Impact of Migration on Poland

White, Anne, Grabowska, Izabela, Kaczmarczyk, Pawel, Slany, Krystyna

Published by University College London

White, Anne, et al.
Impact of Migration on Poland: EU Mobility and Social Change.
University College London, 2018.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/81918.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/81918
List of figures

Fig. 4.1  Combined set of features of an agent of change  84
Fig. 5.1  Labour market development in Poland, 2004–17  92
Fig. 5.2  Migration from Poland (stock of temporary migrants staying abroad) and Polish labour market, 2004–17  93
Fig. 5.3  Migration from Poland (stock of temporary migrants staying abroad) and selected macroeconomic variables, 2004–17  94
Fig. 5.4  Short- and medium-term effects of post-accession migration, Poland and other CEE countries, 2004–10, changes in per cent (GDP, real wages) or percentage points (unemployment rate)  98
Fig. 5.5  Students enrolled in tertiary education (ISCED 5–6) as percentage of the total population aged 20–4  103
Fig. 6.1  Contexts of social changes relating to migration and families in Poland today  115
Fig. 8.1  Share of Poles in different age groups possessing a self-declared ‘active’ knowledge of English, 2007–15  168