Acknowledgements

We are truly grateful for the collaboration with, and the contributions of, the authors gathered in this book. Without great authors, editors are to no avail. In collaborative spirit, they provided insightful and original analyses that all contribute to the overall argument of this book. Many authors volunteered to review each other’s chapters. Additional insights were gained from the reviews by Katharina Wesolowski, Sarah Kuypers and Jasper ‘t Jong.

The editorial assistance of Anna Kahlmeter was more than we could have hoped for. Her contributions to the quality of writing and consistency in this volume, and in particular her critical reading of the chapters, have not gone unnoticed.

Our final acknowledgement is to Jaap Dronkers, who passed away during the preparation of this book. We are honoured that he agreed to contribute to this book. He was, and still is, one of the greats.
