Bull Threshers and Bindlestiffs

Isern, Thomas D.

Published by University Press of Kansas

Isern, Thomas D.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/94114
TABLES AND FIGURES

Tables

3.1 Threshing Rates in North Dakota, 1913 105
3.2 Threshing Practices and Rates, 1920 105
3.3 M. T. Austin's Earnings and Expenses, 1902–1905 and 1906–1909 107
3.4 Threshing Records of Haselwood and Son, 1917–1926 116
3.5 Threshing Records of Malcolm Robson, 1930–1937 117
3.6 Threshing Records of the Spruce Home Threshing Syndicate, 1921-1929 117
3.7 Rates for the Spruce Home Threshing Syndicate, 1921–1930 118
3.8 Income and Expenses of the Spruce Home Threshing Syndicate, 1921–1929 119
3.9 Threshing Records of Lowell Ayers, 1929–1941 121
4.1 Number of Harvest Excursionists in Western Canada, 1890–1919 134
4.2 Labor Employed in Wheat Harvest, 1921 137
4.3 Place of Residence of Transient Harvest Hands, 1920 and 1921 139
4.4 Estimated Average Daily Wages of Harvesters in Western Canada, 1901–1929 153
4.5 Reports of Wages by Threshermen Writing to American Thresherman and Canadian Thresherman, 1902–1915 158
5.1 Number of Tractors Sold in the Prairie Provinces, 1919–1931

5.2 Number of Combines in Use in Kansas, 1923–1936

5.3 Number of Combines in Use in Three States of the Northern Plains, 1925–1928

5.4 Number of Combines Sold in the Prairie Provinces, 1926–1931

Figures

2.1 Areas Where Wheat Was Cut with Binders in 1919

2.2 Areas Where Wheat Was Cut with a Header in 1919

2.3 Sheaf Arrangement in Shock Formation

2.4 Stackyard Arrangements

2.5 Header Land Layout

4.1 Sources of Harvest Labor in 1920 and 1921

4.2 Average Wages for Wheat Belt Labor in 1919

5.1 Horses, Mules, and Tractors on Kansas Farms, 1915–1950

5.2 Areas Where Wheat Was Cut with Combines in 1919