Women in Cleveland
Morton, Marion

Published by Indiana University Press

Morton, Marion.
Women in Cleveland: An Illustrated History.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/113356.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/113356

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=3628601
Contents

Editors' Preface xi
Preface xii
Introduction xv

1 Pioneering Women
Wives and Mothers, 1796–1830 1

2 Defining Woman's Sphere
Women's Work, Religion, and Reform, 1830–1865 8

3 Saving the City
Hospitals, Homes, and Settlement Houses, 1860–1930 24

4 Going to Work
Operatives, Clerks, and Servants, 1870–1930 41

5 Entering the Professions
Old and New, 1870–1930 54
Essays

Growing Up 75
Sports and Recreation 87
Marriage and Family 98
Work 111
Fashion 122
Clubs and Associations 135
Growing Old 144

6 Cultivating the Arts
Practitioners and Patrons, 1880–1930 157

7 Winning the Ballot
Reformers and Suffragists, 1890–1930 172

8 Meeting the Challenges
The Depression and World War II, 1930–1950 189

9 Opening Doors
Professions, Politics, and Protest, 1950–1980 207

Epilogue
Toward the Third Century, 1980–1996 227

Index 239