Preternatural

Celina Jeffery, Levi S. Bryant

Published by Punctum Books

Jeffery, Celina and Levi S. Bryant.
Preternatural.

⇒ For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/76531

🔗For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2681723

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This exhibition and catalogue were made possible by the efforts of many people. I am indebted to the artists and venues for their participation and enthusiastic support of the show. In particular, I would like to thank Patrick McDonald and Emily Bergsma at St. Brigid’s Centre for the Arts; Patrick Mikhail at the Patrick Mikhail Gallery; and Carol Campbell and Daniel Boivin at the Canadian Museum of Nature. The Museum of Nature exhibition would not have been complete without the careful consideration and creative input of Daniel Boivin. I’d also like to give special thanks to Monty Reid who helped initiate the project at the Museum of Nature. I am extremely grateful to the Evergreen Foundation for their support of the show at the Canadian Museum of Nature. I would like to express gratitude to Her Excellency Else Berit Eikeland, Ambassador of Norway, and the US Embassy for their generous support of Anne Katrine Senstad and Sarah Walko, respectively. I am indebted to The Canada Council for the Arts for their support of the exhibition.

The following people have also contributed significantly to the development of the exhibition and catalogue for which I am most appreciative: Penny Cousineau-Levine; Zarina Mail; Britta Evans Fenton; Megan Toye; and Tiffany Tse amongst others at the University of Ottawa. In particular, I’d like to thank Natasha Chaykowski for her position as curatorial assistant throughout the research and production of this exhibition — her efforts have made this exhibition possible. I am grateful to Jeffrey Keshan at the Experiential Learning Service and Alastair Mullin at the University of Ottawa for their advice and support in the initial development of the project. I am indebted to the assistance of Nancy Webb and Jaenine Parkinson who assisted in the publicity and marketing for the show. I would also like to thank Galerie Barbara Thumm, Berlin for their assistance. Finally, I would also like to thank Gregory Minissale for his consistent encouragement and my collaborators at Drain Magazine: A Journal of Contemporary Art and Culture.

I am indebted to the artists and venues for their participation and enthusiastic support of the show.

The artists would like to thank the following galleries, institutions and individuals for their support: Marie-Jeanne Musiol — Pierre-François Ouellette art contemporain, Montréal; Andrew Wright — The Canada Council for the Arts, The Ontario Arts Council and Christopher Solar; Adrian Göllner would like to thank Andrew Wright (photo credit), the City of Ottawa, and the Ontario Arts Council; Avantika Bawa — Saltworks Gallery (Atlanta, Georgia), Gallery Maskara (Mumbai, India), and Washington State University, Vancouver, WA; Shin Il Kim — Gallery Simon (Seoul, Korea) and Riccardo Crespi Gallery (Milan, Italy); Mariele Neudecker — Galerie Barbara Thumm; Anne Katrine Senstad — The Royal Norwegian Embassy in Ottawa, Manuel Sander, Benny Mouthon, CAS, The Norwegian Visual Artists Remuneration Fund / Billedkunstnernes Vederlagsfond, and The Royal Norwegian Consulate General Houston; and finally, Sarah Walko would like to thank collaborators Cindy Hartness-Crane, Anna Drastik, and Magali Poirier-McDowell.