CONTENTS

Introduction                                      13
Crisis                                           15
An Age of Infrastructure                         17
Onward                                           18

1. Taking It Off the Streets: From Ritual to Resistance 23
   Building Infrastructures of Resistance           24
   Unions                                          26
   Conclusion                                      28

2. Anarchist Logistics:
   Sustaining Resistance beyond Activism and Insurrection 31
   Preparation is Key                                 32
   Insurrection                                      34
   Logistical Anarchy                                 35

3. I Want a Riot: Us versus Them on the Streets     39
   On the Streets: Forms of Action from Demonstrations and Protests to Riots 40
   On Social Control and State Violence              44
   The Conscience Collective of the Riot: Breaking Inhibitions 49

4. The Call for Insurrection                       53
   On Insurrectionism                                54
   The Red Herring of Violence                       55
   Community Connections for Insurrection           56
   Conclusion                                       61
5. To the Barricades?
The Limited Infrastructures of the Streets 65
The Heyday of the Barricade 66
The Need of Neighborhoods 71
On the Streets 73

6. Protect Ourselves: On the Necessity of Self-Defense 75
Collective Self-Defense 76
Desire Armed 78
Repression 80
Not Party Time: On Wrong Conclusions 81
Mass or Activist? 82
There Will Be Blood 83

7. Insurrectionary Infrastructures:
Bases for Offense and Defense 87
Breaking Hegemony through Self-Activity 89
Neighborhood Assemblies 92
Rank-and-File Organizing and the Wildcat 92
On Insurrectionary Infrastructures 94
Symbols of Futility 97
A Note on Reproductive Labor 100
Conclusion 100