Grey Area
Jacques, Scott

Published by University College London

Jacques, Scott.
Grey Area: Regulating Amsterdam's Coffeeshops.
University College London, 2019.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/81371.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/81371

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2772696 Index

Note: Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations.

5 grams rule, violations of by employee discounts given to other people, 104–5 by larger sales to groups of people, 104 by larger sales to people from nearby countries, 102 by large single sales, 100–3 by multiple visits by a customer in a day, 99–100 by quantity discounts, 103–4 by small amounts, 100–3 more violations than of any other rule, 98–103 and requests for larger amounts by undercover police, 102–3

500 grams rule and ‘checking’ of stock, 28–32 checking stock through pen-and-paper method or electronic accounting, 29 includes pre-rolled joints and edibles, 31–2 off-premises stashing of stock, 38–9 responsibility of shop personnel for, 28 and storing of excess grams, 35–9 and ‘under the table’ deals, 27 violations of, 27–8

advertising avoided by majority of coffeeshops, 51–2 billboard deemed not in violation of advertising rule, 55 bongs and hookahs in coffeeshop windows, 56, 58 coffeeshop websites, 60–1 forbidden by government rules, 2 illegality of determined by images of and words used, 52–3 information in guidebooks, 59–60 internet sites and customer reviews, 60 logos of animals smoking joints, 58 memorabilia branded with logos, 51 public awareness announcements about ‘improper coffee use’ (invertisements), 53–5, 54, 58 use of palm trees in signage, 57, 58–9 use of Rasta colours and symbols, 57, 58, 59 word-of-mouth, 59

alcohol, in coffeeshops and alcohol-related illness, 126 attempts by customers to consume, 125–6 ban on selling or consuming, 125 and increased likelihood of customer aggression, 139–40

Amsterdam
1012 postal code, xiii coffeeshops in city centre, xiii–xiv fighting in bars in 1012 postal code, 124, 141 hard drug trade and use in 1012 postal code, 112, 113 permits for coffeeshops in jurisdiction, 2 trend towards cannabis legalisation, xviin4

Bentham, Jeremy, 22n32, 141
Bernasco, Wim, xix n6

cannabis
edibles, 31, 63
role of coffeeshops in separating cannabis and hard drug markets, 1–2, 111, 136, 141 variation in price and quality of available products, 105 see also hash; loose cannabis; marijuana

Cannabis Cup see High Times Cannabis Cup cleaners, of coffeeshops, 13 closure, of coffeeshops for rule violations closure for violation of minors rule, 72, 75 closure for violations of 500 grams rule, 23 closure for violations of hard drugs rule, 112 closure for violations of nuisance rule, 135n4 effect on employees, 11, 15–16 temporary or permanent closing of, 7–8

Coffeeshop Directory, 66, 67–8, 71n19, 79, 95, 106, 107

Coffeeshop Guide Amsterdam, 60
coffeeshops
Amsterdam city centre, xiii–xiv decline in numbers since mid-1990s, xixn19 drug policy reform in many nations, xii goal of separating cannabis and hard drug markets, 1–2, 111, 136, 141 highly regulated, xii, 1 tourist demand for products, 49
consumption requirements disgruntled customers, 67–70 prohibition of outside food, drinks and cannabis products, 63–4 requirement for cannabis purchase dependent on size of shop and timing, 65–7
requirement of cannabis purchase at some shops, 65
requirements used to control homeless persons, 64
dealer counter, where cannabis is sold, 29, 49n8
dealers, focus on selling cannabis; may serve food and drinks, 13
deterrence and behaviour, 119, 141, 142n17 de Vries, Benny, xixn16
discounts and freebies employee discounts offered to non-employees, 104–5
non-cannabis freebies, 106 quantity discounts, 103–4 doormen, infrequent use of, 73, 88, 116 Dutch cannabis policy see Netherlands cannabis policy
economics, coffeeshop ability of coffeeshops to sell licences, 10 average annual profits, 8–9, 22 n22 for sale price estimates, 8–9, 10–11 importance of range of quality products, 48 weekly sales and number of customers, 8–9, 10
edibles, 31, 63
ethnic minority patrons culturally based methods for creating discomfort for, 96n12 suspicion of white personnel against Moroccan, Antillean and Surinamese
persons, 75–6, 113–14
fighting
among coffeeshop customers, 123–4, 141 in Amsterdam bars, 124, 141 fraud see rip-offs
free-weight system, of selling loose cannabis, 30–1, 105–6
government bodies regulating coffeeshops, 21n10
Haarlemmerstraat, xiii
hard drugs (Category I), illicit substances deemed to have health risks, 1, 21n6 hard drugs rule
ban on sale of hard drugs in coffeeshops, 111 and inability of coffeeshop personnel to control actions of patrons, 112–13 interpretation of rule by coffeeshop personnel and police as ban on hard drugs on the premises, 111 see also hard drugs rule, management of hard drugs rule, management of appearance- and behavioral-based signals of hard drug possessors, 113–14 calling or threatening to call police, 118, 121n15
‘cool’ and ‘hot’ methods of expelling possessors, 117–18, 121n13 and customers’ attempts to purchase or use hard drugs, 115
distancing of possessors, 116–18 rule signs against hard drugs, 89 and street dealers, 114–15, 118–20, 121 n17 hash
blocks of, 31
hard, clay-like substance made from resin of marijuana, 30
import of, 43
price range of types, 62–3 separate menu listing from marijuana, 62–3 hats and sunglasses
associated with ethnically Moroccan, Antillean and Surinamese persons, 75–6, 113–14
associated with street dealers of hard drugs, 74
bans on as tool for keeping out unwanted people, 76–7
bans on for reasons of respect and politeness, 78
rule signs against in interviewed
coffeeshops, 83–5
High Times Cannabis Cup, world’s leading marijuana trade show, 37, 50n14, 63, 71n17, 90
house rules
as aids to compliance with government rules, 76
bans against hats and sunglasses, 78–9, 83–5, 113–14
bans against mobile phones, 77–8, 83–5 bans against weapons, 83–5 barring patrons with no ID, 91–2 ‘communicated’ and ‘actual’ reasons for rules, 78–9
consumption requirements, 63–70
and guidance for employees in conveying rules to customers, 79–80 informal rules based on preferences of shop personnel, 77–9
part information, part impression management, 86–7
variable enforcement, 89–90 see also consumption requirements; hats and sunglasses; rule signs Howard, John, The State of the Prisons in England and Wales, 97n20 identification (IDs), checking of ‘ask-if-in-doubt’ policies, 95 and barring of patrons with no ID, 91–2 and differences between personnel, 97n30 and fake IDs, 92–3
government-inspired rule, 74, 90
ID-related conflicts, 93, 96 and repeat customers, 94–5 rule signs related to in interviewed coffeeshops, 85–5, 91 indica, 63
invertisements, public awareness announcements about ‘improper coffee use’, 53–5, 54, 58 licences, coffeeshop issued and suspended by Amsterdam government, 2 new licences no longer issued by Amsterdam government, 10 renewal every three years, 21n11 selling of, 10
logos, 51, 58, 70n7
loose cannabis sold by free-weight system, 30–1, 105–6 sold by pre-weight system, 30–1, 105
marijuana
average number of strains sold at coffeeshops, 30 commonly seen strains, 62 green plant substance, 30 piece weighing about 0.5 to 1 gram, 30 memorabilia branded with coffeeshop logos, 51 may violate rule against advertising, 51 menus, cannabis advertising of quantity discounts, 103–4 available at dealer counter, 29 descriptions of products, 63 listing of more products than stocked, 32 lists of products and prices, 62 prices for pre-rolled joints and edibles, 63 restrictions on display and showing of, 62 separate hash listings, 62–3
Ministry of Health, Welfare, and Sport, 21n10
Ministry of Justice, 21n10
Ministry of the Interior and Kingdom Relations, 21n10 minors, rules against and bans against sunglasses and hats, 74–7, 83–5 government-based rules, 74 government-inspired rules, 74–7 and house rules see house rules infrequent use of doormen to guard against violators, 73 and raising of age limit, 97n26 sanctions for violations, 72, 90 and underage purchases from hard drug dealers, 96n2 see also identification (IDs), checking of mobile phones, house rules against, 77–8, 83–5 municipalities coffeeshop regulation structure, 21n10 see also Amsterdam
Netherlands cannabis policy allowance for personal growing of four cannabis plants per residence, 42 criminalisation, 1 goal of minimising hard drug consumption, 1–2, 111, 136, 141 maximum penalties for possession, cultivation, sale, transport and production, 1 policy on personal possession of cannabis, 99 regulation of coffeeshops, xii, 1; see also rules and regulations, government-based transformation of cannabis from crime risk to taxed good inside coffeeshops, 1–2 trend towards legalisation, xviii–n4 and utility of coffeeshop policy, xii, 140–2 nuisance, ban on and alcohol use, 125–6, 128, 132 and boorish and threatening behaviour, 122 broad interpretation of concept, 134n1 and fighting among customers, 123–4 and homeless individuals, 124–5, 128 and impoliteness, 122
and rowdiness, 123
use of rule to close a coffeeshop, 135n4 nuisance, management of customer compensation for actions, 135n18 denial of entry or expulsion of sources of nuisance, 127–8 management of by calling police, 133–4, 135n22 management of by helping sources of, 129–31, 135n17 management of by limiting amount of cannabis sold to people, 128–9 management of by physical expulsion, 132–4 management of by warnings, 131 and protection of atmosphere and customers of coffeeshops, 128 personnel, coffeeshop average salaries, 14
characteristics of, xiv–xviii cleaners, 13
dealers, 13
employment contracts, 14
holiday money, 15
obeying and breaking the rules, 15–20 positions of, 17–13
risk of termination for rule infractions, 16 runners, 13, 33
servers, 13
working ‘off the books’, 14–15 police checks, on coffeeshouses demeanour of officers, 5–6 demonstrations of coffeeshouse procedures for foreign police, 3 detaining of customers on premises until investigation is completed, 4–5 focused deterrence (‘pulling levers policing’), 21n12 minimum of two checks a year, 3 more frequent occurrence of checks at some coffeehouses, 3 and road blocks, 36
standard procedures for, 4–5 unannounced basis of checks, 2, 3, 23–4 pre-rolled joints, 31, 63 pre-weight system, of selling loose cannabis, 30–1, 105 proterrence, and coffeeshop rules, 16–17, 74, 118, 141 quantity discounts, advertised on cannabis menu, 103–4 Rasta motifs, xii, 57, 58, 59
restocking
performed by independent contractors, 35 performed by managers, 35 performed by owners and their families, 34–5 performed by runners, 13, 33, 36 personnel secrecy about, 33–4 usually performed during closing time, 32–3 see also suppliers Reynald, Danielle, xiv, xixn16 rip-offs/fraud
and customer expectations about quality, 106–7 and difficulty of weighing cannabis to precise amounts, 108–10 opportunities for when selling loose cannabis, 107, 108 and pre-weighted bags, 107–8 when advertised price per unit does not match amount received, 107 Rosenfeld, Jake, 22n26
Rosenfeld, Richard, 93, xixn16 rules and regulations, and criminalisation and legalisation, 141 rules and regulations, government-based ban against advertising, 2; see also advertising ban of hard drugs on premises, 2; see also hard drugs rule; hard drugs rule, management of ban on more than 500 grams of cannabis on the premises, 2; see also 500 grams rule ban on more than 5 grams of cannabis sold to a customer per day, 2; see also 5 grams rule ban on nuisance, 2; see also nuisance, ban on; nuisance, management of ban on patrons under 18 years of age; see minors, rules against and conflict between coffeeshop personnel and customers, 156–9 and objections to requiring coffeeshops to supply their businesses through the black market, 136 and problem of holding coffeeshop personnel responsible for customer behaviour, 112–13, 136 see also house rules rules and regulations, government-inspired, 74–7, 90 rule signs against hard drugs, 89
combining English and French to communicate ban on minors, 88 conveying implicit and explicit threats, 87, 97n23 government-based, 80–1, 82–3, 86 government-inspired, 80–1, 83–5, 86 government-unrelated, 86 ‘ID required’, 91
other, 80–1
prohibiting hats and sunglasses, 83–5 prohibiting mobile phones, 83–5 prohibiting weapons, 83–5 role of in crime and control, 97n20 used to inform and control patrons, 80 using universal ‘no’ symbol, 87 rule violations of 500 grams rule, 27–8 self-reported, 17–18, 19–20 see also closure, of coffeeshops for rule violations; 5 grams rule, violations of runners delivery of cannabis stock, 13, 33 may be asked to wait outside until existing supply is sold, 36 and risk of surprise police inspections, 36 sample-based suppliers, 44–8 sanctions, against coffeeshouse for rule infractions reduced sanctions for cooperation of personnel and reputation of coffeeshop, 6–7 sanctions for violations of rule against minors, 72, 90 temporary or permanent closing of coffeeshop for infractions, 7–8 see also closure, of coffeeshops for rule violations sativa, 63
Schofield, Philip, 22n32
servers, only serve food and drinks, 13 Snoop Dogg, 61
soft drugs (Category 2), those deemed to have a lesser health risk than hard drugs, 1, 21n6 space cookies, cakes, muffins and brownies, 31 Steves, Rick, 59–60
street dealers
association with wearing of hats and sunglasses, 74 deterrence from entering coffeeshops, 114–15, 118–20, 121n17, 142n9 sugar water, and cannabis-based illness, 129–31 suppliers
delivery times, 41
import of hash products, 43 and market price stability, 41–2 pricing, 47
regular suppliers, 41–2 reluctance of personnel to discuss, 39–41
sample-based suppliers, 44–8 sellers of personally grown stock, 42, 43–4 supply by middlemen and women, 42–3 supply from underground market, 39 supply
aspects of, 25–6
restocking, 32–5
van Gemert, Frank, xixn16, 21n13 weapons, house rule signs against, 83–5 websites, 60–1, 70–1n14
Wright, Richard, 93, xixn16