Contents

Editor’s foreword 9
   Roland Kupers

Preface 13
   Peter Voser

Turbulence – by way of an introduction 17
   Michel Liès

Part I Introduction to RAI

1 The Resilience action initiative: An introduction 23
   Maike Böggemann and Norbert Both
   Understanding the ‘stress nexus’ 24
   The Resilience Action Initiative 26
   Definition of resilience 27
   The RAI approach 28
   Knowledge projects 30
   The challenges of resilience in practice 31
   Broader sharing and dialogue 32
   Collaboration and leadership 33

Part II The resilience lens

2 A pragmatic frame to explore resilience 37
   Marco Albani and Roland Kupers
   A diagnostic frame 38
   Beyond a diagnostic frame 42
      The boundary conundrum 43
      The difficult relationship between efficiency and resilience 43
      Dealing with multiple scales 44
      Making system assumptions explicit 45
   Open questions and dilemmas 46
3 A resilience lens for enterprise risk management
   David N. Bresch, Jaap Berghuijs, Rainer Egloff and Roland Kupers
   Enriching corporate risk management 49
   Structural resilience 52
   Integrative resilience 56
   Transformative resilience 60

4 Multi-sector collaboration for resilience
   Mark Smith
   Change for resilience 68
   Collaboration for systemic change 69
   Applying collaboration to resilience 73
   Conclusion: A collaborative agenda for resilience 77

5 Building resilience through teamwork
   Seven tips to make it work
   Marco Albani and Kimberly Henderson

Part III Resilience in action

6 The case for green infrastructure
   Neil C. Hawkins and Glenn Prickett
   Introduction and objective 88
   Green infrastructure: Concept and definition 89
   Green infrastructure: Solution examples 89
   Identifying areas of opportunity 94
   Key conclusions 96
   Moving forward 98

7 Nexus! Resilience in a pressure cooker
   Herman van der Meyden
   The game development process 101
   The game mechanics 102
   Simulating aspects of resilience 105
   Insights from a year of Nexus! sessions 109