PUNCTUM BOOKS is an independent, open-access publisher dedicated to radically creative modes of intellectual inquiry and writing across a whimsical para-hum-anities assemblage. We solicit and pimp quixotic, sagely mad engagements with textual thought-bodies, and provide shelters for intellectual vagabonds.

This work carries a Creative Commons BY-NC-SA 4.0 International license, which means that you are free to copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format, and you may also remix, transform and build upon the material, as long as you clearly attribute the work to the authors, you do not use this work for commercial gain in any form whatsoever, and that for any remixing and transformation, you distribute your build under the same license.

'In this book, we see Lafia take up cinema — its history, its grandeur, its rules — and apply the conditions of this new, ubiquitous, always-on recording world in order to forge and proffer something new, something relevant, something beautiful: a cinema of the everyday that is anything but everyday. A cinema that is extraordinary.'
