Gaze Regimes

Published by Wits University Press

Gaze Regimes: Film and feminisms in Africa.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/50550.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/50550

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1943943
The inception of this book is attributed to the vision of Katharina von Ruckteschell and its fruition was managed by Henrike Grohs with additional support from Lilli Kobler and Norbert Spitz of the Goethe Institut, Johannesburg.

Our appreciation to colleagues at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg: Georges Pfruender, Jeanne Do O Faustino, Jurgen Meekel, Bhekizizwe Peterson, David Andrew, Nobunye Levin, Tawana Kupe and Ruksana Osman as well as the Humanities Faculty Research Committee.

Special thanks to: Derilene Marco, Patrick Ebewo, Lindiwe Dovey, Robyn Grimsley and Alison Lowry, Florian Schattauer and Blackboard Trust, Uhuru Productions, STEVENSON and the Mail and Guardian photo-archive.

To the peer-reviewers, for their valuable observations and suggestions, and to the committed team at Wits University Press, with special appreciation to Roshan Cader.