African Archaeology Without Frontiers

Published by Wits University Press

Sievers, Christine, et al.
African Archaeology Without Frontiers: Papers from the 2014 PanAfrican Archaeological Association Congress.
Project MUSE muse.jhu.edu/book/51607.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/51607
Contents

Acknowledgements vii

List of Figures and Tables ix

Introduction xv
An Invitation Fulfilled
Amanda Esterhuysen, Karim Sadr and Chrissie Sievers

Keynote Address 1
Imagining an African Archaeology Without Frontiers xxi
Chapurukha M. Kusimba

Keynote Address 2
A Continental Vision for African Archaeology xxix
Akinwumi Ogundiran

1 The ‘Useable’ Archaeology of African Farming Systems 1
Matthew Davies, Caleb Adebayo Folorunso, Timothy Kipkeu Kipruto, Freda Nkirote M’Mbogori, Henrietta L. Moore, Emuobosa Akpo Orijemie and Alex Schoeman

2 Defining Cultural Heritage among the Makonde of Tanzania 32
Festo W. Gabriel

3 The Indigenous Roots of Swahili Culture in Pangani Bay, Tanzania 48
Elinaza Mjema

4 Is This an Anvil? Iron Bloom Crushing Sites in Northern Togo 60
Philip de Barros and Gabriella Lucidi
Contents

5  L’art Rupestre au Cameroun, Nouvelles Découvertes et Contribution à L’iconographie Sous-Régionale
   Narcisse Santores Tchandeu 85

6  Archaeology and History in Iron Age Settlements in the Congo Basin
   Dirk Seidensticker 114

7  Learning from Glass Trade Beads at Thabadimasego, Botswana
   Adrianne Daggett, Marilee Wood and Laure Dussubieux 127

8  Blurring Boundaries: Forager–Farmer Interactions in the Middle Limpopo Valley
   Tim Forssman 143

9  Heritage Management and the World Wide Web: South African Challenges
   Katie Smuts and Nic Wiltshire 165

Contributors 179

Index 185