This volume originated from a book-making workshop that the editors convened in the summer of 2019 at Goethe University Frankfurt. The workshop took place at the Research Centre Normative Orders and was funded by the Hessian Ministry of Higher Education, Research, Science and the Arts, whose generous support we gratefully acknowledge. For their encouragement and thoughtful comments on the book proposal we would like to thank the editorial board of the Bristol Studies in International Theory series, in particular Stefano Guzzini. Nick Onuf and two anonymous reviewers also provided very helpful and constructive advice on the manuscript. Steven Wenham, Caroline Astley and Lorna Blackmore from Bristol University Press and Dawn Preston from Newgen Publishing accompanied the manuscript from proposal to production stage with great enthusiasm and professionalism. Not least, we are indebted to our student assistants Jens Bartsch, Florian Hubert, Yannick Laßhof and Fenja Meinecke who greatly helped us with the organization of the workshop and the preparation of the manuscript.
