Contents

Member Institution Acknowledgments v
Glossary vii

Introduction by Ashwin Ravikumar and Paul A. Schroeder Rodríguez xi

Part I: Chronicles of an Anti-Mining Campaign 1
  1. How the Anti-Mining Struggle Gave Shape to our Community 3
  2. First Anti-Mining Journey 13
  3. Puerto Rican Culture: A Tool for Resistance 31
  4. The Birth of Casa Pueblo 41
  5. The First Steps towards Sustainability 47
  6. It's Decided: We Say No to Mining! 55

Part II: A Territorial Approach to Water and Forests 79
  7. Moving from Protest to Propositions 81
  8. The Self-Governing Community Builds Alternatives 97
9. From Local to National Territorial Management 119
10. From Local Action to Global Connections: Casa Pueblo in the Global Network of Model Forests 141

Part III: Self-Sustainability with a Planetary Agenda 149

Notes 199

Bibliography 203