Maurice Sugar

Christopher H. Johnson

Published by Wayne State University Press

Johnson, Christopher H.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/61450

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2190614

This work is licensed under a
Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.
ILLUSTRATIONS

Maurice Sugar frontispiece
Following pages 124 and 249
Sugar's mother, Mary
Sugar's father, Kalman
Brimley, with Bay Mills in the background
Trestle to Bay Mills
Brimley school, 1900
Scribner's, the company store
Maurice Sugar
The Intercollegiate Socialist Society branch at the University of Michigan, 1912
Sugar and Jane Mayer
Henry Sweet, Clarence Darrow, and attorneys Perry and Chawke
Unemployed Detroiters, 1932
Hunger Marchers under attack, 1932
Heroes of Bulls Run in court, 1937
Sugar, Lee Pressman, and Larry Davidow, 1937
Cadillac Square rally, Detroit, 1937
The UAW "Labor Slate"
Sugar's campaign workers, 1941
Maurice and Jane Sugar with Richard Frankensteen, 1939
Ford strike demonstration, 1941
Signing of the Ford contract
Ford delivers seven million dollars in back pay awarded to Ford workers
Sugar speaks to UAW local
Coleman Young, Sugar, and LeBron Simmons, 1942
Sugar and Ernest and Freda Goodman, 1946
Maurice and Jane Sugar at Black Lake, 1962
Inauguration of George W. Crockett as Recorders Court judge, 1966