INDEX

Page numbers in italics refer to information in illustrations.
Page numbers with ‘n’ refer to information in notes.

A
Abahlali baseMjondolo 225, 236 academic Marxism 176, 180, 282 see also intellectuals; universities access and protest 225–226
African–coloured social relations, W Cape 270–272 African hegemony, W Cape 271–272
Africanism, racialised, 272
African Marxism 169–170 see also Marxist regimes, Africa African National Congress (ANC) 70–72, 74–77 and alliance with SACP 198 and failure of socialism 200–201 and collapse of ‘socialist alternative’ 199–200 and liberation struggle 260–261
and African socialism 196–197
and post-apartheid protests 229–230, 232–235 and the Soviet model 199–200 see also under colonialism of a special type; South Africa; Tripartite Alliance, SA African Party for the Independence of Guinea and Cape Verde 172, 173, 175 African Renaissance 273 African socialism 210
and African Marxism 169–170, 186 failure of and ANC 200–201 and Marxist ideologies 177–178 trajectory of 182, 183
Afro-neoliberalism 261

Afro-neoliberal state 74–76
and nation-building 265–269, 271 agriculture 152, 153–154, 184–185 farm workers strike, W Cape 255–256
see also rural areas
Algeria 170, 180, 187
Althusser, Louis 88, 91, 92–93
Amin, Samir 25
Anderson, Perry 55
Angola 171, 172, 175, 176, 183, 184, 185, 186–187 anthropocentrism 144, 145, 153, 157, 163n2 Anti-Privatisation Forum, SA 225, 231, 236 apartheid struggle against 264
and combined and uneven development 241 post-apartheid transition 69–73 and ‘passive revolution’ 71–77 and second-wave Marxism 45–46 see also under colonialism of a special type Arendt, H 21
Arusha Declaration, Tanzania 201, 203, 204 Association of Mining and Construction Union (Amcu) 246, 247 authoritarianism
and communism 19–20
and Marxist regimes, Africa 186–188
and representative democracy 17–18
authority and Cynics 108–110
and enlightenment 100–101, 102–104

B
Baleni, Frans 247
Bantu Authorities Act, 1951 274–275
Marxisms in the twenty-first century

bantustans 240, 273–275
Barre, Siad 180
Ben Bella, Ahmed 170, 180
Benin 170, 171, 175, 184, 186
Bernstein, Eduard 42, 43
Bernstein, Rusty 213–214
Biko, Steve 110 biodiversity 143, 145
black bourgeois 266–267, 268–269 see also Afro-neoliberalism
Black Economic Empowerment (BEE) 233, 251
black elite 201–202, 268
Bolshevik Leninists 146
Brazil 28, 29
Brazilian Workers’ Party (PT) 28, 29
BRICS countries 158
British Labour Party 148
Brundtland Commission, 1982 152
Burkett, Paul 150–151
Burkina Faso 170, 171

C
Cabral, Amilcar 173
capital
concentration of 2, 42, 187 fractionation of 64
logic of 38
rule of transnational 65–66 and the State 250–251
see also global capital
capitalism
crisis of global 2–3, 148–150, 281 evolution of into socialism 42–43, 146–147, 178
financialisation of 149, 281 global restructuring of 62–63 monopoly capitalism 59, 75
monopoly-finance capitalism 149
see also under fossil capitalism; neoliberal capitalism centre–periphery relations 59–60
Chatsworth, Durban, protests 225–226
China
and commodification 41
and ecology 161–162
Chissano, Joaquim 211
Christianity 144, 182
civil society
and direct democracy 28
and globalisation 63, 65 and global Marxism 49
South Africa 76–77, 252
and third-wave Marxism 46–47
and totalitarianism 21
class
class formation 64–65
and race 251, 263, 264–268, 270–271
reproduction of 121, 127–130, 131–132, 134–137
structure-agency analysis 63–64 struggle and classical Marxism 43 transnational forces 63–65 classical Marxism 36, 38, 49
and commodification of labour 42–43
and women 121, 124
Claudin, Fernando 22
collectivisation 39, 42, 43 of domestic work 121–122 colonialism
and anti-apartheid struggle 264
and commodification 41
colonialism of a special type 260–261 African–coloured relations, W Cape 270–272
and Afro-neoliberalism 265–269
left critiques of thesis 264–265 and national democratic revolution 260, 263
and nationalism 264–265 and nation-building 265–269 and non-racialism 262–263 provincialism and retrabalisation 272–276
and racial identities 262–263 thesis of 262–264
coloured South Africans 262–263 relations with Africans, W Cape 270–272
commodification
and destruction of use value 37
of knowledge 50
of a force of production 36–37 commodification of labour 38, 39 and classical Marxism 42–43 commodification of money 39, 43–46 and Soviet, Western and Third World Marxism
commodification of nature 39 and sociological Marxism 46–50 see also ecological disasters; fossil
capitalism
communism
and authoritarianism 19–20
Marxist critiques of Soviet 20–26
Marx on 93
and representative democracy 20
and social inequality 159
and sustainable development 159
see also Eurocommunism; Soviet communism
Communist Party of India (Marxist) 28–29 Communist Party of the Soviet Union and democracy 22
and Eurocommunism 22–23
see also Soviet communism community participation 28, 29, 239–240 see also direct democracy; popular participation in politics Congo 186
Congo-Brazzaville 170, 171
Congress of South African Trade Unions (Cosatu) 215 and Marikana massacre 249–250, 252
and post-apartheid passive revolution 74–75, 76
and Zuma 234, 249
see also Tripartite Alliance, SA conjunctural and systematic 240–241 conjunctures 73–74
Constitutional Court, SA 236
constitutionalism 66, 236
Cox, Robert 61–62
critical theory 61
critique 84–88
ecological 144
Marxism and Marx 91–93
relentless criticism 88–91 and self-understanding 89 of Soviet communism 20–26 see also under Foucault, Michel Cynics 108–110

D
democracy 16–17
in Africa 179–180, 186–189, 206, 207, 210
liberal democracy 21, 25
people’s democracy 179
shop-floor democracy 24 social democracy 23, 39, 44
totalitarian democracy 19 see also direct democracy; Marxism and democracy; popular participation in politics; representative democracy; vanguard democracy Democratic Alliance (DA) 270 democratic decentralisation 3, 26, 28 Democratic Left Front, SA 216, 225, 230, 253–254 democratic Marxism 284–286 democratic person 20
Democratic Socialist Movement, SA 254 dependency 25, 45
desubjectification 98–99
Dinerman, Alice 212
direct democracy 17, 23, 24
defining 26–27
and representative democracy 27
in the twenty-first-century 26–29 see also popular participation in politics discourses 237
domestic labour 120, 121, 131–133 collectivisation of 121–122, 123–124 globalisation of 136–137
Durban protests 225–226

E
ecological crisis 143
and industrial capitalism 144, 145 and Engels 151
and Marx 150–154
and Marxism 155–162
see also commodification of nature; fossil capitalism ecological Marxism, China 161 ecological sustainability 152 ecology and economic growth 143, 144, 145, 157 ecology and Marx 150–154, 155 economic crises 2, 39, 47, 119 Egypt 180–181
encirclement plus scarcity 183–184 enclave development 158–159 Engels, Friedrich 151, 156
and oppression of women 120–121, 126–127 enlightenment 95, 100–104 see also under Foucault environment see commodification of nature; fossil capitalism and Marxism; under ecological Eritrea 172, 181, 185
Eritrean People’s Liberation Front 172, 181
Ethiopia 170, 171, 172, 174, 183–184, 185, 186
Ethiopian People’s Revolutionary Democratic Front 172 ethnic identity, Africa 185 see also tribal identity Eurocommunism 22–23
and Communist Party of the Soviet Union 22–23
and emergence of socialism 146
and expansion of Marxism 23 exchange rates, currency 39, 43, 44

F
families 121–122, 125, 126, 129, 131–133 Fanon, Frantz 45, 182
and South Africa 199, 216
and Tanzania 201
Farlam Commission 245
farm workers strike, W Cape 255–256
fascism 18, 39, 68–69
feminism
  distinct political currents in 116–117 Lenin and 123
feminism and Marxism 116–118 demands of feminism 119 inequality between 117
  and sexism, heterosexism, racism 119
  and social democracy 119
  and subordination of women 119 see also Marxist feminism; socialist fertiliser 153
financial crises 2, 39, 47, 119 financialisation of capitalism 149 fiscal stimulation 149 foreign direct investment 76 fossil capitalism 144–147, 160–162 and Marx and Marxism 155–158 and Marx’s ecology 150–154
  and sustainable development 158–160
  see also commodification of nature;
  under ecological
Foster, John Bellamy 149, 150, 151, 155
Foucault, Michel 85–87
  on citing Marx 85–87 development of thinking 93–94 and Kant 95, 100–104
Foucault, Michel on critique 94–96 and collective political subject 107 and the Cynics 108–110
  and defining enlightenment 100–102 and desubjectification 98–99 and frank speech 107–110 and Hardt 107–110
  and how not to be governed 97–98 and Kant’s ‘What is enlightenment?’ 95, 100–104 and knowledge 98–99
  and method 104–106
  movement of governmentalisation 96–99 ontology of present and self 106 opposition and critique 103, 105–106, 110
  and parrhesis 106–110
  problematising government 100–102 theorisation of power 97
Frelimo see Front for the Liberation of Mozambique
French Revolution 68
Front for the Liberation of Mozambique
  172, 173, 174, 208, 217n12, 217n13
Fukuyama, F 147
G
geographic scales of protest 226–230
German Marxism 36
German social democracy 42
Ghana 170
Gill, Stephen 62–63, 66
global capital 62–63
  industrialisation strategy 204–205 restructuring of 62–63
  and the rural sector 205–206
  and Tanzania 204–205
  see also neoliberal capitalism global Marxism 49–50 global South Marxism 25–26 gold standard 39, 43
government see state, the; under Foucault, Michel on critique
governmentalisation, movement of 96–99 Gramscian Marxism, transnationalising 53–54, 59–60 global restructuring of capitalism 62–63 and historical materialism 54–58 new themes for 77–78
  passive revolution 66–73
  South Africa’s ‘passive revolution’ 71–77 rise of neo-Gramscianism 60–66 transnational class forces 63–65 transnational neoliberalism 65–66 understanding through Gramsci 57–58 Gramsci, Antonio 46
  and Hegel 55
  and intellectuals 230
  and philosophy 55–56
  Prison Notebooks 53, 54, 56
  the systematic and conjunctural 240–241 and Western Marxism 55–57
Growth, Employment and Redistribution (Gear) programme 198, 224
  233–234
Guebuza, Armando 211
guerrilla war, Africa 170–174
Guinea-Bissau 175
Guinea-Conakry 170, 175, 183
H
Hardt, Michael 84–85, 107–110
Hartmann, Heidi 117
hegemony
  and CPSU 22–23
  and neo-Gramscian Marxism 61–62, 65–66, 77
  in post-apartheid SA 67, 68, 69–73, 232, 234
  of USA 65–66
INDEX

historical materialism of Gramsci 54–58
  transnational 60, 77 historical necessity 58
HIV/AIDS, SA 224, 231
homelands, SA 240, 273–275 housing crisis, W Cape 270–271 humanism 105
humanist Marxism 24–25, 27
I
immaturity of humanity 100–101 imperialism 45, 59–60
Indian South Africans 262 indigenous societies 41, 182, 272 see also under traditional, tribal industrial development 143–145, 155, 205, 210 inequality within races 268 insurrections of conduct 97, 100 intellectuals 16–17
  and protest 230–231, 242–243 traditional and organic 230 see also academic Marxism; universities International Communist Movement 22 international relations and Gramsci 61–62 investment
  foreign 76, 216n4
  private 202–203, 234
Islam and Marxism 180–181
Italian Communist Party 53, 55, 56
J
Jacobins 68
Jewish South Africans 175–176
K
Kant, Immanuel 95, 100–104
Kautsky, Karl 23, 42, 146
Kerala 3, 26, 28
Kérékou, Mathieu 171
Keynesian economics 144, 148–149
Khoi and San people 272 knowledge
  commodification of 50
  and critique 98–99
  production of 50, 58
Kollontai, Alexandra 122–123
L
labour
  capital–labour contradiction 144, 146
  commodification of 37–44
  migrant 253, 271
  and nature 150–153
  of women 121–124, 126–136 see also domestic labour; workers labour-broking 247, 248, 253 law, remedies in 235–237 leadership and protest 230–232
Leninism 56, 172, 174, 175, 187
Lenin, Vladimir
  and revolution 178
  and South African Communist Party 3
  and women 123
liberal democracy 21
liberalism 16–17, 21, 157, 189 critiques of Soviet communism 17–20
localism and protest 226–230
Lonmin 246, 247, 248, 250
Luxemburg, Rosa 42, 59
M
Machel, Samora 208, 217n14
Madagascar 170, 171, 172, 181–182, 184
Malagasy Marxism 181–182
Malema, Julius 232, 249, 251–252
Mali 170
Mandela, Nelson 198, 216n3, 232–233
Mangaung electoral conference 249, 252 manufacturing crisis, 1970s 149
Marais, Hein 69–73
Marikana massacre 243–256 and Lonmin 246, 247, 248, 250 and Malema 249, 251–252 and National Union of Mineworkers 244, 245–246, 247, 249
  organisation after 253–256 and Ramaphosa 244, 249–252 and Tripartite Alliance 248–249, 255, 256 market fundamentalism 38, 41
Marxism
  as an evolving tradition 35–37 contemporary attacks on 281 decline of 146–147
  democratic Marxism 284–286
  and ecology 150–154, 155–158
  failure of in Africa 183–186
  and Foucault 85–87
  four foundational claims of 36 global 49–50
  and Islam 180–181
  many varieties of 283–284
  and Marx 91–93
  and philosophy 55–56
  renewed interest in 4, 148–150 revival of 2–3, 34–35, 148–150 and sociology 49
  successive branches of 36
  and waves of and marketisation 36–37, 39–40, 40, 40–41
  see also specific varieties of Marxism Marxism and democracy 16–17
Marxisms in the twenty-first century

direct democracy 26–29
liberal critiques of Soviet communism 17–20
critiques of Soviet communism 20–26 Marxism–Leninism 9–10, 23 in Africa 168–188, 217n13
and Gramsci 56
and social democracy 146
see also under Marxist regimes, Africa Marxist feminism 128
and domestic labour 131–133 dual systems theories 128–129 expanded mode of production concept 129–131 social reproduction 134–137 see also feminism and Marxism; socialist feminism Marxist regimes, Africa 168–169
and African socialism 169–170
and alienation of societies 184–185
and authoritarianism 186–188
distinctive features 177–182 and domestic choices 183–186 and ethnic identity 185 and external powers, local outliers 174–176 failure of 183–186
and guerrilla war 170–174 institutional innovations 181–182 Marxism’s route to Africa 174–176 and military coups 170–174 and other ideologies and discourses 188–189
and peasant agriculture 184–185
and radicalism 169–170
renunciation of Marxism 183 and ‘scarcity plus encirclement’ 183–186 and traditional Africans 176
Marx, Karl
on communism 93
early writings 87–88
and ecology 150–154, 155
and Foucault 85–87, 110–111
and Marxism 91–93
and oppression of women 120–121
and relentless criticism 88–91 mass action 186, 220 see also South African protest, contemporary mass consumerism 149, 204 mass-party 25, 169, 178, 181
Masuhlo, Paulina 252–253
Mbeki, Moeletsi 215
Mbeki, Thabo 197–199, 236 microfinance 247
migrant workers 253, 271 military-coup Marxism, Africa 181 military coups, Africa 170–174 minority condition of humanity 100–101 modernity 100, 113
political 103–104
Mohammed, Bibi Titi 206–207
Mondlane, Eduardo 208, 209
monopoly capitalism 59, 75
monopoly-finance capitalism 149
Morton, Adam 57
Mozambican National Resistance (Renamo) 211
Mozambique
and African socialism 210
and capitalism 209, 212 early programmes 209–210 failure of Marxism in 172, 175–176, 183, 185, 187, 200 failure of socialism 211–213 as flagship of neoliberalism 212 post-liberation radicalism in 207–208
and the rural sector 210–211
and Tanzania 208, 210–211
MPLA (Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola) 171, 172, 173, 175
Mpofu, Dali 250–251
Mugabe, Robert 183

N
Namibia 172
Nasser, Gamal Abdel 180 national democratic revolution 260, 261, 263, 264 see also under colonialism of a special type nationalism and colonialism of a special type 264–265 economic 202–203, 213
racial, Zimbabwe 183
South Africa 213, 261, 262, 264, 265
National Resistance Movement, Uganda 172
National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (Unita) 176 National Union of Mineworkers (NUM) 244, 245–246, 247, 249 nation-building and African–coloured social relations W Cape 270, 271
and Afro-neoliberalism 265–269
nature
anthropocentric view of 144, 145, 153, 154, 157 domination of 144, 154
eco-centric view of 157 as gravedigger of capitalism 156 intrinsic and use-value 157
and Marx 150–154
and town and country 151, 153–154
Nazism 18
Negritude 177
neoclassical economists 2 neo-Gramscian Marxism see Gramscian Marxism, transnationalising neoliberal capitalism
and commodification 39
in crisis 148–150
and gains made by labour 38 and society 63
see also Afro-neoliberal project neoliberalism, transnational 65–66, 69 neo-Marxism 35
and democracy 24–25
Netshitenzhe, Joel 272
new deal, green 162
New Deal, USA 39, 43
New Partnership for Africa's Development 233–234 Nkrumah, Kwame 170, 177, 178 nonracialism, SA 262–263 North-South relations 59–60 nuclear power 158
Nyerere, Julius 170
and Arusha Declaration 201
as authoritarian 206
and controlling the economy 202–203

O
obedience to authority 102–104 Occupy Movement 3, 26, 285
opposition and critique 103, 105–106, 110

P
parrhesia 106–110
participatory budgeting, Brazil 3, 26, 28, 29 participatory democracy see popular participation in politics
passive revolution 66–69
post-apartheid South Africa as 71–77 patriarchy 128–130
peak oil 145
people's democracy, Africa 179–180 people's war 172–173
Phakoe, Moss 247
philosophical realism 58 philosophy 55–56
Polanyi, Karl, reconstructing and colonialism 41
and the logic of capital 38
market fundamentalism 38, 41
three fictitious commodities 37
see also under commodification Polisario 172
pollution 143, 145, 247–248 popular discontent, SA see Marikana massacre; South African protest, contemporary Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) 171 popular participation in politics
in Africa 170, 186–187
and capacity for democratic politics 19–20 meaningful participation 27 in South Africa 239–240
and totalitarianism 18–19
see also direct democracy postmodernism 1–2, 282 power, theorisation of 97 practical critique 93, 106, 112n9 privatisation 212, 224, 225, 236 problem-solving theory 61 production and consumption 145, 151
of knowledge 50, 58
and Marxism 37, 42–43
and uneven development 221–222, 228
and women 121, 127–131, 134–136, 138
see also reproduction Promethean Marxism 144–147, 150 protectionist policies 39 protests see South African protest, contemporary provincialism and retribalisation 272–276

R
race and class 251, 263, 264–268, 270–271 racial identities 262–263, 272–276 see also tribal identity racism 241, 264, 266, 269 and feminism 118–119, 125–126, 139n2 reracialising SA 273
white privilege, SA 265–268
Ramaphosa, Cyril 244, 249–252 recolonisation of South Africa 199, 214–215 Reconstruction and Development Programme (RDP) 74, 213, 232, 233 red-brown-green alliance 160 regulation of economies 39–40, 43, 48 Renamo 211
representative democracy 17, 30n2 Africa 183, 186
and authoritarianism 17–19
and communism 20, 21
and direct democracy 27
and Eurocommunism 23
and societal breakdown 21 reproduction
biological 119, 121, 127–130, 131–132, 134, 136 expanded 204–205
site of 228
social 121, 127–130, 128, 131–132, 134–137
retribalisation and provincialism 272–276
revolution 59, 171–172
and critique 88, 103–104
enthusiasm for and enlightenment 103–104
Madagascar 181–182
Mozambique 211–212, 217
national democratic, SA 260, 261, 263, 264 passive, SA 66–77
Russia 24, 146, 178, 221, 282
rights to the city, SA 237–239 and protest, SA 235–237 Risorgimento 68
rural areas 154
Mozambique 210–211
and peasant agriculture 184–185
reracialising 273
South Africa 222, 223, 273–276
Tanzania 205–206
town and country 151, 153–154 Russia
and commodification 41
revolution 24, 146, 178, 221, 282
see also Soviet Union
Russian Marxism 36 see also Soviet communism
S Sankara, Thomas 171
scarcity plus encirclement 183–184
Schneider, Leander 206
Schumpeter, Joseph 19
Seccombe, Wally 130–131
self-understanding 89 service delivery protests see South African protest, contemporary Shanduka 250
Shembe church 275, 276
Sinwell, Luke 239–240
Slovo, Joe 233
Smuts, Jan 250–251
social democracy
German 42
Scandinavian 39, 43
and women 119
social democratic parties 146–147, 233 socialism
and commodification of labour 42–43
and commodification of money 44 and commodification of nature 47–49
and Marxism 23, 24, 25, 50
and South Africa 71–72, 168, 213–216, 260 twenty-first century 148–154, 159–160, 162 see also African socialism socialism and southern Africa 196 and lack of realism 197 tropes of socialist defeat 196–201
see also under specific countries socialism, emergence of 42–43, 146–147 skipping capitalism in Africa 42–43, 146, 178 socialism, failure of 120, 179 and ANC 200–201
Mozambique 211–213
Tanzania 204–206
tropes of socialist defeat 196–201
see also under specific countries socialist feminism 117, 118 as anti-capitalist 120 and biological reproduction 119, 121, 127–130, 131–132, 134, 136 and collectivisation of housework 121–122, 123–124 and communist states 123–124 and families 121–122, 125, 126, 129, 131–133
Marx and Engels on 120–121, 126–127 Marxism and 120–127
and other feminists 119 and patriarchy 128–130
and public services 122–123 and race and racism 118–119, 125–126, 139 social construction of gender 125–127, 131 and socialisation of domestic labour 123 and social reproduction 121, 127–130, 131–132, 134–137 unpaid care work of women 122–123, 131–133 see also feminism and Marxism; Marxist feminism sociological Marxism 46–50
Somalia 170, 171, 174, 184
South Africa, Marxism in urban Tripartite Alliance hegemony 232–235 two economies 221–222
and uneven and combined development 221–222
uneven and combined Marxism 222–223
see also under African National Congress (ANC); South African Marxism, renewing; South African protest, contemporary; Tripartite Alliance, SA South African Communist Party (SACP) 3–4 alliance with ANC 163n4, 198
see also Tripartite Alliance, SA South African Marxism, renewing 235 combined and uneven development, Marxism 240–243 and participation 239–240
and rights 235–237
and right to the city 237–239 see also South Africa, Marxism in urban South African Police Service 244–245
South African protest, contemporary 220–221, 223–225 and access 225–226
and geographic scales 226–230 and leadership 230–232
and localism 226–230
and rights 235–237
and Tripartite Alliance hegemony 232–235
see also Marikana massacre South Africa, socialism in 71–72, 168, 213–216, 260 southern Africa see socialism and southern Africa South West African People’s Organisation (Swapo) 172 sovereignty 108–109, 263–264 Soviet communism liberal critiques of 17–20 Marxist critiques of 20–26 support of African resistance 174–175, 179 Soviet Marxism 43–44
Soviet Union
collapse of 47
and commodification 39, 43–44, 47
industrial development of 155 and post-colonial leaders 179 see also Russia
Speenhamland system 38, 39
Stalin, Joseph
and emergence of socialism 146
and industrial development 155 and South African Communist Party 3 state, the defending capitalism and workers 43
and Gramsci 61–62
strikes 234, 244, 246, 247, 250–251 structural adjustment 39
Sudan People’s Liberation Movement 172 sustainability, ecological 152 sustainable development 152, 158–160
and communism 159
and enclave development 158–159
Swapo 172

T
Talmon, Jacob 19
Tambo, Oliver 263
Tanganyika African National Union 201, 206–207
Tanzania 200
Arusha Declaration 201, 204
and authoritarianism 206
and controlling the economy 202–203
failure of socialism in 204–206 and gender equality 206–207 and global capital 204–205 and Mozambique 208, 210–211 Mwongozo 203–204
and popular power 203–204
ujamaa project 201, 204–206
Third World Marxism 36, 45–46
Tigray People’s Liberation Front 172, 181 totalitarian democracy 19 totalitarianism 17–18
and class society 21
and communism 17–22
and popular participation in politics 18–19, 21 and vanguard democracy 18 Touré, Sékou 170, 175, 177, 178, 181 traditional councils 274 traditional intellectuals 202–203 traditional leaders 176, 185, 251, 273–275 Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 274–275 transience 58
trasformismo 67
Treatment Action Campaign 224, 236 tribal chiefs 176, 185, 251, 273–275 tribal identity 272
retribalisation and provincialism 272–276
and Zuma 275–276
Tripartite Alliance, SA 220–221 contradictions in 233, 234 degeneracy of 232–235
and Marikana massacre 248–249, 255, 256
and protests 229
see also African National Congress (ANC); Congress of South African Trade Unions (Cosatu); South African Communist Party (SACP) Trotsky, Leon influence on Marxism 4
and uneven and combined development 221, 240
Turner, Rick 27–28
Turok, Ben 199
U
Uganda 172
Ujamaa project, Tanzania 201, 204–206 uneven and combined development 221, 271 uneven and combined Marxism 240–243
Unita 176
United Democratic Front (UDF) 214, 262–263
United States of America hegemony of 65–66
labour movement 23–24
New Deal 39
universities 16–17
and commodification of knowledge 50 and Marxism in Africa 176, 230–231 see also academic Marxism; intellectuals utopianism 6, 44, 47–48, 50, 120
V
vanguard democracy 16, 17, 20, 28
and Communist Party of the Soviet Union 22
and totalitarianism 18–19, 22
vanguardism 180, 200, 211, 231, 260, 282–283 vanguard parties 28, 169, 174, 179–180 Vavi, Zwelinzima 215, 249, 252 violence celebration of 182
see also Marikana massacre
voluntarism 53, 177
W war of manoeuvre 146, 249 war of position 146, 249 welfare states 44, 119, 233
Western Cape
and African hegemony 271–272 ANC in 263, 271–272
coloured–African relations 270–272 housing crisis 270–271
race and workers 251, 267–268, 270–272 Western Marxism 36, 44–45, 55–57 whistle-blowers 247
white consciousness 268
white privilege, SA 265–268
white working class, SA 251, 267–268 workers
coalitions among 241–242
farm workers strike, W Cape 255–256
and race 251, 267–268, 270–271 and the state, classical Marxism 43 see also labour
Workers and Socialist Party, SA 254 World Social Forum 3, 26, 227, 281 world-systems theory 59–60
Z
Zimbabwe 172
land seizures 183, 191n29
Zimbabwe African National Union (Zanu) 172, 183
Zuma, Jacob 215, 234
and patronage 248
support for 249, 252
and tribalised identities 275–276