In Contempt

Kalsem, Kristin

Published by The Ohio State University Press

Kalsem, Kristin.
In Contempt: Nineteenth-Century Women, Law, and Literature.
The Ohio State University Press, 2012.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/24252.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/24252

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=859103
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ix
Acknowledgments xi

INTRODUCTION
Narrative Advocacy, Outlaw Texts, and Nineteenth-Century Portias 1

- The Performance of Feminist Jurisprudence in a Century of Legal Reform 2
- Resistance through Narrative in Outlaw Texts 4
- Nineteenth-Century Portias: Making the Character Real 8

CHAPTER 1
A Novel Approach to Feminist Jurisprudence: Narrating the Gothic Reality of Coverture 17

- Buried Alive under Coverture 21
- Wollstonecraft’s Prosecution of Gothic Laws 23
- Outlaw Texts: Novels That Don’t Police 28

CHAPTER 2
Legislative Histories and Literary Herstories: Infanticide, Bastardy, and the “Lewd Woman” 33

- The Law’s “Truth” about Infanticide and the Literary Judgment of Hetty Sorrel 36
- Evidence to the Contrary: Infanticide in Outlaw Texts 41
- Frances Trollope’s Jessie Phillips: What about Her Story? 43
CHAPTER 3
Birth Control on Trial: Law, Literature, and Libel

Annie Besant Defends "A Dirty, Filthy Book"
Margaret Dunmore: or, A Socialist Home: Jane Clapperton’s Literary Trial of Family Planning
From the Obscene to the Offensive: Birth-Control Advocate Marie Stopes Sues for Libel

CHAPTER 4
Sitting in Judgment: A Cross-Examination of Women, Law, and Empire

Judge-Made Law: Attempts to Regulate a Growing Concern
She-who-must-be-obeyed: Queen of the Imagination
Mary Slessor: White Queen of the Okoyong
Women in the Legal Profession: “She” Makes It

CHAPTER 5
Appealing Women: Late-Century Publication of Private Wrongs

“A sort of legal Donna Quixote”: Georgina Weldon’s Multiple Appeals
The Clitheroe Case: Appealing to Public Opinion
Narrative Appeals in New Woman Novels

AFTERWORD

Table of Acts
Notes
Bibliography
Index