What Works in Improving Gender Equality

Rummery, Kirstein, McAngus, Craig

Published by Bristol University Press

Rummery, Kirstein and Craig McAngus.
What Works in Improving Gender Equality: International Best Practice in Childcare and Long-term Care Policy.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/83127.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/83127
Index

A
aims of research 13–15
anti-androcentralisation principle
  Partnership Model 48
  childcare 159, 160
  long-term care 144, 145
Universal Model 31
  childcare 156, 158
  long-term care 159–160, 161
anti-exploitation principle
  Partnership Model 48
  childcare 144, 145
  long-term care 144, 145
Universal Model 31
  childcare 142–143
  long-term care 143–144
anti-marginalisation principle
  Partnership Model 48
  childcare 155, 157
  long-term care 156, 157
Universal Model 31
  childcare 153, 154, 158
  long-term care 155, 156
anti-poverty principle
  Partnership Model 48
  of childcare 141, 142
  of long-term care 142, 143
Universal Model 31
  of childcare 141
  of long-term care 141, 142
attitudes see cultural attitudes, views of stakeholders

C ‘care gap’, unpaid leave 19 care model fairest to women see fairest care model care policies—gender equality link, stakeholder views 136–137 care workers’ pay and conditions 126–129 childcare and working mothers 120–125 formal provision of social care, need for 125–126 funding and political priorities 130–133 solutions from Partnership Model 135 solutions from Universal Model 134 care workers
overrepresentation of women 56–57 pay and conditions 88–89, 126–129 rights of, Universal Model 86
trade union support 62, 89
training 61, 87, 127
valuing of
  Partnership Model 57, 64, 90
  Universal Model 28, 56, 82, 150–151, 155
career breaks, penalty for taking 7–8 Centre on Constitutional Change 13

child poverty fundamental drivers of 123–124 link with women’s inequality 124–125 and mother’s poverty and access to work 8, 10 childcare costs and spending, OECD countries 9–10

childcare and gender equality 7–10
Partnership Model 39–40, 54–55
and better gender equality 57–58
and failure to improve gender equality 65–67 ideas, institutions and actors 62–64
transferability 72, 74–78

Universal Model of 54
and better gender equality 55–57
failure to improve gender equity 64–65 ideas, institutions and actors 58–62
policy transfer 69–72, 73

childcare work see care workers choice, Partnership Model offering 42, 44, 45–46, 63, 66, 82–83, 88 communities

informal role in Universal Model 23, 33 significant role in Partnership Model 42–43, 44, 50 comparative policy research 11–12 methods and finding 12–15 constitutions, formal written 27

Danish 58–59, 84
Icelandic 58, 84, 89
role of gender equality in 111, 114–115 Swedish 59, 84–85
cost of childcare in OECD countries 9–10 countries for research, method of finding 14 cultural attitudes, views of stakeholders 105–111, 133, 136 to gender equality and care work 105–109 to state provision of welfare, childcare and long-term care services 109–111 to welfare and gender equality, potential to change 112–113

D
Daly, M., ‘family breadwinner’ welfare state 36 day care, formal provision Partnership Model 49
Germany 36, 37
Netherlands 38, 42
Universal Model 27–28
Denmark 17–18
Iceland 18–19
Sweden 19–20
decision-making power, equal sharing of 5

Denmark, Universal Model of care 17–18 equal access to work score 60
equal sharing of money score 56, 60
equal sharing of time score 55, 59
% of GDP spent on services 21, 65, 90
gender equality and the Constitution 58–59, 84
public provision of childcare 60 sharing of public political power 59 workforce in social care and health 87 diffusion of ideas see policy transfer disabled people
actors in the Universal Model 87
care for, Iceland 19
direct payments for, Netherlands 38, 50 early years childcare 8 lack of universal, impact of 46 leading into early years education 59 social and economic returns from investment in 65 educational (under)attainment 4, 8 and use of day care/preschool 25, 36, 39–40 elderly people see older people elected policymakers, actors in Universal Model 61, 86 equality of respect principle see respect equality ‘equality versus difference’, feminist debate 6 ‘equity’ between genders, Fraser 6–7 seven principles of 139–140
care model fairest to women 140–162
and Partnership Model 47–48 and Universal Model 30, 31
Esping-Andersen, G., ‘corporatist’ welfare state 36
European Employment Strategy 3, 4
European Gender Equality Index 4–5, 7, 140
Nordic states 30, 32
participation in paid work 56, 82
sharing of public political power 59, 85
overall care equality policy index 160–162
family care/carers
Iceland 19
Partnership Model 43, 51
Sweden 20
Universal Model 23–24, 86–87
Finland 115
flexible working, Netherlands 39, 47, 48
formal social care, need for 125–126
Fraser, N., gender equity 6–7
seven principles of 139–140
care model fairest to women 140–162
and the Partnership Model 47–48
and the Universal Model 30, 31
funding of services
stakeholder views 118–120, 130–133
state provision, Universal Model 22, 32, 55, 84
through tax and insurance, Partnership Model 43, 47, 51

gender equality
and childcare 7–10
and long-term care 10–11
meaning of 3–7
gender pay gap 5
Denmark 18
due to undervaluing of women’s work 106, 127–128
Iceland 19
‘motherhood’ penalty contributing to 26
and occupational segregation 56–57, 82
smaller in Universal Model 86
gendered division of labour 3–4, 11–12 cultural attitudes toward 108–109

failures
Partnership Model 90–91
Universal Model 89–90
fairest care model 139–140 anti-androcentralisation 156–160 anti-exploitation 142–146 anti-marginalisation 153–156 anti-poverty 141–142
equality of respect 150–153 income inequality 146–148 leisure time equality 138–150

overall care equality policy index 160–162
family care/carers
Iceland 19
Partnership Model 43, 51
Sweden 20
Universal Model 23–24, 86–87
Finland 115
flexible working, Netherlands 39, 47, 48
formal social care, need for 125–126
Fraser, N., gender equity 6–7
seven principles of 139–140
care model fairest to women 140–162
and the Partnership Model 47–48
and the Universal Model 30, 31
funding of services
stakeholder views 118–120, 130–133
state provision, Universal Model 22, 32, 55, 84
through tax and insurance, Partnership Model 43, 47, 51

gender equality
and childcare 7–10
and long-term care 10–11
meaning of 3–7
gender pay gap 5
Denmark 18
due to undervaluing of women’s work 106, 127–128
Iceland 19
‘motherhood’ penalty contributing to 26
and occupational segregation 56–57, 82
smaller in Universal Model 86
gendered division of labour 3–4, 11–12
cultural attitudes toward 108–109
Partnership Model’s ideological support for 66–67, 78 gendered expectations of unpaid care 105–108, 158 see also family care/carers gendered valuations of occupations 129 Germany, Partnership Model of care 36–37 care workers valued more 64, 88–89 cash benefits for women’s care labour 37, 49
EGEI scores 41, 57, 58, 63, 83
% of GDP spent on services 41, 74, 75, 99 healthcare, insurance schemes funding 47 long-term care insurance 36–37
market choice 42
private day care 49
governance issues, stakeholder views 136 national and regional/municipal policy 115–118 relationship between the state and providers 118–120 role of gender equality in the constitution 111–115 solutions for dealing with 121
equal sharing of time score 55, 59
% of GDP spent on services 21, 65, 90
gender equality and the Constitution 58, 84
public provision of childcare 60
sharing of public political power 59, 85
ideologies of Universal Model
gender equality 58–59, 84–85
link to institutions 60 social citizenship 59–60, 84 universal access to work 60 income inequality principle
Partnership Model 48
of childcare 146–147
of long-term care 147–148
Universal Model 31
of childcare 146
of long-term care 146, 147
individuals, involvement/responsibility of in Partnership Model 43, 51
in the Universal model 24 infrastructure of care, public investment in 24–25, 65, 89–90, 129 institutional support for
Partnership Model 63–64
institutions of Universal Model 60–61 national vs local welfare 85–86 nature of welfare state 85 rights of care workers 86
insurance schemes,
Germany 36–37, 47
inter- and intra-generational care 10, 24, 44

care

higher-income women
Germany 37
Netherlands 39
Partnership Model benefiting 42, 45–46, 50
home care services
Denmark 18
Iceland 19

Iceland, Universal Model of care 18–19
equal access to work score 60
equal sharing of money score 56, 60

K
key actors, Universal Model 61–62, 86–87 childcare workers 62 disabled and older people 87 elected policymakers 61–62, 86 long-term care workforce 87 potential unpaid/family carers 86–87
working parents 62
kinship networks 44
unpaid care of elderly
and disabled relatives,
Sweden 20, 32

M
market provision of formal care services
reduced role in Universal Model 22–23, 33
significant role in Partnership
Model 42, 50
maternity leave see parental leave men’s earnings 7
men’s involvement in caring gendered stereotypes preventing 106, 107, 108
low-income men not choosing to 83–84
Partnership Model not encouraging 45, 48
to avoid conscription 88
see also anti-androcentralisation principle
money, equal sharing of 4–5, 21, 41
Partnership Model 57, 63, 83
Universal Model 56, 60, 82

N
national vs local eligibility
for services,
policymaking 116–117
national vs local welfare, Universal Model 85–86
neoliberalism
Partnership Model 63, 87
political culture of UK 78, 97, 110–111
Netherlands, Partnership Model of
care 38–39
care work valued more 64, 88–89
EGEI scores 41, 57, 58, 63, 83
% of GDP spent on services 41,
74, 75, 99
long-term care 38, 40, 49–50
market choice 42
private childcare 38, 42, 49
Nordic states
   welfare model 20, 22, 30, 73, 97
   see also Denmark;
   Iceland; Sweden

norms of care
   cultural 28–29, 84, 107, 110 gendered 39, 105, 106–107, 108 social and emotional 12

O

occupational segregation 5, 7, 30, 56–57, 82

OECD countries
   cost of childcare 9–10
   older people
      actors in the Universal Model 87 attitudes to state provision of long-term care for 109–110
      care for, Iceland 19
      family support for 87
      home-based services, Sweden 20 home care services, Denmark 18 needs of, services not meeting 119
   see also long-term care

P

paid work, equal sharing of 4
   Partnership Model 41, 57, 63, 83
   Universal Model 21, 56, 81–82

parental leave
   benefits of shared 25
   Germany 36
   Iceland 18–19, 28–29, 55–56, 61
   Sweden 19–20, 55, 61

Partnership Model of care policy 35–36, 49–51
   advantages 44–45
   childcare 39–40, 54–55
      and better gender equality 57–58
      and failure to improve gender equality 65–67
   ideas, institutions and actors 62–64
   transferability 72, 74–78
drawbacks 45–46

Germany 36–37, 41
linking to gender equality outcomes 135, 136
long-term care 40, 80–81
   and better gender equality 82–84 failure to improve gender equality 90–91
ideas, institutions and actors 87–89 transferability of policy 94, 97–100, 101
the Netherlands 38–39, 41
notes of caution 47
progress in achieving gender equity 47–48 role of the state, the market, communities, families and individuals 40–43 transferable features 46–47 paternity leave see parental leave pay and conditions for care workers 126–129

Plantenga, J. 6–7
European Gender Equality Index 4–5, 140
playgroups, publicly funded, Netherlands 38 policy change leading to cultural change, Universal Model 28–29

policy transfer 67–68, 160–161
   features of successful 68, 93
   Partnership Model 72, 74–76, 98–100
   Universal Model 69–71, 95–96
   key transferable features of Partnership Model 46–47
      of Universal Model 27–29 mitigating circumstances/conditions 69, 93
Partnership Model 77–78, 101
Universal Model 72, 73, 97
model to adopt in the UK 72, 76, 78 political priorities, change required 130–133 poverty of women
  Partnership Model increasing 36, 46
  Partnership model’s aims at reducing 82–83 Universal Model reducing 25, 28, 30

see also anti-poverty principle; child poverty pre-primary care, spending on 9–10 private childcare centres, Netherlands 38, 42

Q
qualifications, Germany and Netherlands for childcare 64
  for long-term care 88

R
regional/municipal policy 115–118 regulatory framework, partnership Model 40–41, 50 respect equality
  Partnership Model 48, 151–153, 154
  Universal Model 31, 150–151

S
Scotland
  childcare services in 120 commitment to reducing inequalities 124 independence referendum (2014) 13, 111 lack of tax revenue control 118 long-term care workers 89–90, 127
  stakeholder views 108, 110, 114
  shared care/shared work approach, Netherlands 38–39 social capital, communities 43, 44, 50 social care
    funding and political priorities 131, 133
    investment in 129
need for state provision of 125–126 overrepresentation of women in 82 pay and conditions worsening 128–129 training and regulation 87, 127
social citizenship 59–60, 84, 89
social networks, support provided by 43, 50
stakeholder views 103
cultural issues 105–111 attitudes to gender equality and care work 105–109 attitudes to state intervention in care services 109–111 governance issues 111–120
  relationship between the state and providers 118–120
  role of gender equality in the constitution 111–115 role of national and regional/municipal policy 115–118 linking care policies to gender equality 120–133 care workers’ pay and conditions 126–129
childcare and working mothers 120–125
formal social care, need for 125–126
funding and political priorities 130–133
methods and data 104
summary 133–137
the state
  attitudes to state provision of care services 109–111 relationship with service providers 118–120 role of in Universal Model 22, 54, 60 role in Partnership model 35, 40–42, 45, 50, 51, 54–55, 63, 88
Sure Start, UK 8
Sweden, Universal Model of care 19–20
equal access to work score 60
equal sharing of money
score 56, 60
equal sharing of time score 55, 59–60 % of GDP spent on services 21, 65, 90 gender equality and the Constitution 59, 84–85
public provision of childcare 60 sharing of public political power 59, 85

T
third sector providers 23, 43 time, equal sharing of 5 and equality of respect 150, 152
Iceland 55–56, 59, 61
leisure time 148–150, 151
trade union support
Partnership model 66, 89, 91
Universal Model 61, 62
training
childcare workforce 61
and gendering of occupations 129
long-term care workers 87, 127
two-tier care system, market providing formal care 42, 50

U
UK
childcare and gender equality 56–57, 58, 59, 64, 65
policy transfer 70–78
comparison with Partnership
Model 41
comparison with Universal Model 21
long-term care and gender equality 82, 87, 88–89, 90
policy transfer 94–101
stakeholder views
childcare costs as barrier to work 120–121
gender equality not a political priority 131
increased taxes for better public services 109–110, 131
investment in universal childcare, need for more 130 neoliberal political culture 110–111
underemployment of women, reasons for 7, 28, 36, 46 undervaluing of women’s labour 106, 108–109, 127–128 universal caregiver model, Fraser (1997) 4, 6, 139–140
how the Partnership Model
measures up to 48
how the Universal Model
measures up to 31
Universal Model of care policy 17, 30–33
advantages 24–26
childcare 54
and better gender equality 55–57
failure to improve gender equity 64–65
ideas, institutions and
actors 58–62
policy transfer 69–72, 73
drawbacks of 26
linking to gender equality outcomes 133–134
long-term care 80
and better gender equality 81–82
failure to improve gender equality 89–90
ideas, institutions and
actors 84–87
policy transfer 92–94, 95–96, 97
Nordic states: Denmark, Iceland and Sweden 17–22
notes of caution 29–30
progress in achieving gender equity 31
role of the state, the market, communities, families and individuals 22–24
transferable features 27–29
unpaid care/carers see family care/carers
unpaid and paid work, equal sharing of 5, 6, 55, 77, 140

V

valuing of care work
Partnership Model 57, 64, 90
Universal Model 56, 82, 150–151, 155

W

welfare state
as institution for Universal Model 85

national vs local 85–86 women’s labour reliance on as carers, Partnership Model 40, 45 valued, Universal Model 28, 150–151, 155 working mothers
and care policies 120–125
and childcare costs 120–121 part-time in Netherlands 38 and unequal time sharing 55–56