This antagonism between believers and philosophers is instrumentalized, according to some, as a civilization war alibi. BUT. Remember the debate during the Enlightenment between Diderot and Kant, between the construction of knowledge from the sciences to the notion of the sublime ... from the Encyclopaedia to the Black Forest, from the philosopher Sri Ganapati Vedeshwar, living in Gokarna, to the Community of Hindu Believers. A true story.