Contents

List of figures
List of tables
List of boxes
Notes on contributors
Acknowledgments

Introduction

Barbara Harriss-White and Lucia Michelutti

1. The criminal economics and politics of black coal in Jharkhand, 2014
   Nigel Singh and Barbara Harriss-White
   35

2. Jharia’s century-old fire kept ablaze by crime and politics
   Smita Gupta
   68

3. Sand and the politics of plunder in Tamil Nadu, India
   J. Jeyaranjan
   92

4. Himalayan ‘hydro-criminality’? Dams, development and politics in Arunachal Pradesh, India
   Deepak K. Mishra
   115

5. Crime in the air: spectrum markets and the telecommunications sector in India
   Jai Bhatia
   140

6. The inter-state criminal life of sand and oil in North India
   Lucia Michelutti
   168

7. ‘Red sanders mafia’ in South India: violence, electoral democracy and labour
   David Picherit
   194

8. The ‘land and real estate mafia’, West Bengal, East India
   Tone K. Sissener
   215
9. Politics, capital and land grabs in Punjab, India
   Nicolas Martin

10. The politics of contracting in provincial Bangladesh
    Arild Engelsen Ruud

11. Putting out the Baldia factory fire:
    how the trial of Karachi’s industrial capitalism
    did not happen
    Laurent Gayer

Epilogue     South Asian criminal economies
             Barbara Harriss-White

Appendix    Laws alleged or established to have been broken – with main offenders 352

Glossary
Index

vi    CONTENTS