During the time that I did research for this book, the archives of the Maternity Center Association (MCA) in New York City had three different locations: MCA Archives, MCA Storage, and MCA Office. Until 1996, the archives were located in the MCA library; anything accessed until that time is listed as MCA Archives. In 1996, most of the archives were placed into storage; items accessed from storage are designated as MCA Storage. Some items remain in the MCA Office; those items are designated as such. The MCA archives will be housed at Archives
