Thoughts

What do others think about me
Oh yes what do they think about me Am I really a traitor
Is it because I speak with your enemies that I am a traitor
Is it because I speak with your enemies that I know all about them and possess their agenda containing their rendezvous and even schedule their rendezvous

Get real!
That is not at all the case

When I speak with someone I do not seek to know their life Rather, if they think they can talk to me I can only lend an attentive ear to what they have to say
