List of figures

Fig. 1.1 Enjoying a cook-up with the extended family 13
Fig. 1.2 ‘Liming’ at the beach 14
Fig. 1.3 Making costumes for Carnival 14
Fig. 1.4 Map showing location of Trinidad and Tobago 17
Fig. 1.5 Attending a puja (Hindu prayers) 20
Fig. 1.6 Map of El Mirador proper 21
Fig. 1.7 A maxi (public mini-bus) approaching the centre of town 22
Fig. 1.8 Weekday morning on the main road, where traffic is often at a standstill and needs to be directed by a police officer 25
Fig. 1.9 A middle-class home next to a lower-income board house with a corrugated iron roof (to the left) 26
Fig. 1.10 A house from a low-income area 27
Fig. 2.1 Commentary on the television show Scandal posted to Facebook 34
Figs 3.1a, b Moral memes around relationships 62
Figs 3.2a, b Typical examples of memes with greetings posted by Deborah 63
Figs 3.3a, b Further examples of images that Deborah has posted to Facebook: (a) getting her nails done; (b) having her hair coloured 64
Figs 3.4a, b Christmas images posted to Facebook: (a) a decorated tree; (b) a mother and daughter posing with their newly dressed tree 66
Fig. 3.5 A Christmas greeting posted to Facebook 67
Fig. 3.6 A Valentine’s Day collage 67
Fig. 3.7 A birthday collage 68
Fig. 3.8 A family posing for a photo taken at a wedding 69
Fig. 3.9 Teenagers dancing on their graduation night 70
Fig. 3.10  Friends eating in a restaurant 70
Fig. 3.11  Trinidadian dishes prepared at home 71
Fig. 3.12  An example of social media photography 72
Fig. 3.13  Friends at a fete 73
Fig. 3.14  A pre-Carnival fete 73
Fig. 3.15  An opening of a theme night at a night club 74
Fig. 3.16  Image of a car posted by a young man 75
Fig. 3.17  Image showing friends posing with a car, posted by a young man 76
Fig. 3.18  A group of women posing with a car before going out 76
Fig. 3.19  Photo taken at a PNM (People’s National Movement) political campaign event 79
Fig. 3.20  Photo showing a group of friends at a PNM political campaign event 80
Fig. 3.21  A guest dressed for a Hindu wedding 81
Fig. 3.22  Photo of friends at a Hindu wedding 82
Figs 3.23a–c  Images of Bob Marley: (a) photo taken at a Bob Marley tourist site; (b) a meme posted to a timeline; (c) wearing a Bob Marley T-shirt 83
Figs. 3.24, 3.25  Memes appropriating ethnic stereotyping posted by young men 85
Figs 3.26a, b  Photos showing lifestyles of apparent affluence: (a) a day trip to a beach near Port of Spain; (b) posing with a car in a new outfit 87
Figs 3.27a–d  Typical lifestyle images posted to Instagram: (a) a holiday resort; (b) paragliding on holiday; (c) a new designer watch; (d) a cheese platter 89
Fig. 3.28  A collage from a cinema outing to see the film Iron Man 91
Fig. 3.29  A collage of an avocado 92
Figs 3.30a–c  Images posted by Dave to Instagram showing (a) fashion; (b) new branded goods; (c) new outfits 93
Figs 3.31a–c  Images posted to Instagram showing global influences: (a) food from Port of Spain; (b) and (c) holidays in the US 95
Figs 3.32a–c  Images posted to Instagram showing a trip to Cuba 97
Figs 3.33a–d  Images taken in El Mirador of popular fast food, a simple meal cooked at home and a bowl of the Trinidadian dish ‘cow heel soup’ 99
Figs 3.34a–c Images posted to Instagram by Glenn:
(a) a Hogwarts from Harry Potter keychain ordered online; (b) assorted novels showing literary taste; (c) an ornament in the shape of a hatching turtle

Figs 3.35a–c Images posted to Instagram by ‘Avi’: (a) a children’s party; (b) a new pair of Prada sunglasses; (c) wads of cash in $TT and $USD

Fig. 4.1 An extended family liming in the gallery of a home

Fig. 4.2 An image posted to Facebook by a father

Figs 5.1a–d Images of the market in El Mirador. Note the different ages of salespeople on market stalls; these are usually family-run for generations

Fig. 5.2 Image from the viral video of 2014

Fig. 5.3 Cover of Trinidad and Tobago’s newspaper Newsday, 24 April 2014

Fig. 5.4 Image from video of sisters defending their mother (modified to preserve anonymity)

Fig. 6.1 Dr Kublalsingh being interviewed by television journalists

Fig. 6.2 Dr Kublalsingh with musicians showing their support

Fig. 6.3 Results from the questionnaire section on ‘politics’ and Facebook

Fig. 6.4 Frequency of ‘liking’ and ‘sharing’ on Facebook

Fig. 6.5 Engagement with Facebook content which shows everyday concerns

Figs 6.6a, b Humorous memes about relationships, one commenting on ideal girlfriends and another joking about girlfriend problems

Fig. 6.7 Meme referring to the viral video of the mother giving her daughter licks in 2014

Figs 6.8a–d Memes shared during the World Cup 2014

Figs 6.9a–d Humorous postings on political topics: (a) ‘Legalise weed tancy (aunty) Kamla’; (b) Prime Minister Persad-Bissessar’s cabinet reshuffle; (c) Dr Kublalsingh’s contested second hunger strike; (d) Speaker of the House, Wade Mark