CONTENTS

Preface

vii

Acknowledgments

xv

CHAPTER 1  Studying Stigma: A Rhetorical Approach to Stories and Lived Experience

1

- Rhetoric of Stories, Stigma, Lived Experiences
- Studying Stigma Stories
- Preview of Chapters

CHAPTER 2  Listening for Stigma: Praxiographic Solutions and Stigma in Practice

43

- Critiques of Stigma Research
- Praxiographic Solutions
- Stigma in Practice
- An Ethical Case for Engaging Stigma Praxiographically

CHAPTER 3  Staging Stigma: Ostomies as Worst-Case Scenarios

66

- Leaks, Stigma, and Visceral Publics
- Worst-Case Scenarios: Ostomies in Public Health Campaigns
- Ostomies on TV: Fear and Disgust in Popular Media
- Staging Stigma through Fear
- Credibility Enhanced through Stigma
- Conclusion
CONTENTS

CHAPTER 4  Protesting Stigma: Disruptive Stories, Temporality, and Ostomies as Lifesavers
- Temporality, Disability, and Progressions of Experience
- Rejecting Compulsory Nostalgia: Disruptive Ostomy Stories as Protest
- Disruptive Stories, Disruptive Timelines
- Complicating a Two-Sided Story
- Conclusion

CHAPTER 5  Managing Stigma: Visual Acts of Resistance
- Normalcy, Norms, and the Impossibility of Normalization
- Displaying Ostomies and Soliciting Stares
- Visual Rewards and Risks: Sexualizing Disability
- Showing Off Ostomies and Arriving at the Destination of Normal
- Conclusion

CHAPTER 6  Thinking with Stories: Toward Stigma Interventions
- The Value of a Praxiographic Approach to Stories
- Interventional Insights
- Conducting Entangled Research

References
Index