Contents

Preface 1

Introduction 5

Peter Worsley

Part I
On peasants and national integration

Perspectives for the Study of the Peasantry and national integration

Celma Agüero, Susana B.C. Devalle, Michiko Tanaka 45

The peasants and the Project for National integration in Contemporary India

Bipan Chandra 51

Ethnicity, peasantry and National Integration

Darcy Ribeiro 83

The difficult pluralism: multiethnicity and national revolution in Peru

Stefano Varese 99

Part II
Attempts at Integration

Integration and politicization (towards a radical redefinition of integration)

Jorge R. Serrano 115

National integration of the peasantry: the case of Japan

Harushige Yamasaki 139
Comments

Ciro F. S. Cardoso 153

Cooperativism and its role in the disintegration of the peasantry

Ursula Oswald 157

Philippine agrarian policy today: implementation and political impact

David Wurzel 171

Peasant mobilization in Java: conflict-model strategy in rural development

Gerrit Huizer 199

Peasants and national integration in the Maghreb: why does agrarian reform not mobilise the peasants of Maghreb?

Abdelkader Zghal 215

Sinarquismo or the revolutionary detour of the right-wing

Jean Meyer 237

The peasantry and the ethnic factor: the adivasis from Chota Nagpur (India)

Susana B. C. Devalle 247

The role of Egyptian peasants in the 1919 revolution

Mohamed Ahmed Anis 257

Economic conditions for broadening the geographical horizon of peasant awareness in the Edo era

Toshio Furushima 271

Senegal-peasants and nation, prospects for horizontal integration

Celma Agüero 277

West Malaysia: a case of a late-developing peasant problem

P. L. Burns 297

Final debate 321