Nurse-Midwifery
Ettinger, Laura E.

Published by The Ohio State University Press

Ettinger, Laura E.
The Ohio State University Press, 2006.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/28184.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/28184

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1178086
INDEX

All My Babies (George C. Stoney), 137–38, 139
American Association of Nurse-Midwives (AANM), 178–81, 242n51
American Child Health Association, 39–40
American College of Nurse-Midwives (ACNM): questionnaire to nurse-midwives to determine need for creation of, 172–73, 176–78; debates about whether to create an, 178–83; formation of, 1, 169–70, 171, 172, 174, 183–85; on educational programs, 191–92, 193, 199–200; definition of nurse-midwifery practice, 194; on relationship between nurse-midwives and physicians, 192–93, 244–45n13; on relationship between nurse-midwifery and nursing, 240n24; policy on home births, 190
American Nurses Association (ANA), 174, 175

Baker, S. Josephine, 13
Bead, Mary, 18–19, 92
Bellevue Hospital School for Midwives, 13, 80–83, 84

Berryhill, Elizabeth, 145–47, 148 birth control, 143–44, 156–57, 234n27, 237n78
Breckinridge, Marvin, 48
Breckinridge, Mary: early life of, 21, 35, 206n69, 209n9; education of, 36, 40–41; influenced by British midwifery, 15, 18, 35, 40–41, 173; and creation and development of Frontier Nursing Service (FNS), 24, 26, 32, 36–41, 57, 60, 63, 64, 68–69, 209–10n26, 210n28; and creation of Frontier Graduate School of Midwifery, 53–54; and marketing of FNS, 43–50, 71, 211n35, 37; eastern Kentuckians’ views of, 50–52; racial attitudes of, 25, 33, 45, 47, 180–81, 211n45; views on natural childbirth, 142; views on birth control, 143–44; views on rooming-in, 233n21; approach to organizing nurse-midwives, 178–83; mentioned, 84, 101, 137; illustration, 34. See also Association of American Nurse-Midwives (AANM); Frontier Nursing
Index

Service (FNS)
Breckinridge, Sophonisba P., 43, 209n9
Browne, Helen, 23, 180, 181–82, 184, 210n28, 243n56
Buhler-Wilkerson, Karen, 25–26
Burst, Helen Varney, 189

Caesarean section, 64, 79, 142, 196, 200
Callen, Maude E., 150, 151–53; illustration, 151
Carnegie Foundation, 54
Catholic Maternity Institute (CMI): creation of, 139–40; location in northern New Mexico, 155–57; and role of nuns in obstetrics, 157–59; and natural childbirth and opposition to national birthing trends, 27, 154, 159–64, 166, 167; its attraction for patients, 162–64, 236n75; development of School of Nurse-Midwifery, 158, 237n91; and La Casita (first U.S. out-of-hospital birth center), 161–62; and opposition to birth control, 156–57; leaders' approach to organizing nurse-midwives, 178–84; closing of, 165–66; illustrations, 160, 162. See also Nurse-Midwife (Pauline E. King); Shoemaker, Sister Theophane

Chicago Maternity Center, 106, 128 childbirth: and change in birth attendants from midwives to physicians, 4, 5–8, 84, 94; and change in location from home to hospital, 4, 8–10, 108–10; table, 108; patient and practitioner frustrations with hospital approaches to, 1, 111–12, 113, 161, 169, 188, 195–96. See also prenatal care; labor and delivery; postpartum care
Columbia University nurse-midwifery educational program, 26, 107, 121–22, 123–25, 134; illustration, 123
Commonwealth Fund, 39, 80
Corbin, Hazel, 21, 80, 84, 86–87, 91, 92, 101, 110, 112, 113, 127, 129, 223n69
D'Errico, Sister Paula, 161
DeLee, Joseph B., 9, 43
Dengel, Anna, 157–58
Dent, Albert W., 149
Dick-Read, Grantly, 115, 116, 120, 142, 229n48
Downstate Medical Center, State University of New York–Kings County Hospital nurse-midwifery educational program, 26, 107, 121–22, 128, 129–31, 134
Dublin, Louis I., 67, 70, 101
Dye, Nancy Schrom, 24, 33
Eastman, Nicholson, 122, 131–32, 133, 134, 173–74
Ernst, Kitty, 192
Fedde, Helen Marie, 176–77, 181–82
Ferguson, Elizabeth, 88–89
Fetter, Sara, 126, 177
Flexner, Abraham, 12
Flint-Goodridge School of Nurse-Midwifery, 105, 139, 149, 167
Foley, Edna L., 81
Fox, Elizabeth G., 81–83
Frontier Nursing Service (FNS): creation of, 15, 26, 33–41, 107; its attraction for professional women, 22, 23, 31, 112; financing of, 41–43, 210n31, 210n28; marketing of, 43–50; local response to, 50–52; and Frontier Graduate School of Midwifery, 32, 53–56, 214n88; and prenatal care, 56–60; and labor and delivery, 60–65; and postpartum and general nursing care, 65–69; childbirth statistics at, 58, 61, 64, 67, 69–70; and physicians, 49–50, 61–62, 213n67, 217n121; comparison to Maternity Center Association (MCA), 15–16, 90–91; in the 1940s and 1950s, 138, 140–44, 166; leaders' approach to organizing nurse-midwives, 178–84; and Community-based Nurse-Midwifery Education Program (CNEP), 190, 208n3; scholarly interpretations of, 24, 33; illustrations, 34, 42, 57, 66; table, 70. See also American Associa-
Index

AANM; Breckinridge, Mary; Browne, Helen; Fedde, Helen Marie; Lester, Betty; McNaught, Rose; Mitchell, Hannah D.

Grace–New Haven Community Hospital, 106, 117–19

Hale, Mamie O., 150–51, 153

Harrar, James A., 89

health services, unequal distribution of, 1, 5, 49–50, 133, 139, 195

Heardman, Helen, 116

Hellman, Louis, 122, 129, 131, 132–34, 179, 184

Hemschemeyer, Hattie, 85, 86–87, 92, 96, 110, 126, 134, 168, 178, 180–82, 183, 222n52, 243n56

Henry Street Settlement House, 91, 99, 101

Herb, Sister Helen, 159

Hill-Burton Act, 109, 227n9

Hine, Darlene Clark, 25

Hogan, Aileen I., 114–15, 168–70, 172, 183, 185

Hogan, Margaret, 124

Hyder, Kate, 105–7, 118–19, 149

Indian Health Service nurse-midwifery programs, 187 infant mortality: causes of, 12–13; in U.S., 10, 79, 148–49, 195, 200, 204n27; in Kentucky, 32, 219n152; in New York City, 226n125, 226n126; in New Mexico, 1, 155, 165; in Alabama, 150

Jackson, Edith, 106, 118–19

Jenkins, Susan, 198

Johns Hopkins nurse-midwifery educational program, 26, 107, 121–22, 125–27, 128, 134

journals, nurse-midwifery, 191, 193, 243n64

Julius Rosenwald Fund, 139, 149

Kennedy, Holly Powell, 196–97

Knox, J. H. Mason, 88

Kosmak, George W., 17, 49, 78, 84, 89–90, 131, 229n44

labor and delivery: changing approach to, from midwives at home to physicians in hospitals, 5–10; at Frontier Nursing Service, 60–65; at Maternity Center Association, 97–99, 144–45; at Catholic Maternity Institute, 153–54, 160–62, 163; in western Europe, 16–20; recent approaches to, 195–96, 197, 199, 200–201

Laird, Marion D., 98

Leavitt, Judith Walzer, 9

Lobenstine, Ralph, 15, 78, 79, 83, 84, 131, 229n44

Madera County, California, nurse-midwife demonstration project, 187

Manhattan Midwifery School, 15, 74

Maternal Health Center, Santa Fe, New Mexico, 154, 156

maternal mortality: causes of, 12–13; in U.S., 9, 10, 79, 115, 148–49, 195; in Kentucky, 32, 69, 219n153, table, 70; in New York City, 76–77, 100–101, 226n126; table, 100; in New Mexico, 1, 155, 165; in Alabama, 150

Maternity Center Association (MCA): as early pioneer in maternity education, 76–77; and aborted attempts to establish school and practice clinic, 26, 78–83; and creation of Lobenstine Midwifery School, 15, 19, 54, 83–89, 107; its attraction for professional women, 22, 23; and patients at Lobenstine Midwifery Clinic, 75, 89–95, 100, 145; and prenatal care, 95–97; and labor and delivery, 97–99; and postpartum care, 99–100; childbirth statistics at, 100–101; comparison to Frontier Nursing Service (FNS), 15–16, 90–91; marketing of, 101–2; and home births in the 1940s and 1950s, 121, 138, 140, 144–47, 166; and nurse-midwives working in hospitals, 111–15 passim; and natural childbirth, 115–21; influence on other nurse-midwifery programs, 105, 122–31 passim, 148, 159; leaders’ approach to organizing nurse-midwives, 178–84; founded the first urban freestanding birth center, 189; illustrations, 73, 86, 97; tables, 87, 100. See also Berryhill, Elizabeth; Corbin, Hazel; Hemschemeyer, Hattie; Hogan, Aileen I.; Hyder, Kate; McLaren, Agnes, 157–58
Index

McNaught, Rose, 21, 72–74, 85, 90, 95–99 passim; illustrations, 73, 86

Medicaid, 187, 194, 210n28

medical malpractice insurance, rising costs of, 198–99

Medical Mission Sisters, 1, 154–66 passim, 236n70 medications, used in labor for pain relief, 1–2, 7, 8, 9, 10, 61, 63, 98, 111, 119, 126, 159, 161, 163, 169, 196, 199, 200

medications, used to induce labor 7, 8, 9, 10, 63, 199, 200

Melosh, Barbara, 25

midwives, in Appalachia: 32, 36–38, 49, 58, 213n68

midwives, European, 3, 14, 16–20

midwives, Latina: 25, 140, 155–56, 163, 172

midwives, lay, direct-entry, and certified, 188–89, 191–96 passim, 199–200 midwives, traditional: opposition to and negative images of, 3, 10–12, 82–83, 205n51; decline of, 11–12, 16, 110; training programs for and supervision of, 13–14, 78–79, 84–85; statistics on, 222n52

Midwives’ Alliance of North America (MANA), 199

Miller, Elizabeth F., 82

Mitchell, Hannah D., 136–38, 139, 166, 183

Mitford, Jessica, 5

Morantz-Sanchez, Regina, 24–25

More, Ellen S., 21, 24–25

National League for Nursing (NLN), 175

National Organization for Public Health Nursing (NOPHN), 15, 80, 175, 240n26 natural childbirth, 107, 115–21, 122, 124, 127, 134, 142, 154, 159–64, 166, 188, 229n48, 230n59

New York Nursery and Child’s Hospital, 80, 83, 84

Noyes, Clara, 14, 18

Nurse-Midwife (Pauline E. King), 153–54

nurses, African-American, 25, 105, 148–53, 180; illustrations, 151, 152 nurses, obstetric: criticism of, 112–13; nurse-midwives practicing as, 113–15, 186 nurses, opposition to nurse-midwifery, 2, 4, 23, 80–83, 102, 169–70, 174–75 nurses, public-health: propose creation of nurse-midwives, 13–14; roles of, 25–26 obstetricians and other physicians:

Olivera, Gabriela, 145–47, 148

Pearl, Raymond, 49

Perkins, Frances, 76
Polak, John Osborn, 79
Poole, Ernest, 47–48
prenatal care: prevalence of, 215n103; at Frontier Nursing Service, 56–60; at Maternity Center Association, 95–97; at Catholic Maternity Institute, 153–54, 163; training traditional midwives to perform, 150, 151
Preston Retreat School of Midwifery, 205n49 professions, options for women in, 3–4, 20–23, 24–25, 171–72, 186–87. See also Breckinridge, Mary; Hogan, Aileen I.; Hyde, Kate; Lester, Betty; McNaught, Rose; Mitchell, Hannah D.; Shoemaker, Sister Theophane Reeder, Grace, 52, 56, 58
Reverby, Susan M., 3, 25
Rice, Frederick W., 78, 79
Rock, John, 143
Rockefeller Foundation, 18–19, 86, 92, 206n63
Rogers, Will, 47
Rooks, Judith Pence, 192
rooming-in, 106, 107, 118–19, 159
Roosevelt, Eleanor, 43
Russell Sage Foundation, 14
Saint Vincent’s Hospital, Santa Fe, New Mexico, 162, 163, 165, 236–37n77
Sanger, Margaret, 154, 156
Scott, James C., 170, 171
Shean, Sister Catherine, 164, 236–37n77; illustration, 160
Sheppard-Towner Act, 20, 39, 40
Shoemaker, Sister Theophane, 1–2, 153–54, 159, 174–75, 178, 180–82, 183, 203n2
Sloane Hospital for Women (part of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center), 98, 99, 119, 120, 123–24, 128
Solotar, Martha, 88, 89
Stander, H. J., 89, 223n69
Stewart, Isabel M., 82
Stoney, George C., 137, 138
Taussig, Frederick J., 15, 173
Teachers College, Columbia University, 85–86, 87, 105, 106–7, 168, 210–11n33
The Birth of a Baby (Al Christie), 102
The Forgotten Frontier (Marvin Breckinridge), 32, 48
The Trail of the Pioneer (Elizabeth Perkins and Sophie Smith), 45–46, 50–51
Thoms, Herbert, 106, 117
Tuskegee School of Nurse-Midwifery, 139, 149–53, 167
U.S. Children’s Bureau (later Maternal and Child Health Bureau), 11, 20, 35, 55, 125, 139, 149, 150, 154, 155, 187, 188
University of Mississippi nurse-midwifery educational program, 187 van Blarcom, Carolyn Conant, 13–14, 15, 18
Veech, Annie S., 38–40, 43, 210n26
Wald, Lillian, 13
Water, Sister Michael, 164–65
Watson, Benjamin P., 78, 84, 90, 131
Wiedenbach, Ernestine, 122, 127–28
Willeford, Mary, 53–54, 55, 210–11n33
Williamson, H.C., 89
Woodyard, Ella, 38
Yale University: and natural childbirth and rooming-in, 106, 117–19, 120; nurse-midwifery educational program, 26, 107, 121–22, 127–28, 134