CONTENTS

Preface vii

Chapter 1 Reading Narrative Causalities: Functions and Functional Polyvalence 1

Chapter 2 The Princess and the Pea(s): Two Versions, Different Causalities 27

Chapter 3 Nonchronological Narration: Poe’s “The Assignation” and Browning’s “My Last Duchess” 44

Chapter 4 The Comforts That Function C Brings: Shakespeare’s Hamlet, Racine’s Phaedra, and James’s Daisy Miller 62

Chapter 5 Lingering at Functions D, E, and F: James’s The Ambassadors and Kafka’s “Before the Law” 104

Chapter 6 Sequential Perception: James’s The Turn of the Screw and Balzac’s Sarrasine 126

Chapter 7 Narrative Borderlands I: The Lyric, the Image, and the Isolated Moment as Temporal Hinge 157

Chapter 8 Narrative Borderlands II: The Image Where Stories Proliferate in Novels by Robbe-Grillet and Others 179

Glossary 197

Notes 203

Works Cited 235

Index 243