Apostasy and Jewish identity in High Middle Ages Northern Europe

Simha Goldin

Published by Manchester University Press

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/51367

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1958007
Contents

Preface .................................................. vii
List of leading figures ............................... xii
List of abbreviations .................................. xiii

1 Early beginnings .................................. 1
2 Forced conversion during the First Crusade 22
3 Theological confrontation with Christianity’s success 31
4 Self-definition and halakhah .................. 52
5 Attitudes towards women ....................... 77
6 Alternative perspectives: The literature of pietists (Ashkenazic hasidim) 95
7 Converts to Judaism ............................... 100
8 Conclusions: The change in mentality ....... 112

Bibliography ......................................... 130
Index .................................................. 136