Rewriting Buddhism
Gornall, Alastair

Published by University College London

Gornall, Alastair.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/81889.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/81889

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2778289
Contents

List of maps viii
List of tables ix
List of figures x
Notes on the presentation of texts and sources xi
Acknowledgements xii

1. Introduction: Themes and theories  3

Part I: Chaos  17
2. Before 1165 and all that  19
3. The reform era and its Pali literature  36

Part II: Order  61
4. Scholarly foundations: Moggallāna’s grammar  63
5. Buddhist scholasticism: Sumaṅgala’s commentaries  88
6. Eschatological encyclopedism: Siddhattha’s anthology  119

Part III: Emotion  143
7. Sense and sensibility: Saṅgharakkhita’s poetics  145
8. The politics of relics: Dhammakitti’s history  168
9. Devotional power: Buddharakkhita’s Buddha biography  190
10. Conclusion: Other lives and afterlives  213

References  225
Index  255