Elephant

LEDLOWE GUTHRIE

It pushed our pillows apart and though I wanted to it dragged my head away when you kissed me

It hunched your shoulders closed filled your body with stones pulled you into the darkness

From safe distances conversations skirted clung in corners stretched along walls

Like a leech it swelled sucked you dry and empty a dusty lake bed

It swallowed your loud words wrapped your voice in grass so when we talked it hid your sound from me

Then like the shedding of a skin grown old the unexpected turn of a season You unfurled and breathed.
