Book in Shadow, Shadow in Book
The book holds a shadow & the shadow casts the book. The shed holds the shadow & the book. There is a shadow on the shed & a shadow in the vast heart of the shed. The forest holds the shed & the book & the book is a forest & the shed casts a shadow over the book. It is said by whom a book is another & it is said by whom a shadow is another & it is said by whom there is no monster but there is a shadow in the book & there is a book in the shadow & the book casts the shadow & the shadow casts the book.
