Fonthill Recovered

Dakers, Caroline

Published by University College London

Dakers, Caroline.
Fonthill Recovered: A Cultural History.
University College London, 2018.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/81924.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/81924

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2779258
Contents

List of Figures
v
Contributors
xxiii

1. Introduction, Caroline Dakers.

Part One: The narrative

2. The early history of Fonthill, David Roberts.

3. Fonthill from the Middle Ages to 1744: The first Fonthill House, Neil Burton.

4. The Beckford era, Amy Frost.

5. The break-up of the Fonthill estate, Caroline Dakers.

6. Fonthill in the nineteenth century, Caroline Dakers.

7. Fonthill in the twentieth century, Caroline Dakers.

Part Two: The essays

9. The geophysical survey west of Fonthill Lake, David Roberts.

10. The landscape of Fonthill, Min Wood.

11. The early paintings of Fonthill, Jeannie Chapel.

12. The Cottington and Bradshaw burials in Westminster Abbey, Susan Jenkins.

15. William Thomas Beckford: Between dalliance and duty, Lawrence Klein.
16. Reading Vathek and Fonthill Abbey: William Beckford’s architectural imagination, Peter N. Lindfield and Dale Townshend. 284

17. Fonthill and its Maecenae: Works of art lost and found, Martin P. Levy. 302

18. Little Ridge, Michael Drury. 316

19. The Smithsons at Upper Lawn Pavilion, Amy Frost. 331

20. Fonthill Abbey, terror and videogames at the British Library, Greg Buzwell. 341

21. Epilogue, Caroline Dakers. 345

Notes 349

Bibliography 384

Index 397