherford, 3
Haymarket Square, violence of, mentioned relative to Kansas, 35
Hays, Samuel P., on the changes in agriculture, 13
Heffebower, David, 189
Henderson, Ben S., advocacy of woman suffrage by, 154, 157, 162; fights Lewelling's reelection bid, 166; attack on the Leedy administration, 210; mentioned, 286n
Hicks, John D., comment on Alliance demands, 51
Hoch, Ed, mentioned, 147, 277n; comment of, 283n
Hodges, George, 237
Hofstadter, Richard, quoted relative to social Darwinism, 10; comment regarding the effect of Spencerian thought on reform, 16
Holden, James D., advocates selective collectivist methods, 47-48; mentioned, 104
Homestead Act, 14
House of Morgan, 176
Householder, Moses, 202, 296n
Hudson, Mrs. Eliza, 159
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Reference Information</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Hudson, J. K.</td>
<td>his 1890 editorial campaign against the Populists, 87; offers some words of encouragement to a shaken party, 88; comment on Lewelling's inaugural address, 131; raises boodle charges, 139; his personal campaign against Simpson, 277-78n; mentioned, 126, 127, 153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>King, S. S.</td>
<td>116, 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kirkland, Edward C.</td>
<td>comment of, regarding Spencerian ideas, 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LaFollette, Robert</td>
<td>mentioned in quote, 240</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Laissez faire</td>
<td>challenged, 3; ambiguity of, 9; mentioned relative to reform and reformers, 15; the Republican position, according to W. A. White, 196</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Landis, Harry S.</td>
<td>207-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lane, James H.</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lappin, Samuel</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lassalle, Ferdinand</td>
<td>mentioned, 226</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lathrop, James</td>
<td>104, 270n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Laybourn, J. W.</td>
<td>277n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learnard, O. E.</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lease, Mary Elizabeth</td>
<td>comment of, 66; biographical sketch and her role in the 1890 campaign and her role in the campaign, 73-78; speaks out against fusion, 114; at the Omaha convention, 124; her war against the Lewelling administration, 142-46; her activities between 1896 and 1900, 224-25; her response to progressivism, 238-39; a physical description, 265n; anecdote concerning, 266n; the death of her father and brothers, 282n; her James Arnold manuscript, 282n; erratic course of, 283n; mentioned, 104, 156, 162, 270n, 296n, 303n, 303n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leedy, John W.</td>
<td>biographical sketch, 188; dissension during his administration, 207-11; supports the Spanish-American War, 212; his handling of the Kansas effort in the Spanish-American War, 212-13; renomination of, 214; summons special legislative session, 215; concerning his oratory, 293-94n; mentioned, 188, 197, 202, 210, 211, 222, 236, 296n, 297n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Legate, James F.</td>
<td>revelations of, 139; his reputation in Kansas, 281n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas, background of</td>
<td>to Populist protest, 18-32; corruption, incidents of, 24; third-party activities before 1890, 26-27; indebtedness, 28; impact of an economic collapse therein, 28-31; analysis of five legislatures, 88-89, 91-95, 131-36, 136-37, 173, 198-99, 201-5, 268-69n, 287-88n, 294n, 298-99n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas Day Club</td>
<td>mentioned, 172, 175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas Farmer</td>
<td>54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas Populist League</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas Reform Press Assoc.</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas State Agricultural College, controversy involving</td>
<td>205-6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kavanaugh, Hugh</td>
<td>113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kibbe, William</td>
<td>54</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
INDEX

327

Lewelling, L. D., his address at the 1892 Populist state convention, 117; victory of, 128; his background and his inaugural address, 129-31; the "Tramp Circular," 148-49; address at Huron Place, 164; vote of in 1894, 168; speaks out against bribery charges, 208; statement of, regarding trusts, 221-22; supports the candidacy of Clemens on the Socialist ticket, 223-24; concerning his nomination in 1892, 275n; biographical sketch, 278n; mentioned, 125, 134, 135, 138, 141, 144, 152, 163, 186, 188, 190, 197, 205, 207, 210, 215, 220, 277n, 280n, 283n, 284n, 292n, 296n, 301

Lincoln, Abraham, 105

Little, John T., 119, 167, 276n

Lloyd, Henry D., mentioned, 10, 177

Looking Backward, 2000-1887, 81

M’Call, B. B., speech of, 172, 175

McCormick, Mrs. Fanny, 60

McCray, David Owen, 145, 208

 McGrath, Frank, state Alliance leader resists third-party activity, 102-3; mentioned, 271n, 273n

McKay, George Washington, 207

McKinley, William, mentioned, 185, 190, 196

McLallin, Dr. Stephen, leads the way in the call for third-party action, 53; quoted relative to the origin of the People’s party, 55; an outspoken critic of social Darwinism, 67; persuades Annie Diggs to join his editorial staff, 79; comment on Corning, 141; name appears in Lease note, 145; on socialism, 147; fights the move to make silver the issue, 176; retires as editor, 179; mentioned, 54, 93, 104, 114, 118, 177, 218, 270n, 275n, 294n

McLallin, Mrs. M. H., 270n

Malin, James C., comment of relative to the meaning of the 1890 election, 103; on the appeal of the silver issue in Kansas, 190

Marshall, William V., champions competition and opposes the cooperative movement, 46-47; mentioned, 71-72

Martin, John, encourages Democrats to support the Populist ticket, 122; mentioned, 119, 125, 133

Martin, Governor John A., remark of, 35; mentioned, 107

Marx, Karl, mentioned in speech, 108; mentioned in statement by Annie Diggs, 226

Maxson, P. B., 270n

Midland Hotel Conference, 115

Mill, John Stuart, mentioned in speech, 108

Miller, G. E., 158

Miller, Raymond, comment of relative to Kansas mortgages, 28

Miller, Sol, comment of, 110; his reaction to the 1896 Populist national convention, 189-90; on the influence of railroads in Kansas, 260n; mentioned, 122, 126, 277n

Mitchell, Charles F., 182

Moore, H. L., 116, 122, 127

Morrill Act, 14

Morrill, E. N., strikes a keynote for his administration, 170; mentioned, 122, 151, 152, 168, 190, 210

Morris, I. M., 51

Morris, W. H., 189

Murdock, Marshall, blasts the Kansas legislature, 52

Murdock, Victor, on why Simpson came out West, 83; mentioned, 236

National Citizens’ Industrial Alliance, organization of, 97

New Freedom, mentioned in relationship to a Populist factional position, 71, 72

New Nationalism, mentioned in relationship to a Populist factional position, 71

New York Sun, comments of, 110-11

North American Review, reference to, 5, 8

Norton, Colonel, mentioned, 98
Ocala, Alliance meeting of, 96
Origin of Species, 9
Osage City (Kansas), voting patterns of, 290n
Osage County (Kansas), analysis of the voting patterns therein, 180-83
Osborn, Russell Scott, comment of, 141; mentioned, 60, 119, 131-32, 163, 167, 272n
Otis, John Grant, comment on religion, 66; biographical sketch and his campaign for congress in 1890, 80-81; quoted with respect to the meaning of Populism, 105; mentioned, 104, 115, 128, 159, 162, 236, 274-75n, 290n
Overmeyer, David, reveals an alleged fusion deal, 115; mentioned, 119, 276n

Parlington, Vernon L., interpretation of, 2
Peck, George R., 143, 280n
Peffer, William Alfred, his background and his position on the eve of the revolt, 37-39; advises against hasty political moves, 52; begins publication of "The Way Out," 54; open letter by, 55; opposes Senator Ingalls, 57; on the Gospel of Wealth, 67; candidate for the U.S. senate, 87; elected U.S. senator, 90; remarks to the Cincinnati conference, 99; the issue of his reelection, 199-200; heads Prohibition ticket in Kansas, 219; his response to progressivism, 238; his reaction to some prominent issues in Kansas politics, 261n; explains the Populist position on money, 289n; mentioned, 53, 54, 104, 179, 183, 209-10, 216, 294n, 298n, 300n
Peoples Herald, The, 182, 183
Pittsburg Kansan, poem quoted from, 25
Plumb, Preston B., exposes a weak link in the reform chain, 106; mentioned, 54, 104, 133
Polk, L. L., 123
Pomeroy, Samuel C., career terminated, 24
Populism, the problem of spasmodic motivation, 31-32; force and direction of, 32; the issue of cooperation versus competition, 71-72; a fundamental position of, stated by W. D. Vincent, 68; what it signified in the minds of its followers in 1891, as expressed by J. G. Otis, 105; the essence of, as stated by J. M. Dunsmore, 216; denouement of, 215; historical interpretation of, 264n, 285n, 286-287n, 289n, 291n, 297n, 302n
Populist party, organization of, in Kansas, 56; the platform of 1890, 60-61; a caricature of its leaders, 63; a composite of state leaders, 63-65; its victories in the 1890 campaign, 87-88; the 1890 effort outside Kansas, 95; the Cincinnati conference, 97-99, 272n; the St. Louis conference (1892), 113-14; the 1892 state convention, 116-21; the Omaha convention (1892), 123-24; the 1894 state convention, 152-63; the vote in the state election of 1894, 168; the 1896 state convention, 187; the Sewall-Watson arrangement in Kansas, 187; the fusion effort of 1896, 188-89; the state convention of 1898, 214-15; the state campaign of 1900, 225-27; achievements of the party in Kansas, 232-34; assessment of the leadership, 242-43
Power, C. A., 96
Prather, Van B., 119, 270n
Prohibition, role of, in Kansas politics, 100-1; as an issue in Lewelling's administration, 139; special relationship to woman suffrage, 153, 157, 162, 190; Leedy's position on, 210
Railroads, impact of expansion, 12-13; federal assistance to, 14; some Kansas statistics, 18-19; appeal of in early Kansas history, 18, 20; financing of in Kansas, 27-28
Randolph, J. V., 270n
Reconstruction, fortuitous impact of, 6
Reform, discussion of, 15-17
Republican party, 5-6; and the use of national power to regulate corporate power, 17; dominance of, in Kansas, 18, 20-21; state intraparty struggles of, 24; nature of its leadership in Kansas, 21
Rice, John H., 270n
Riddle, Taylor, 210-11, 297n
Ridgely, E. R., 155, 156
Rightmire, William F., on the conversion of the state Alliance, 51; nominated for chief justice, 59; claims of, with respect to the organization of the People's party, 59-60; biographical sketch, 60; promotes a national third party, 96; elected national secretary of the National Citizens' Industrial Alliance, 97; issues call for the Cincinnati conference, 97; calls the Cincinnati conference to order, 98; deprecates the importance of free silver, 104; comment by concerning the Ocala meeting, 270n; mentioned, 99, 114, 163, 194, 270n, 271n, 271-72n
Robinson, Charles, 24
Roosevelt, Theodore, 237, 240
Ross, Edward A., 10
Rossington, W. H., 143
Rupenthal, J. C., 227
Ryan, W. H., 295n
St. John, John P., 100, 272n
St. Louis convention (1889), 51; demands of, 51
Scott, S. M., 118, 236, 274n
Sears, W. H., 298n
Senn, Michael, gives some advice to fellow Populists, 101; advises the party to concentrate its efforts on one reform at a time, 177; biographical sketch of, 272n; mentioned, 179
Sewall, Arthur, 186, 195
Shaffer, E. T., 295n
Shaw, Anna, 155
Shearer, Andrew, 159
Sheldon, Charles M., popularity of his social-gospel treatise, 218
Shinn, Albert C., an attempt to explain Populism, 216; mentioned, 60, 118, 274n
Silver Purchase Act, 140, 175, 176
Simpson, Jerry, biographical sketch and his campaign for congress in 1890, 82-87; subjected to bitter attacks in the 1890 campaign, 85; origin of the “Sockless” sobriquet, 86-87; attack upon in 1892, 127; refuses to see free silver as a panacea, 175; political feud involving, 207-8; denies charges that he acted as a lobbyist, 209; opposes intervention in Cuba, 211; comment of, 231; his activities after 1898, 235-36; his attachment to the ideas of Henry George, 267n; the “Sockless” label, 267n; mentioned, 104, 116, 127, 167, 270n, 277-78n, 294n, 296n
Smith, A. J. R., anti-administration attack of, 140-41; comment by, 269n
Smith, Adam, 4
Smith, A. W. (“Farmer”), 122, 125, 276n
Snider, S. H., 236, 270n
Social Darwinism, arguments of, used by an anonymous writer, 1-2; seen as rationalization not philosophy, 9; explained, 9-10; critics of, 10; popularity of, 10; promoted reform confusion, 17; its use against Populist leaders, 63; rejected by Populist leaders, 67; mentioned, 22, 34, 68, 191, 192, 242
Social Gospel, 10
Socialism, reference to, 69; a minority of Populist leaders identify with, 70; growing importance of, in Populist camp, 146-47; G. C. Clemens leads in the cause of, 217-18, 223; M. E. Lease declares herself sympathetic to, 224; Breidenthal expresses sympathy with, 225; Annie Diggs identifies with, 226; Breidenthal on the prospects of, 227; W. P. Harrington on,
229; J. G. Otis and, 236; John F. Willits and, 236
Spanish-American crisis, 211-12
Spencer, Herbert, 9
Stanford, Leland, 123
Stanley, William R., 215
State Citizens' Alliance, organization of, 59
State Reform Association, 51, 59
Steinberger, Abe, 185, 194, 195, 196, 293n
Stryker, William, 189
Sweezey, J. L., 182
Tapscott, U. T., 201
Taubeneck, H. E., 177, 272n
Thompson, Arthur W., quoted relative to laissez-faire thought, 3
Thompson, T. J., 158
Tippie, John, 4
Titus, Andrew Jackson, raises charges of corruption, 207-8
Topeka Daily Capital, its campaign against the Lewelling administration, 166; charges Jerry Simpson with lobbying efforts against Populist measures, 208-9; mentioned, 54, 112
"Tramp Circular." See Lewelling, L. D.
Troutman, James H., his assessment of Populism, 148; mentioned, 283n
True, H. F., 274n
Twain, Mark, 24
Veblen, Thorstein, 8, 10
Vincent, C., 270n
Vincent, H., 270n
Vincent, William D., his background and his dissident proposals on the eve of the revolt, 33-35; states a fundamental Populist position, 68; mentioned, 118, 277n
Vrooman, Carl Schurz, position of regarding trusts, 222-23; mentioned, 236, 270n
Ward, Lester Frank, 10
Ware, Eugene, 153
Warner, Charles Dudley, 24
Waters, J. G., his attack upon the Populist party, 147
Watson, Thomas, quoted relative to the race issue, 100-1; mentioned, 187, 194, 195, 196, 293n
Weaver, James B., 123, 124; mentioned in Lease letter, 144
Wharton, W. V., 115
Wheat, Morris L., 98
White, William Allen, comment on Mrs. Lease, 74-75; remark about Jerry Simpson, 84; baits Populists, 178-79; some editorial remarks, 190-92; comment on the outcome of the 1896 campaign, 196; announces that he erred in his "What's the Matter with Kansas" editorial, 243; on the "What's the Matter with Kansas" editorial, 292-93n; mentioned, 69
Williams, Frank, 270n
Willits, John F., reference to speech delivered as president of the Jefferson County Alliance, 45-46; elected chairman of the People's party state committee, 58; nominated for governor, 59; candidate for the U.S. senate, 89; mentioned, 116, 118, 194, 236, 270n, 290n, 293n
Wilson, W. H., 156, 157
Woman suffrage, a divisive issue before the first Populist house, 92-95; role of in Kansas politics, 100-1; as an issue before the 1894 state conventions, 172 ff.; referendum vote on, 168; mentioned, 143, 166
Wood, Samuel, comment of, 65; mentioned, 104, 270n
Wright, Isom, remarks on the Spanish-American War, 213
Wyatt, Woolford, 183
Zercher, D. C., organizes the Citizens' Alliance, 59; mentioned, 270n
Zimmer, Henry, 295n