Knowledge Production and Contradictory Functions in African Higher Education

Maassen, Peter, Cloete, Nico

Published by African Minds

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/39520

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1497507
ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Agnes Lutomiah is a Masters student in the Faculty of Education at the University of the Western Cape. Previously, she was an exchange student in the Masters of Philosophy in Higher Education programme offered by the Department of Educational Research at the University of Oslo.

Charles Sheppard is the Director of Management Information at the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University and a Research Associate of the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University. He is also a consultant to the Deputy Director General of the national Department of Higher Education and Training in South Africa.

Edwina Brooks is the Director for Student Development in the Department of Student Affairs at the University of Cape Town and chairs the Orientation Co-ordinating Committee and the Student Societies and Organisations Committee. Edwina holds a Master of Social Science degree in Social Development from UCT.

Florence Nakayiwa-Mayega is the Director of Planning and Development at Makerere University. Previously, she was a Coordinator of the Innovations at Makerere Committee; a Fellow of the University Leadership Programme at the University of Oldenburg, Germany; and a Fellow to the International Visitors Leadership Programme organised by the United States Department of State.

François van Schalkwyk is an independent researcher; a Trustee of the open access book publisher African Minds; and Managing Director of the publishing services company Compress.dsl. François holds an MEd from the University of the Western Cape; an MPhil in Publishing Studies from the University of Stirling; and is currently registered as a PhD candidate in the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University.
Gerald Wangenge-Ouma is the Director of Institutional Planning at the University of Pretoria. Previously, he was an Associate Professor of Higher Education Studies, and coordinated the Higher Education Masters in Africa programme at the University of the Western Cape. Gerald has served on several ministerial task teams on various aspects of higher education in South Africa, and sits on the editorial boards of several journals. He holds a PhD degree in Higher Education Studies from the University of Cape Town.

Gordon Musiige has completed a Master of Philosophy degree in Higher Education at the University of Oslo.

Henri Li Kam Wah is an Associate Professor of Chemistry in the Faculty of Science at the University of Mauritius. From 2002 to 2006, he was the Director of Quality Assurance at the University of Mauritius before assuming the post of Dean of the Faculty of Science from 2006 to 2009.

Ian Bunting is an Emeritus Professor of Philosophy of the University of Cape Town and a Research Associate of the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University. He served as Dean of the Faculty of Social Science and Humanities at UCT for a period of 11 years, before being seconded to the higher education branch of the national Department of Education as Director and later Chief Director.

Jacques Gaillard is a Senior Researcher at the Institut de Recherche pour le développement (IRD), Institut Francilien Recherche Innovation et Société (IFRIS) and Laboratoire d’Excellence SITES (Sciences, Innovation et Techniques en Société). He is also a Research Associate of the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University. Jacques is the former Deputy and Acting Director of the International Foundation for Science and former Director of the Office of Policy and Coordination of the Department of Technical Cooperation at the International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna.

Johann Mouton is Professor in and Director of the Centre for Research on Evaluation, Science and Technology at Stellenbosch University and the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy. He is also the Programme Director of five postgraduate programmes in Monitoring and Evaluation Studies and Science and Technology Studies. Johann is on the editorial board of six international journals, including the International Journal of Research Methodology, the Journal of Mixed Methods Research, Science and Public Policy, Science, Technology and Society and Minerva. In 2012, he was elected to the Council of the Academy of Science of South Africa.
Knowledge Production and Contradictory Functions in African Higher Education

Milandré van Lill is a Researcher at the Centre for Research on Evaluation, Science and Technology, University of Stellenbosch and the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy (SciSTIP). She completed her undergraduate and postgraduate studies in Sociology at the University of Stellenbosch and is currently pursuing her Doctoral degree in Science and Technology Studies at SciSTIP.

Nico Cloete is the Director of the Centre for Higher Education Transformation and Coordinator of HERANA. He is also an Extraordinary Professor at the Institute for Post-School Studies at the University of the Western Cape; Honorary Research Fellow at the University of Cape Town; Extraordinary Professor in the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University; and was previously a Visiting Professor in the Masters Programme in Higher Education at the University of Oslo.

Patrício Langa is an Associate Professor at the Institute for Post-School Studies at the University of Western Cape and the Faculty of Education at Eduardo Mondlane University. Since 2011, he has been the Executive Director of the Higher Education Quality Council of Mozambique. Patrício is also the President of the Mozambican Sociological Association and founder of a non-governmental organisation focusing on higher education studies in Mozambique.

Peter Maassen is currently Professor of Higher Education and Science Policy Studies in the Department of Education at the University of Oslo, and Extraordinary Professor at the Centre for Research on Evaluation, Science and Technology and the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University. Previously, he has been a member of the Executive Board of the University College Oslo (2007–2011); the Acting Director at the Center for Higher Education Policy Studies at the University of Twente (1996–1999); and a visiting professor at various universities in Europe, Japan, Australia, the United States, Canada and South Africa.

Randall Lange is an Administrator and Researcher at the Centre for Student Support Services, and a student in the Higher Education Masters in Africa programme, at the University of the Western Cape.

Robert Tijssen is Chair of Science and Innovation Studies at Leiden University and an Extraordinary Professor in the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at the University of Stellenbosch. He is also a Research Fellow at Leiden University’s Campus The Hague, as well as at the LDE Centre for Frugal Innovation in Africa (an inter-university research consortium of Leiden University, Delft University of Technology and Erasmus University Rotterdam).
Samantha Richmond is Operations and Programme Manager for the Afrobarometer Project’s Capacity Building Programme at the University of Cape Town’s Democracy in Africa Research Unit of the Centre for Social Science Research. Previously, she was a Project Manager within the Democracy in Africa Research Unit and a Researcher at the Centre for Educational Technology based at UCT. Samantha holds a Masters degree in Democratic Governance from UCT.

Taabo Mugume is a Researcher in the African National Higher Education Fund and is completing his Masters degree in Political Studies at the University of the Western Cape. He has worked as a research assistant on the HERANA Student Experience and Democracy project at Makerere University; in the Political Studies Department at UWC; and in the Sustainable Livelihoods Foundation.

Thierry Luescher-Mamashela is Assistant Director for Institutional Research at the University of the Free State. Previously, he worked as a Researcher on the HERANA Student Experience and Democracy project, and as a Senior Lecturer in Higher Education Studies and Extraordinary Senior Lecturer in Political Studies at the University of the Western Cape. Thierry holds a PhD in Political Studies from the University of Cape Town.

Tracy Bailey has been a Researcher and Project Manager for the Centre for Higher Education Transformation and HERANA since 2007. She holds a Master of Social Science degree in Sociology and Anthropology from the University of Cape Town, and is currently registered as a PhD candidate in the DST-NRF Centre of Excellence in Scientometrics and Science, Technology and Innovation Policy at Stellenbosch University.

Vincent Ssembatya is currently the Director of Quality Assurance at Makerere University. He was Dean of the Faculty of Science at Makerere University for the period 2005 to 2009. Vincent is a member of the Governing Council of the African Network for Scientific and Technological Institutions (ANSTI) representing the East African Region. He holds a PhD in Mathematics from the University of Florida.