Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Introduction ix

Part 1. A Nation Divided
1. Between Border and Frontier: The Quest for Sovereignty 3
2. From Factions to Political Parties: The Rise of Partisan Divisions over Foreign Policy Problems, 1789–1793 25
3. Liberties and the Republic: The Division of the Nation over Foreign Policy Issues 45

Part 2. Foreign Policy Goals Shared by the Entire Nation
4. Commercial and Territorial Expansion 69
5. National Greatness, War, and Peace: The Ambiguities of Isolationism 92

Part 3. Implementing Foreign Policy Goals: Ambitions and Ambiguities
6. The United States and Haiti: Rejecting the Other American Republic 119
7. The Louisiana Purchase: American Expansion and Its Problems from 1803 to 1812 141
8. From Tripoli Harbor to the 1812 Declaration of War: Identity and Recognition 169

Conclusion 195
Notes 201
Bibliography 249
Index 265